VOL. XXXII.

RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1894.

NO. 55.

For the New Year.

We are not cleaning out a lot of old books and shopworn stationery, but we are cleaning out some of the most readable books, in stylish bindings, you ever saw. Some of the finest stationery that pen or pencil ever traveled over.

When you learn that we are selling the famous standard books for 25¢, we know you will be surprised. What a pleasure to read such books at such prices.

The best of ink and the best of pens help the fingers to help the brain to do some good work.

We have just stocked upon Blank Books, Day Books, Ledgers, Pass Books and everything a business man wants to begin a new year's work. Prices lower than you have ever bought before.

Dr. D. W. C. Benbow, of Greensboro, arrived this afternoon.

Mr. C. T. Bailey, Jr., today became city editor of the Caucasian.

Mrs. Charles B. Miller, of Goldsboro, is visiting her sister, Mrs. B. R. Lacy.

Mr. R. B. Hall, of Atlanta, is here. It is understood that he comes on important business.

Mr. Elmo Weir, who has been spending the holidays with his parents, returned this morning.

Rev. L. H. Schubert, of Albany, N. Y., preached at the church of the Good Shepherd yesterday.

Mr. Will Bashford, now of Baltimore, who has been spending his holiday here, returned today.

Master Staples Fuller, of Durham, is here making a short visit to his uncle, master Jones Fuller.

This evening the Capital club will give a complimentary german to Capt. and Mrs. John W. Cross.

Mr. N. G. Clifton, of Raleigh, and Miss Alice Goodwin, of Durham, were married at the latter place last week.

Mrs. Hayes, superintendent of the mission rooms, was busy today raising subscriptions for the relief of the poor.

Dr. Mott, of Statesville, is the first republican candidate for U.S. senator term to reach here, the scene of operations. He came yesterday.

Miss Clara C. Morris, of Durham, who has been visiting Miss Etta Piper, returned home today. Miss Piper returned with her for a short visit.

Miss Sophia Busbee and Miss Busbee, who have been visiting in Wilmington, returned this afternoon. Miss Daggett, of Wilmington, returned with them.

It is learned that Mr. Thos. Pence will become the new city editor of the Daily Press, Mr. Bailey having accepted a position as local editor of the daily Caucasian.

At the end of this week Mr. Josephus Daniels will resign his position as chief clerk of the interior department and will return here, to devote his entire time to the management of the News and Observer.

WHAT DID HE MEAN?

Many Persons Think President Kilgo and the Advocate Have Joined the "State Aid" Fight.

In the last issue of the Christian Advocate, the organ of the North Carolina Methodists, was an article by Rev. John C. Kilgo, president of Trinity college, entitled "Christian vs State Education," that has given rise to much talk and comment among both Methodist and Baptists. The knowing ones of the latter denomination declare that the article was simply the beginning of a fight which the Advocate will make, joining the Biblical Recorder, against the state appropriation to the University and other state institutions for higher education.

While the article is not specific and deals more with generalities than with affairs here in North Carolina, the Baptists are confident that the Advocate, in its next issue, will take no uncertain stand in the matter. Their grounds for this belief are founded on certain editorial notes which have of late appeared in that paper touching on the "state aid" question.

Methodists, however, say that neither president Kilgo or the Advocate will take any stand on the question and that Mr. Kilgo's article did not in any way refer to North Carolina educational legislation. In the meantime the next issue of the Advocate is eagerly looked for.

AFTER BAR-KEEPERS.

"Jim" Forsythe Bound Over to Court on Another Charge.

This morning bar-keepers Spence and Forsythe were tried before justice Barbee on peace warrants sworn out by Hubert Warren and on a charge against Forsythe, of intimidating a witness in the case of selling liquor to minors, on which charge both he and Spence were tried and bound over to court a day or so ago by mayor Badger.

The peace warrants were dismissed by the justice and Warren, the man who swore them out, was taxed with the costs. The case of intimidating a witness, however, proved more interesting. Mr. Moore, the father of the young boy, Robt. Moore, to whom liquor was sold, and Warren both testified that Forsythe had attempted to prevent them, by threats, from testifying before mayor Badger against Spence. This Forsythe flatly denied and the matter resolved itself into a question of veracity between Forsythe and Warren. Warren's character was shown on the trial to be very shady.

