WIMBERLY FREED

THE JURY SAID HE WAS NOT GUILTY.

And He Walked From the Court Free Again.

At exactly nine-thirty minutes of 3 o'clock this afternoon the jury in the Wimberly case filed into the court room. Neither Mr. Parnell, Mr. Busbee or Wimberly were present and they were therefore sent for.

During the wait that followed the people in the rooms earned the grave face of the jury, but they told nothing.

Wimberly came in first and took his accustomed seat. There was a hard set expression on his face when he entered the room but, as he fixed his single eye earnestly on the jury, his lips parted and his breath came fast and hard. He kept his eye fixed steadily on the jury.

Mrs. Wimberly came in and sat beside her husband. She made no sound but as she raised her handkerchief to her eyes it could be seen that she was weeping, silently but bitterly.

The suspense was terrible; that both Wimberly and his wife felt it keenly could be seen; the crowd in the room also felt it as could be seen by the nervous movement among them. Why didn't the lawyers come?

At five minutes past three a wild rush into the court room caused a general raising of necks and soon the demure figure of Mr. Parnell was seen coming towards the bar. He came and sat down by his client. Wimberly's jaws shut with a convulsive snap, his brow wrinkled and he bit his lip. Then the juror's names were called. Each one answered and then the solemn question came, "Have you agreed on your verdict." Then Wimberly was made to stand up. "Gentlemen what is your verdict," asked clerk Moye. Quick as a flash Wimberly whirled his head towards the jury and then—he sat down quickly and burst into joyful tears, for the jury had said, "Not Guilty." Mrs. Wimberly sat dazed and weeping; she did not realize the verdict until her husband leaned over and told her of it. Then he was discharged and he and his weeping wife left the court room. A hoarse murmur ran through the crowd and the Wimberly trial was over.

Mr. Pou congratulated Mr. Parnell on his victory, he deserves the congratulations of all who know him; so does Mr. Busbee; so does Mr. Pou. Mr. Busbee and Mr. Parnell won their case; Mr. Pou did not, but it was not his fault.

Florida on Wheels.

A large number of citizens inspected it.—Reading, Pa., Daily Gazette.

This wonderful car will exhibit in Raleigh, Friday and Saturday, Jan. 18th and 19th, at the Southern railway depot, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

A Vanderbilt Divorce.

New York, Jan. 18.—Every indication points to actual legal action between Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt over their marital difficulties. Mr. Vanderbilt is now in midocean bound for the Mediterranean, where he will finish the winter on the yacht. Husband and wife employed counsel to adjust their differences. They will never live together again, it is said, but Vanderbilt has settled a handsome annual income for life on his wife—$250,000 is the figure mentioned.

Queen Anne's Chaplain.

It was customary, when queen Anne was dressed, for prayers to be read in the afternoon, and once her majesty gave orders for the doors to be shut while she changed her things, whereupon the chaplain stopped. The queen immediately sent to ask why he did not proceed, to which he replied that he "would not whistle the word of God through the keyhole."

PERRY SENTENCED.

Twenty Years at Hard Labor. Says the Judge.

This morning the sentence of the court was passed on Wyatt H. Perry by Judge Starbuck. He was convicted of murder in the second degree for the killing of Tom Bailey in New Light township. The sentence was 20 years in the penitentiary. Mr. Parnell, Perry's counsel made a motion for a new trial which was denied. He then appealed to the supreme court. The verdict is a popular one.

The following cases of minor importance were disposed of this morning: State vs W. H. Miller and Florence Brown, jury, not guilty.

State vs Frank Durham, nol pros.

State vs James Hannah, nol pros.

State vs Marshall Spence, selling liquor to minors, guilty and judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs Ed Potter, selling to minors, judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs Geo. Jones, selling to minors, fined $10 and costs.

State vs Jackson Allen, c. c. w., nol pros.

State vs Mansell Robertson, c. c. w., 90 days on the roads.

State vs Alex. Ferrell, affray, sentenced to work out 1-2 cost on the road.

State vs John Glenn, trespass, guilty, fined a penny and cost. A motion for a new trial was overruled and defendant appealed.

State vs James Hinton, resisting an officer, 8 months on the roads.

State vs Rufus Kunkles, l. and r., sentenced to roads to work out costs.

THE WEATHER.

The Conditions and the Forecast.

For North Carolina: Sunday fair, colder.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Sunday and Monday fair weather, slightly cooler.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 56; minimum temperature 46; rainfall 0.0.

A slight storm exists on the Atlantic coast between Norfolk and New York, with lowest pressure at Washington, D. C. A little snow and rain has fallen on the north and northwest side. It is snowing this morning at New York and Buffalo. The pressure is high from the lake region down to the Gulf of Mexico. A new storm seems to be originating in the extreme northwest. The weather is generally cloudy in the central valley and westward, and fog is reported at Huron, St. Paul, Omaha, Memphis, New Orleans, Galveston and Jacksonville. The temperature has fallen considerably in the vicinity of St. Paul, slightly at a few other points, and has risen in the south.

Fool! Felon! Rebel!

