TO THE MEMBERS OF THE NEW LEGISLATURE.

GREETING.

And a hearty welcome to Raleigh and a cordial invitation to Swindell's Big Store. There you find Collars, Cuffs, Neckties, Socks, Handkerchiefs and Cologne, Combs and Brushes at right prices. Now, gentlemen, do something sensible. Begin by repealing foolish enactments of your predecessors. This is the opportunity of your life to do a magnificent job. This legislature can immortalize itself by relieving the people of bad laws and enacting good ones. Give magistrates more jurisdiction; establish the whipping post; make it a crime for a judge to sentence a child to the penitentiary; get things right. Get a nice suit of clothes from Swindell's to start. Then get a pair of nice shoes from Swindell's that you may keep going. Help education and don't show lack of good judgment by cutting off any of the appropriations to the schools of the state. Follow the instructions of the attorney general in his letter to Gov. Carr. Fix things. Get a nice carpet and a cloak from Swindell's and send them home. Swindell pays express charges. Don't waste your wages in riotous living. Go to church each Sunday, and remember the plate will come your way. Get warm underwear and white shirts from Swindell's. And above all do your duty regardless of the opinion of your constituency at home. They will respect and honor you for it. Remedy the oyster law and spend your money at Swindell's store and your stay in Raleigh will be a grand and profitable success. Swindell's is 206 Fayetteville street.

SUPERIOR COURT.

Judge Starbuck's Charge to the Grand Jury Much Complimented.

Wake county superior criminal court convened in the court house this morning at 10:30 o'clock, Judge Starbuck presiding. The court was crowded, the judge being the attraction, on account of his politics and of his extreme youthfulness, for he is only 26 years old. Those, however, and there were some of them, who went in the hope of seeing any sign of weakness or lack of ability in the youthful judge, were disappointed.

On the contrary Judge Starbuck created an exceedingly favorable impression, both by his bearing on the bench and by his very clever charge to the grand jury. "He is a brainy young man," was the generally expressed opinion of him. His charge, which was quite lengthy, was clear, concise and showed that Judge Starbuck is a man in measuring whose ability the voters who elected him made no mistake.

The court was taken up, nearly during the whole day, with routine work. In the morning Wimberly was arraigned and an order given for a special venire of 100 men to be summoned. The precaution was also made of having the men drawn from the southern part of the country, as far as possible from the scene of the murder with which he is charged. Mr. A. W. Moye, than whom there is no better, abler or gentlemanly official anywhere, was sworn in by Judge Starbuck as deputy clerk. The following is a list of the members of the grand jury: Geo. F. Kennedy, foreman; G. B. Norwood, Alfred Powell, J. H. Jones; H. B. Olive, R. V. Bagwell, B. T. Hancutt, R. J. Whitley, J. A. Gilbert, John Jinks, R. C. Hopkins, J. F. Carter, J. T. Pullen, A. R. Harp, A. H. Tucker, Ananias Jordan, W. V. Norwood, E. A. Smith.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

Candidates are as plentiful as blackberries in June.

The News and Observer will next week be made an 8-page paper.

The democrats in the legislature will have their caucus tomorrow evening.

This being the "week of prayer," the meeting of the united order of King's Daughters is postponed until 4 o'clock p. m., January 15th.

The trains today brought in many members of the legislature. Most of them, however, were "small fry," all the big men having already arrived.

Superior court was crowded today, the attraction being Judge Starbuck, in whose charge to the grand jury interest was taken by the people as he is the youngest judge in this state.

By the kindness of Mr. H. A. Wilkinson the Visitor is enabled to furnish daily market reports. Its friends will thus be apprised of the market fluctuations the same day they occur.

The governor's message to the legislature is now completed. Today both the Governor and secretary Telfair were busy revising it. It consists of over ninety pages of typewritten matter.

The mayor's court was barren of news today. Only one case, that of James Hannah who, as reported in another column, "did up" four men in a fight yesterday, came up but was postponed until tomorrow.

The management of the N. C. industrial association, colored, has written the governor asking that he recommend in his letter to the legislature that the appropriation to the association be raised from $500 to $1,000 a year.

Manager Glass, of the telephone exchange, today received notice that the cabling, of which there is sixteen hundred feet, necessary for the removal of the office, has arrived. He says there are now 160 telephones in use in the city.

Last evening Mr. Pittinger preached an able sermon on the "Church" at the Good Shepherd. This is the first of a series of fine sermons on this subject which will be preached at that church. Among those who will preach are bishop Cheshire and Rev. Mr. Murdock.

At the meeting of the committee of the university held here a committee was appointed to adopt the reports of the secretary and treasurer of that institution. They performed that duty this morning. The members of the committee were Col. T. S. Kenan, R. T. Gray, Esq., and W. J. Peele, Esq.

Next Sunday, the ninth anniversary of the Y. M. C. A., which was mentioned in Saturday's Visitor, will be celebrated at the first Baptist church. Dr. Thomas Hume, professor of English at the university, will deliver the address. Addresses will also be delivered by Mr. W. S. Primrose and R. H. Battle, Esq.

