

THE WEATHER.

The Conditions and the Forecast.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Clearing this evening; fair, colder Thursday.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 63; minimum temperature 53; rainfall 0.22.

An area of low pressure is central over the eastern lake region, with a trough of low pressure extending southward to North Carolina. It is causing rain throughout the northern and middle states unusually high temperature.

An area of high pressure and clearing condition, with cold weather, appears over Kansas. This will spread eastward today and Thursday.

"Uncle Randal" is 114.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Dec. 11.—"Uncle Randal" Jones, known far and near, celebrated his 114th birthday anniversary today. He is well and healthy, and is upon the streets daily. He was born in New Jersey, and never put his foot across the line.

He shook the hand of Gen. Washington when he was crossing the Delaware on his triumphal march to take the oath as first president of the United States.

He was also an eye-witness of the battle of Monmouth. Randal bought his liberty of Dr. Woodhull, for $35, in 1808.

Panic in Newfoundland.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Dec. 11.—Newfoundland is experiencing a complete commercial collapse. Banks are suspending, most of the large mercantile firms have failed and business is paralyzed. It is the worst financial convulsion that was overcome any country in recent years.

Nearly every bank on the island has gone under, as well as most of the important commercial houses. The general public blame, the administration for the crisis, and the feeling against it is intense.

What Will the Winter Be?

A lunar cycle is nineteen years; and if the moon has the same pull in aerial as in ocean tides, as many persons believe, it may be inferred that the present winter will be mild. Attempts to establish periodicity in winters, whether on a lunar cycle, supported by other basis, has so far yielded too meagre results to serve as starting points for a prognostic system; but it will be at least interesting, as a matter of curiosity, to note whether the moon's supposed sway upon our atmosphere will produce results this year similar to those of nineteen years ago.

Really a Great New York.

The present area of New York city, thirty-nine square miles, will be increased under the plan of consolidation adopted at the recent election to 317 square miles, embracing a population of 3,000,000. Thus New York will become second in the list of the great cities of the world, being out ranked only by London, which has a population of 4,231,431, according to the latest census.

Burials at Night.

A New York undertaker is authority for the statement that the custom of burying the dead at night has become more general in that city. The innovation has been prompted by considerations of economy of time.

Delighted With Matrimony.

Katie—"Well, Ethie, how do you like married life?"
Ethie—"Oh, it's simply delightful. We've been married a week and have had eight quarrels, and I got the best of it every time."

Xmas in Our Store.

In the selection of our goods for holiday trade this year, we haven't forgotten you, by you, we mean every body. So often it is difficult to find something for a gentleman, but this year we have made special provisions for men. We do not care how little you have to spend, you can surely find with us something at your price. Wish we had the space here to tell you what we have. Every one in Raleigh should visit our two floors and see our Xmas display.

Railroad News.

At Wilmington yesterday, pursuant to a decree of the circuit court in the case of the Baltimore trust and guarantee company, trustee, against the Wilmington, Chadbourn and Conway railroad, Col. John D. Taylor, special master sold at public auction the Wilmington, Chadbourn and Conway railway. The first bid was $50,000, made by Warren G. Elliott. W. S. O'B. Robinson bid off $51,000 and Mr Elliott bid $53,000, and it was knocked down to him for Mr. B. F. Newcomer, of Baltimore. The sale includes 53 miles of railway running from Conway, S. C., to Chadbourn, N. C., and thence to Hub, Columbus county. All the locomotives, cars, shops, warehouses, depots, lands, franchises, right of way, and all belongings of the road go with it. The terms were cash. The road becomes a part of the Atlantic Coast line.
