WHOLESALE AND RETAIL GROCERS.

On account of dissolution we must close out by January 31, 1895, our entire stock of Staple and Fancy Groceries, &c. Store, hotel, boarding house and housekeepers generally will find it to their interest to call and examine our stock and prices. Make your selections early.

AT AND BELOW COST

Canned Goods, Sauces, Pickles, Catsups, Preserves, Jellies, Mince Meats, &c. Cigars, Cigarettes and Cheroots by the box; at manufacturers' prices by the case. The stock must be sold and we intend to sell it.

Two in One.

The thing that is of greater importance to the citizens of Wake and adjoining counties than the repeal of the state bank tax or Carlisle's great financial scheme, are the great values that it is your privilege to select from every department of Swindell's store. In concentrating my business I have added to my stock between twelve and fifteen thousand dollar's worth of goods which cost me but 60 cents on the dollar, all of which I will sell at New York cost, and in consideration of carrying many of the same lines of goods in my regular stock I will in-

TOBACCO TALK.

Raleigh's Business Men Should Help the Leaf Industry.

"The Visitor has adopted the policy of 'tooning,' to the extent of its power, the leaf tobacco business here. There is absolutely no reason why Raleigh should not be a prosperous tobacco mart and all that keeps it from being such is a lack of encouragement. Progressive business men, who are ready and eager to help and encourage almost every other business, seem to be afraid or unwilling to advance money, or help out in any way, the tobacco business. And Raleigh actually has better and more natural advantages for carrying on a flourishing tobacco market than any other place in the state. At this time, when the price of king cotton, as no longer king, is so low, it behooves the business man and farmer alike to look to something else. The thing for them to look to is tobacco.

Did you ever think of the fact that this city is situated in the finest tobacco country in the world? Is it not very strange that the business is not more encouraged? A Visitor reporter has seen several gentlemen, both tobacco men and men who never dealt in it at all, and they all agreed that the farmer in Wake should look to tobacco for his salvation.

Now, just a few facts. One thousand pounds of tobacco brings away and above as much money as five times that amount of cotton; a thousand pounds of leaf, after being sold and packed, leaves over four times as much money; that is fifty cents, in a town as small as Raleigh, money paid out to tobacco helps a city, it puts money in circulation; this section is the finest tobacco country in the world, a gentleman telling a reporter today that Virginia buyers say the Raleigh market has a larger percentage of fine crappers than any other in the state; in one part of Wake county several crops of tobacco were raised that averaged, when sold, 27 cents a pound, a hundred pounds, a pile that one can easily lift, bringing as much as a bale of cotton.

These facts are telling. The local tobacco men say that the business has been slowly improving and that the outlook is bright. All Raleigh needs to have a flourishing market is for a few enterprising men to help out. Will they do it?

Special Notice! Members of the W. & O. relief association are hereby notified to be on hand. Matters of great importance appertaining to the association have to be attended to without delay. Take due notice thereof and govern yourselves accordingly.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

The ice broke up today.

St. Mary's school reopened today.

Much corn is for sale in this section.

The students are rapidly arriving at the various colleges.

There was a small snowfall last night; the third in a week.

Marshall M. Mott, Esq., one of the new solicitors, was here last evening.

Peace institute reopened this morning, the holiday vacation having expired.

Cotton receipts were light today but much heavier than they have been for some days past.

Two negro hackmen had a quarrel also a fight, in front of the Yarbrough last evening. The police got both.

Some of the republicans say that V. S. Lusk and not Z. V. Walser will be speaker of the house.

The Raleigh Gazette, the organ of the colored people, comes out for Dr. J. J. Kott for U. S. senator.

The weather had things all its own way last night. It rained, snowed and hailed at different times during the night.

Why don't Wake county farmers pay more attention to tobacco and less to cotton? Read "tobacco talk," in another column and then think.

The meeting of the citizens this evening to take steps towards helping the Nebraska sufferers will be held in Metropolitan hall—if there is a meeting.

