A Christmas Lyric.

Sweetheart, I send my greeting
Across the world of snow,
Love's tender pledge to break the edge
Of winter winds that blow;
The one word still repeating—
The word I dared to say,
When all the hours were sweet with flowers,
And melody and May.

In these December ashes
That fill the valley's urn,
Now sleeps the fire of spring's desire
Which yet shall wake and burn;
And when once more it flashes
And lights with bud and vine,
Shall you be here with love to cheer
And light this life of mine?

Across the frosty isthmus
Of winter, white with drifts,
Love, like a bird, flies with a word
To you who hold his gifts;
Oh, at the dawn of Christmas,
When he returns to me,
Bid him to sing of such a spring,
And you his song shall be!

A WOMAN SHERIFF.

She Has Long Been a Brave and Efficient Officer.

A Belvidere, Ill., special says: After 12 years of active, hazardous and exciting life as chief deputy sheriff of Boone county, Ill., Mrs. Sarah J. Ames has hung up her handcuffs, quit carrying a gun and delivered the keys of the county jail into the hands of her successor. She has, in fact, been high sheriff for the last two years on account of the ill health of her husband. Republicans tried to prevail upon her to accept a nomination for sheriff last fall. During the time she occupied the sheriff's office with her husband she served papers, opened court each morning, was in charge of the county jail and personally admitted and discharged all prisoners, made more arrests than any man connected with the sheriff's office, arrested several criminals at the point of a pistol, tracked fleeing criminals into other counties and states and apprehended them, unraveled several mysteries of crime and brought the perpetrators to justice, made all arrangements for the execution of a condemned felon and was the happiest woman in the state of Illinois when the governor commuted the sentence, organized a ladies' cavalry club for political purposes and personally conducted her husband's last campaign.

TRAGEDY BEHIND THE SCENES.

A Stage Carpenter Murderously Assaults the Managers.

NOBRIESTOWN, Pa., Dec. 11.—Prior to the ringing up of the curtain in the opera house here tonight a murder committed on the stage by Frank Morgan, stage carpenter. He was intoxicated and insisted on going into the green room where the actresses were dressing.

The four Byrne brothers, proprietors of the show, attempted to stop him, when he drew a penknife from his pocket. Opening the blade, the infuriated man succeeded in cutting one of the brothers through the nose and another across the throat.

He then held the remaining brothers at bay until the arrival of an officer, when he was knocked down, and, after a scuffle, taken to jail, pending a hearing on the charge of murderous assault.

The brothers were unable to appear this evening. Their injuries are considered serious.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were always marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding la grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at John Y. MacRae's drug store. Regular size 50c, and $1.00.

During the past five years, including the one just drawing to a close, the city of Philadelphia has spent the enormous amount of $190,461,514 in its municipal expenditures, and can show today for all that vast outlay absolutely nothing of importance.

It May do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our state cert. Price only 50c for large bottles, at John Y. MacRae's drugstore.

Can't Sell Oleomargarine.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 11.—The supreme court affirms the validity and constitutionality of the law passed by Massachusetts, prohibiting the manufacture or sale in its territory of oleomargarine, colored so as to resemble butter, pure cream or milk. The case came up on appeal from the judgment of the supreme court of the state in refusing to release a man on a writ of habeas corpus from a term of imprisonment imposed by the municipal court of Boston for alleged violation of the statute.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. H. Mofford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought sure I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. Hal. Bobbitt, druggist.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Dec. 11.—It is estimated that 300 houses have been visited within the past six months by a "Peeping Tom," and Miles Maxwell, Jr., has recently been arrested as the culprit.

Mr. Ira P. Wetmore, a prominent real estate agent of San Angelo, Texas, has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for several years as occasion required, and always with perfect success. He says: "I find it a perfect cure for our baby when troubled with colic or dysentery. I now feel that my outfit is not complete without a bottle of this remedy at home or on a trip away from home." For sale by J. Hal. Bobbitt, druggist.