Is the striking topic of address by Mr. L. A. Coulter, of Charlotte, at Y. M. C. A. building, Sunday at 4 o'clock. For men only. Let there be a large crowd to hear him. Strangers especially invited.

An Indecent and Contemptible Act.

The Christian Advocate, in its last issue, so far forgot its dignity and self-respect as to publish a particularly abusive and offensive article criticizing the Raleigh ladies for giving a dance for the benefit of the confederate monument. If the article did not abuse the ladies it would be unworthy of a gentleman's notice but, considering the circumstances, it deserves severe condemnation. The Visitor will Monday publish some of the contemptible statements in the article with proper comment.

Two Together.

He—I am very unfortunate; it seems I can please nobody.

She—Come, cheer up; I have no one to admire me, either.

He—I tell you what, let's found a society for mutual admiration. I, for instance, admire your beautiful eyes; and what do you admire about me?

She—Your good taste.

For colic, scur, sprain; bruises pavin, swellings and all diseases of horses and cattle Johnson's Magaetic Oil, horse brand, gives excellent satisfaction. $1.00 size 51 cents; 50 cent size 35 cents. Sold by John Y. MacRae, druggist.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

The fancy dress ball—Tuesday evening.

Miss Minnie Upchurch, who has been visiting in Durham, has returned.

Alexander Blalock, a U. S. prisoner, was released from jail on bail today.

Mr. H. T. Watkins, of Henderson, is here.

Mr. C. J. Cooper, of Oxford, is in the city.

Mr. W. J. Cooper, of Durham, arrived today.

Miss Ida Knight, a young lady, of Richmond, Va., is visiting Miss Mollie Parish, 316 West Edenton street.

A five year old colored girl named Shapp was accidentally burned last night in east Raleigh. She died this morning.

Crowds of people who visited Florida on Wheels car today expressed the opinion that the exhibit was "out of sight."

The birth day of general Robert E. Lee was observed today by the closing of the banks and the state departments. It should be more widely observed than it is.

A gentlemen today made a public address criticizing the Visitor. Unfortunately a reporter was not present but they say that eloquence flowed as freely as molasses.

Mrs. Wimberly today said that George Mills had more sense than any member of the Mills or Wimberly families. "He don't have nothing to do but sit and study," says she.

Mr. Bull, the agent of the Newberne oyster and game fair, February 18, 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23 was here yesterday. He says that an effort will be made to have the legislature attend the fair in a body on February 22nd.

The American tobacco trust has sued the Winston cigarette manufacturers, alleging that the latter's new machines are an infringement on the patents owned by the trust. The latter sent spies to Winston who got into the factories.

Worthy of Patronage.

We refer to the popular and well known Hi Henry's Minstrels, who appear at the Academy Music on Monday Jan. 21. Good performers, good music superb costumes, artistic ability, songs, dances, specialties by 40 minstrel stars, headed by the great Frank E. McNish and other noted stars with this well known amusement attraction. They should meet with a rousing reception. Seats now on sale at W. H. King's drug store.

Judge Starbuck Leaves

Judge Starbuck this afternoon concluded his work for this term of court. He goes to Goldsboro tomorrow where he presides over the criminal term of court which convenes there Monday. He has shown himself to be a young judge of ability and has made many friends by his courteous and polite conduct, on and off the bench. Raleigh will be glad to welcome him again.

Rev. Mr. Horner to Preach.

Tomorrow morning and evening the Rev. Janus Horner of Oxford will officiate at the Cathedral of the Good Shepherd. In the evening Rev. Mr. Horner will preach the third of the series of sermons on the "Church one, Holy Catholic and apostolic. The time of the discourse will be the church—Catholic. Mr. Horner is a young clergyman of acknowledged ability, as well as a distinguished educator and the announcement that he is to preach on this interesting subject will be sufficient to attract a large congregation. Seats are free, and all invited.

Good For Pat.

A gentleman riding with an Irishman came in sight of an old galloway, and to display his wit, said: "Pat, do you see that?" "To be sure O! do," replied Pat. "And where would you be today if the galloway had its due?" "O! d' be riding alone," replied Pat.

TEACHER'S ASSEMBLY

Executive Committee in Session Here.

This afternoon the executive committee of the teacher's assembly met at the Park hotel. The members of the committee are C. B. Denson, president, E. G. Harrell, secretary; E. P. Moses, C. F. Siler, of Holly Springs, M. L. Shipman, of Brevard, Joseph Kinsey, of La Grange, F. B. Claxton, of Greensboro and C. W. Toms, of Durham.

The committee met at 3 o'clock and was in session for several hours. It meets again this evening. It was impossible for the Visitor to obtain a report of the committee's action but it is learned that the only business will be to arrange a program and other details of the next meeting of the assembly.

Many engagements for the meeting have been made with prominent northern educators, among them being Dr. Winchell, of Boston, Dr. Berdeen, of Syracuse, N. Y., and Dr. Morey, of Cambridge. It is also expected that the celebrated Col. Parker and wife, of Chicago, will be present.

Two evening entertainments have been arranged for the meeting. Mr. Polk Miller, the Richmond humorist, will be in attendance.