In the account of a Raleigh paper of the burning of the house of Mr. Beine a night or so ago an unkind int was made at these colored people, intimating that they had stolen a number of chickens from the premises. Deputy sheriff Brooks says that he himself superintended the removal of the poultry and that he is certain that none of the chickens were lost or stolen. He further says that the colored people present deserve great praise for their efforts to save property that was in danger of being burned.

Who Will Get the Parrot?

Dugh's has another scheme which is solely for the benefit of the ladies. To the one who succeeds in making the greatest number of words out of "Dugh's Best Ice Cream" a fine talking parrot will be given. The time for this contest is from today to January 31.

We wish you a happy and prosperous New Year. SKILLING & HICKS, Druggists. Jan. 2 1/2.

WEEK OF PRAYER.

To be held at the First Presbyterian Church During this Week.

The week of prayer suggested by the evangelistic alliance will be observed in union meetings held in the First Presbyterian church of this city every evening of this week, commencing promptly at half past seven o'clock.

The following are the topics:

Humiliation and Thanksgiving this evening, January 7.—Confession: of sin—of unprofitableness to the service of Christ and of conformity to the world (Psa. li; Dan. ix, 3 19; Matt. xxi, 17, 20.) Praise and Thanksgiving: For blessings temporal and spiritual; for awakening conscience in civic affairs; for the increasing apprehension of Christ to society (Psa. xxxiv; Eph. i, 15, 23.) Conducted by Rev. J. N. Cole and Mr. J. C. Scarborough.

Death of Mr. B. L. Perry.

Mr. Benjamin Leecraft Perry, an estimable and popular gentleman, died late Saturday afternoon at his home on West Morgan street. He came here last September in feeble health. Heart disease and dropsy caused his death. He was 53 years old, was born in Beaufort, graduated with distinction at the state university and was a gallant soldier. He was proprietor of the Parcell house at Wilmington for some time, and for two seasons past of the Atlantic hotel. Overwork at the latter was the cause of his poor health. He married Miss Etta Duncan, sister of Mr. John A. Duncan, and she and three children survive him. His funeral was held this morning from Christ church. Rev. Dr. Marshall, who officiated, was a classmate of Mr. Perry. The interment was in Oakwood. The pallbearers were: Messrs. James McKee, F. J. Haywood, J. B. Hill, E. M. Uzzell, J. R. Ferrall, O. H. Foster, J. B. Kenney and Thos. Badger.

May Sue for Libel.

A. E. Johnson, a prominent colored lawyer and republican, who, with others, was severely attacked in a card signed by fifty republicans, was seen by a Visitor reporter this morning in regard to what action, if any, would be taken towards prosecuting the author of the circular. He said that he was positive that Rev. R. H. Leak was the man but that the evidence he now had was indirect and would not authorize prosecution. He said that, after every man whose name was signed to the circular had denied authorizing its use, he had gone to Barnes Bros., who printed the circular, and asked who had given it to them. He was informed that Leak had first called and spoken of having the article printed but that the man who actually brought the "copy" was unknown to them. Mr. Johnson will try to get farther and more direct evidence, but, may, if he is unable to do so, bring suit anyhow.

Was it a Ghost?

Saturday night a colored girl who works at the residence of Mr. Julian Timberlake on Blount street created a great excitement by screaming in fear that a burglar was in the house. The girl was alone at the time, the family having none out, and when the crowd drawn by her screams arrived, announced that a bold, bad man had looked in the window at her. A policeman had also arrived in the meantime and he made a thorough investigation without, however, finding any burglar. The girl was finally pacified, the crowd dispersed and quiet reigned again. The girl was positive in her statement but was uncertain whether the man she saw was a real man or a ghost. Now the question is, which was it?

DID UP FOUR.

James Hannah Is a "Scrapper" of the First Water.

James Hannah, a who works at the electric lighting plant, went out yesterday afternoon for a stroll. While engaged in this occupation he met Joseph Johnson and three other men, all operatives in the Caraleigh mills. Pleasantries were exchanged and then words followed that were not quite so pleasant. Finally Hannah and one of them became engaged in a scrap and, it is said, the man attempted to use brass knucks. Hannah snatched the weapon from his opponent and sailed in to do up the crowd. What cared he that the odds were four to one? He tackled first one and then the others. They fought and kicked and scuffled and tore up the earth while a crowd of enthusiastic spectators looked on and cheered and chattered. The fun lasted over fifteen minutes and when it was over the mill hands looked as though they had been dragged through some of the machinery they work with.

Mr. Hannah made his escape as the victors in such contests generally do, but the mill hands fell into the hands of the police. The trial was called this morning before mayor Badger but no Hannah appeared. He had made good his escape. The gentlemen with whom he fought are in a battered condition but none are seriously hurt. The trial is called for tomorrow and will be heard then, provided Mr. Hannah is caught. It is said that all the parties engaged had been drinking heavily.

Extra bargains in furniture at Thomas & Maxwell. Bed lounges with detachable mattresses a specialty.