Forsythe was represented by T. M. Argo, Esq., and S. G. Ryan, Esq. Logan Harris, Esq., represented the state. All the counsel made argument in the case, the defense relying on the shady character of the witness Warren to get their man off. Justice Barbee decided to hold Forsythe over to the grand jury on a recognizance. That gentleman must now answer at the next term of superior court to two charges, selling to minors and intimidating a witness.

Mr. Josiah King Dead.

The many friends of this venerable and highly esteemed Raleigh citizen will be deeply pained to hear of his death, which occurred this morning at 1:30 o'clock at his residence on East Davis street. Two years ago he was stricken down with paralysis and his relatives and friends thought that the end was near. He recovered only to be again paralyzed about a year ago. He lingered but never recovered from the second stroke. He leaves a sister, four children and a large circle of grandchildren to mourn his loss. The funeral services will be held from his late residence tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. King was twice elected alderman and for many years was an efficient member of the police force. He was kind, generous and good and loved by all who were thrown in contact with him.

There is always a stampede for rubber shoes, boots, etc., at Whiting Bros.' store when a snow storm comes. This speaks the popularity of this firm with the people.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

Farewell to 1894.

Turn over a new leaf.

Look out for more cold weather.

Tomorrow—bells, bells, bells.

Tomorrow will be observed only by the closing of the various departments and the banks.

Col. Kennan was today able to be at the supreme court room, after a severe attack of sickness.

Raleigh's weather is generally manufactured in Dakota, signal officer Von Hermann says.

Haywood's Raleigh orchestra left today for Henderson to furnish music for a big ball this evening.

Governor Carr has issued warrants for the execution at Asheville March 12 of Billy McDaniel and Henry Webb, murderers.

At the residence of Dr. Hogg tomorrow evening from 8 to 12 o'clock Misses Hogg and Miss Dortch will give an "at home."

"Catch on to" the attractive ad of W. C. & A. B. Stronach who are now selling out below cost, owing to a dissolution of the firm.

At noon tomorrow in the supreme court room, the new justices Faircloth, Fitches and Montgomery, will be sworn in by justice Avery.

The devotees of sleigh-riding are in their glory but the man who had polished up his skates in the hope of finding some good ice sighs wearily.

At the water-works pond there were a number of skaters yesterday. Skating began there Saturday afternoon. The snow put a stop to that sport.

The Evening Dispatch is the name of a new daily edited and published by a company of printers at Wilmington. It is a remarkably neat paper.

It is intimated that there will be more new year's calls tomorrow than usual. In the past ten years the custom has fallen almost into disuse here.

The S. A. L. train north-bound was two hours late today. There is a great deal of very just complaint against the irregular schedule of this popular railway.

Mr. A. B. Andrews, Jr., today probated the deed for one-third interest in the Union depot which was bought several weeks ago by the Southern railway.

Raleigh's poor are in a terrible condition. The snow has and will cause extreme suffering among them. Will not the good people of the city aid them?

The bar-keepers who have been selling liquor to minors are being given no rest—nor should they be. It is a vile and inhuman act and should be punished severely.

When will the board of aldermen meet and decide the question of market stall rents? Two meetings have been called but, in both instances, no quorum was obtained.

The colored people of Raleigh will tomorrow celebrate the anniversary of president Lincoln's emancipation proclamation. The exercises will be held at Metropolitan hall. There will also be a celebration at Louisville.

Saturday evening James McNeill, colored, was arrested for drunkenness. When he was searched a pistol was found on his person so this morning he was tried by mayor Badger and sent on to court for carrying concealed weapons.

Deputy collector Shelburn has two seizures of illicit distilleries to report to collector Simmons. One, of 50 gallons capacity, was located in Davidson county and was owned by Frank Meadows; the other, in Randolph county, was owned by John Stanley.

Mrs. Thos. Feggin, a daughter of Mr. William Ford, of this city, died Saturday in Columbus, S. C. Her remains were brought here yesterday. The burial took place at 12 o'clock today. Mr. Feggin was formerly employed in Royster's factory here and has many friends who sympathize with him in his misfortune.

WHAT A WHOPPER!