The trial, set today, of a notorious white woman for disorderly conduct and other charges was indefinitely postponed. It is understood the woman has skipped.

Many people called at the state museum today. No new specimens have lately been received but Mr. Green is still hard at work arranging the exhibits in still more attractive style.

Quite a crowd of enthusiastic ladies went to the Southern freight depot this morning to see the granite for the confederate monument. Now the work will be pushed and the unveiling is in sight.

This morning the Seaboard Air Line placed at the union depot a revolving semaphore which is placed there for the purpose of holding and sending trains. Train orders, of course, will be taken. Mr. Murray will be the operator.

Mr. R. St. John, the recently elected vice president of the Seaboard Air-Line, has formally taken charge, and issues a circular to the officers, agents and employees, all of whom will be retained, urging them to put forth their best efforts in the company's behalf.

Mr. M. T. Leach will have a horse sale tomorrow. He says he expects to sell 100 head of horses and mules and that they are fine. Two car loads arrived today and another comes tomorrow. Mr. Wood, a shipper from the northwest, is here to look after them.

In the December number of the report of the state board of health, Wake's superintendent of health, Dr. P. E. Hines, says: "Whooping-cough, 3; scarlatina, 2; typhoid fever, 2. Sanitary condition of county home and jail very good. The work-house has been moved to the fair grounds. Fifty-five circulars sent out to physicians, with seven replies."

The Southern railway company has just issued a circular describing the uniform which has been adopted by the company for its men, beginning with this year. The coat for conductors is a single-breasted cutaway frock with side edges double stitched and with facings made loose for changeable buttons. There will be four buttons in front and four behind, and two on each cuff. The trainmen's coat is a single-breasted sack, with round corners, and with facings made loose for changeable buttons.

A SEVERE ATTACK

Which Causes a Stir in Local Republican Circles.

The following is a copy of the circular to which allusion was made yesterday. It is said that all those whose names are given as signers deny its authorship, but that the author is suspected. Here is the circular:

"The republicans of Wake county and of North Carolina met in the county and state convention, and agreed to co-operate with the people's party. All this was done after a conference with a committee of republicans from various parts of the state was called and held in Raleigh, July 30, 1894. Wake county convention was held August 25, and elected delegates to the state convention, but not until we had agreed to co-operate with the people's party. But two of the delegates sent to the state convention proved traitors to the grand old republican party: viz., E. A. Johnson and F. M. Sorrell. They entered the state convention and fought against co-operation in the interest of C. M. Cooke, democratic candidate for congress; Johnson tried to nominate T. C. Millan as a straight republican for congress, but Mr. Millan being a good republican would not allow the democrats to use him in the interest of Cooke.

Now after the republican party had agreed to co-operation, all the men who fought against co-operation in counties with co-operation tickets were either bought by the Democrats or they worked for them free of charge. Did the democrats pay you anything? Did they promise you anything, or did you work for that party free of charge? Where did the money come from that paid for circulars? That paid for pamphlets? That paid your buggy hire, and railroad fare? The public can ask the lightning bug nigger democrats whose names you find on this bill, or you can call on any one of the committee of fifty (50). We have the names of about 80 persons who worked against the grand old republican party in Wake. They claimed to be republicans heretofore, but this time they worked with and for the party that said, 'This is a white man's party'!!! So those niggers were trying to get white. Let them go, we do not need them. They are not to be trusted any more by the republican party. Who were they? We only give the names of a few of the leaders in this county and state at large, viz., E. A. Johnson, F. M. Sorrell, Henry S. Christmas, the Hon. John H. Williamson, (the man who has sold more negroes than any speculator in the state), John H. Branch, Chas. N. Williams, Fery Noble, N. L. Jeffreys, James E. Hamlin, James E. O'Hara, E. E. Smith, Jno. O. Crosby, Geo. T. Wasson, Rev. C. Dillard, Thomas P. Deveraux, M. Bowers, Isaac H. Smith, W. A. Day, Figgins Clements, Turner Evans, Wiley B. Hunter, Ed. Bledsoe, Bill Whitaker and John A. Savage. We had all these names and others at our justification meeting at Stronach's warehouse, Thursday night, November 20, 1894, but thinking you might forget them we give them now, so that you may lay them away for the future. We have others of less importance, but you can see them at the proper time.