"The most liberal withdrawal plan offered." I would like to ask any sensible man what the meaning of the "most liberal withdrawal plan means" in a Building and Loan Association? Does it not mean the one which pays you back the most money? Well, listen: I bought some stock several days ago, in one of these "liberal" concerns, on which $68.25 in dues had been paid. I offered this stock to said association for $60.00—$8.25 less than had been paid in dues. They received $78.25 for it, including a mission fees. They refused the offer. Well, now suppose these unfortunate fellows had been in the Raleigh branch of the Southern what would they have received? Why, $68.25, and six per cent. interest. "Well, how much did you give for this stock, Mr. McDonald?" "None of your business." "How much did Mr. McDonald pay for this stock?" asked the Secretary. "Well, as this was a business transaction between myself and Mr. McDonald, and as it was my stock, and as I had a perfectly legitimate right to sell, I can't see why you should know," was the answer. "After this stock had been sold to me, one of the parties approached (after the stock had been offered to the Association) with a proposition to buy. Why? To leave the impression that he had sold something valuable. I knew what I was buying. I was figuring for McDonald. Well, I sold this stock, placed it for the Association, so it will get just as much out of it as if I had not bought it. So the Association is not damaged. I found a man who had some and wanted more. He liked it for the protection was in it—the instance—I doubt if this man can get any insurance in any other reliable insurance company. Why? Because they will not take him. So this was a good chance for him. I sold him the stock for $60.00 cash—$8.25 less than was paid in—and I made something on the trade. What do you take me for? Do you think I buy and sell stock for amusement? If you have any stock and can't get your money out of it, call and I will let you know if I can't handle it. Now, after placing this stock for the Association, which I thought was a favor, the most unkindest cut of all was for the Secretary to go around to one of the parties and tell him that Mr. McDonald has sold your stock for $80.00 and made dollars and cents out of it. The seller was amused. I paid him what he offered it to me for, and he had sense enough to know that I bought it to make something out of it. I would advise any one who sees any of the Southern stock for sale to buy it; it is as legitimate as if you were to buy stock in the Raleigh Savings Bank or Raleigh Cotton Mills. Every certificate has a transfer on the back. I will not get mad or fret because you bought or sold. I will guarantee this, though: Any stock in the Southern will be cashed by me when six months old for all that you have paid in. We will not lend you a part of it, but you get every cent you have in it, and if you want to start again you do without one cent of expense. Recollect this: After twenty four payments have been made you get every cent, and ten per cent. interest additional. Some people who have more cents in their pockets than sense in their heads are complaining of my long advertisements in our city papers. I thought I was helping Raleigh to support Raleigh papers, but I am willing to take (it is said a fool's advice is better than none) my advertisements out, so for 1895 I will not inflict these chronic growlers with them. The Southern is able to get all the business it wants without advertising. I have been endeavoring to educate the Raleigh public as to what they may expect in the Southern and other Associations, and feel that the money I have spent in advertising has been well spent in being a help and a saving to them in the future. For 1895 I will expect and intend to sell 1,000 shares, making 2,090 shares which the Raleigh Branch of the Southern will have January, 1896, with its 250 members and $200,000 worth of stock.

CHAS. C. McDONALD,
Sec. and Treas. Raleigh Branch of the Southern, of Knoxville, Tenn.

Just a Few Words.

Christmas is over. The repairing and overhauling of our machinery is completed. Our employees have had their holidays and return to work with renewed energy and happier faces because of the merry Christmas they have spent. We will be at the same old stand in '95, and extend to all a cordial invitation to send us any thing they have that needs laundering. This is not a meaningless invitation. We extend it in all earnestness. The work done by us for the past two months cannot be excelled by any laundry, north or south, and we are determined to keep it to this standard. Try us once and see.

Respectfully,
OAK CITY STEAM LAUNDRY,
L. R. WYATT,
Proprietor.

Express Wagons.

Your boy wants an express wagon. Get him the wagon and anything else he wants (if you can). He will not be a boy long and will not pass by this way again. He will soon be a man and pass out from under your care. The kindness you show him now will be remembered by him pleasantly all along life's journey. So do all you can now for the boy. One of those wagons from Swindell's will not cost much. Swindell has two hundred wagons and no room to keep them, because the big stock from Durham will soon be here. All wagons have been marked down to cost, at D. T. Swindell's.