WHEREAS, we, the republicans of the county of Wake, and the state of North Carolina, have for eighteen years been attempting to assert our rights and liberties by the ballot as citizens. And, whereas, in each contest, our will was unheeded and crushed to the earth by the democracy of the county and the state, and

WHEREAS, we found it necessary to co-operate with some other political organization for the purpose of preserving our rights as men and the purity of the grand old republican party, and the liberties of our children as fathers, and

WHEREAS, our efforts were opposed by democrats and others who called themselves republicans and who aided the Democrats in their damnable work. Therefore be it,

Resolved, that we, the republicans of the county of Wake, of the state of North Carolina, do openly and plainly denounce their action as party perjury and dishonor. Be it further

Resolved, that all who acted likewise are enemies to the republican party of this county and state.

Signed by Rev. J. Perry, Samuel Towns, I. Fields, S. J. Hawkins, Robert Johnson, William S. Mitchell, Ben. Robinson, John Turner, A. E. Rogers, A. E. Burgess, Thomas Lyon, Alfred Sutton, Peter Cobb, Henry Farrow, Willis Thornton, G. W. Fleming, Geo. W. Harris, Pat Stewart, J. C. L. Harris, J. W. Winslow, John O. Gray, Peter Jeffries, J. D. Nassom, Edward Smith, Stephen Hawkins, J. T. Anderson, A. J. Johnson, Frank Blackwell, committee.

We wish you a happy and prosperous New Year.

The trains today were crowded with many returning school girls.

Mr. David Borswanger has returned from a pleasant holiday visit to Knoxville, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rivins have returned from Durham, where they were during the holidays.

Rev. W. L. Hurley, travelling agent of the Christian Sun, who has been here for several days, left today.

Mr. Williams, formerly train master of the S. A. L., has been appointed chief train dispatcher.

Vice-president Stevenson left Asheville for Washington yesterday afternoon. Miss Stevenson is much better.

Mr. Cameron F. MacKae, of Fayetteville, who has been here for several days, returned home this afternoon.

Mr. Wade Hampton, who has been connected with the Wilmington Messenger, arrived here today. Mr. Hampton will take a position on the daily Caucasian.

Mr. Lehman, who has held a position in the store of Mr. D. Rosenthal, has been appointed chief clerk at the Southern freight depot to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. R. K. Williams.

Mr. Jesse Bingham, of Wilmington, Del., is here. Mr. Bingham, it will be remembered several years ago had the misfortune to lose an arm by the premature discharge of a cannon at Charlotte. He was formerly of Raleigh.

OBSERVATIONS.

The type for the daily Caucasian arrived today.

There is to be a large increase in tobacco culture in Wake.

There is a very little snow in the mountains; less than there was here.

The revenue collections in this district during December were $89,047.

The governor will be asked to commute the death sentence of Mary Norwood, the Durham murderess.

Gov. Carr today issued a commission to W. C. Douglas, Esq., as solicitor of the 7th district.

It is rumored that the Mills wagon company will put $8,000 more into the plant, and will put up a saw mill, dry kiln, etc.

A good deal of the stone for the confederate monument was unloaded from the cars at the Southern railway depot today.

Cards are out announcing the betrothal of popular Mr. Sam Bewanger to Miss Recha Gernsheimer of Mannheim, Germany.

Mr. J. B. Massemore who has had charge of the work on the residence of Mrs. W. H. Holloman, on Hillsboro street, has made a great success of it. It is one of the best built houses in the city.

Dughi has been a very busy man during the holidays and since. He has filled orders at Durham and other points, today filled one for Greenboro. He served refreshments at the Capitol club's new year german. Dughi is keeping up the reputation he has so worthily won. His sales of fruit have been the largest he ever made.
