

EVENING VISITOR.

VOL. XXXII.

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, JANUARY 26, 1895.

NO. 72.

For the New Year.

We are not cleaning out a lot of old books and shopworn stationery, but we are cleaning out some of the most readable books, in stylish bindings, you ever saw. Some of the finest stationery that pen or pencil ever traveled over.

When you learn that we are selling the famous standard books for 25% we know you will be surprised. What a pleasure to read such books at such prices.

The best of ink and the best of pens help the fingers to help the brain to do some good work.

We have just stocked upon Blank Books, Day Books, Ledgers, Pass Books and everything a business man wants to begin a new year's work. Prices lower than you have ever bought before.

ALFRED WILLIAMS & CO.

MUST MAKE room for new goods and to do this we have fixed the prices right on.

U S T DRESS GOODS AND TRIMMINGS, LACES, Hamburgs, Ladies' Underwear, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Hosiery and Corsets.

THEY MUST BE SOLD

And we have put a special price on all Millinery Goods. Bound to go, Men's Hats. Also a few Derbys and the price must move them.

Shoes, Shoes, for less money than can be bought anywhere. We have a few small Norbin Dress Shoes, men's 6's and 7's, that will be sold at reduced price.

LYON RACKET STORE.

Echoes from Behind the Curtain.

The crowning point of a well dressed man is a fashionable and stylish hat. A dealer with an eye to beauty can make any man's head look well. See the line for men and boys at Swindell's Cash Store.

Can a leopard change his spots? Yes, by going to some other spot. But there is no spot in Raleigh where a dollar will go so far or buy so much as at Swindell's Cash Store.

Reign of terror now at 206 Fayetteville street. Swindell's gallitine is chopping the heads off every price on every article in overcoats, ladies' wraps and all heavy winter goods. Swindell's Cash Store.

If you want to know what money's worth try to borrow it, or test its power at Swindell's Cash Store.

Knowledge is power. Knowing when and where to buy is the knowledge that gives you the power to save your money. Now on exhibition an early shipment of all of the latest novelties in Hamburgs, Laces and embroideries at Swindell's Cash Store.

We don't keep books. If we did we'd have to hire a bookkeeper, and a collector and a lawyer, and we'd have to charge more for goods to make up for what we had on our books that we couldn't collect. But the soft rattle of a bank note, or the jingle of a silver dollar for all goods that pass over our counters is why we can offer you such values. Swindell's Cash Store.

Board Wanted.

By a young man, habits good, private family preferred, location near capitol square. Address, with particulars, X. Y. Z., care Visitor.

Moseley's Cafe,

129 Fayetteville street, Raleigh.

Do you eat? If so, at eat the Ladies' and Gentlemen's Cafe, one door from Tucker's. All the luxuries served to order that the market affords. Parties visiting Raleigh will find it convenient and pleasant to stop.

Specialty: Coffee such as we enjoy and delight to drink—coffee.

I ask a cordial support. Something that the merchant should encourage. Having a good customer treat him to a lunch at MOSELEY'S CAFE.

Whitlaw Reid is reported to have regained his health during his stay in North Africa.

The lower house of the legislature now has five colored members.

A NOTED BABY.

It Died Yesterday. Was Just 9 Months Old and Weighed 66 Pounds.

Many people do not know that Wake county, up to yesterday, contained one of the most wonderful babies in the world and one that had it been exhibited in a museum would have been made famous and have made a pot of money besides. Yet such was the case; was, for the baby although wonderfully large, was nevertheless subject to the trials and dangers of babyhood. It died yesterday morning from the effects of a congestive chill. The parents of the infant prodigy were Prof. and Mrs. J. H. Weatherly, of Oak Grove township. They loved their child to distraction and its death is an almost irreparable loss to them. Mrs. Weatherly is a large, well formed woman but her husband is a very small man weighing only 116 pounds.

Thursday evening the parents put their child to bed. They were not disturbed during the night but when the mother went to take it from its bed yesterday morning it was cold in death. A congestive chill had come and after a silent, quick struggle had taken the life of Wake county's largest and one of its brightest babes.

THE WEATHER

The Conditions and the Forecast.

For North Carolina: Fair and colder tonight; fair, decidedly colder Sunday.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Sunday fair, weather considerably colder.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 51; minimum temperature 44; rainfall, 0.58.

The storm yesterday near Vicksburg, Miss., with a barometer 29.60 inches, has moved with great rapidity across the country to the east lake region, increasing in intensity. It has caused precipitation in the form of rain or snow at almost every station from which reports are received, extending from Augusta northward to New York.

A high era is central over Texas and generally clear, much colder weather prevails off the Mississippi river.

Mission Exercises.

During the mission services to be held at the Catholic church beginning, next Sunday, there will be preached every night a sermon explanatory of Catholic belief. The Catholic doctrine is very much misrepresented and these explanations will be given to correct false impressions among the public. For this reason also a question box will be placed at the entrance of the church, and any one desiring to have answered questions on religion and morals is invited to write the questions on paper and place them in the box. A public explanation of the questions will be made every evening before the sermon.

Cordially Invited.

Strangers and residents in the city are cordially invited to attend the session of the Baptist tabernacle Sunday school tomorrow morning at 9:15 o'clock. Our school has the reputation of being the largest in the state. The song service, led by an orchestra, will occupy 15 minutes at the opening and at the closing of the school. Three departments, primary, intermediate and adult, comprise our work, and members are received in either for a long or short period. Special seats reserved for strangers.

N. B. Broughton, Superintendent.

The Visitor a day or so ago stated that a student who failed to pass his examinations at the A. & M. college could no longer continue to be a student there. This was a mistake. A student who fails to pass has a chance to make up his examinations but many prefer not to return to college.

Chief Heartt has received letters from manager J. A. Roach, of the Rory of the Hills company, who wants to play here. He says that a realistic feature of the play is the introduction on the stage of 200 people 20 horses and donkeys and a pack of fox hounds.

MAYOR LINK DEAD

DEATH CAME TODAY AT GREENSBORO.

Heart Failure Brings Sudden Death to Durham's Mayor.

Special to the Visitor.

DURHAM, Jan. 26.

News was received here this morning of the death of Capt. I. N. Link, which occurred at Greensboro at 8 o'clock this morning. He was at the time on his way to Morganton for treatment and when death came was sitting in a carriage awaiting the train to Morganton. Death was caused by heart failure. The funeral will be held here tomorrow at 2 p. m.

Captain Link was the mayor of his town and was respected as one of Durham's most honorable and useful citizens. His death is one of the saddest that has ever occurred. He leaves an only daughter and a young wife to mourn his loss.

He only last week married his second wife and it is thought that the excitement attendant upon his marriage caused his mind to be overbalanced. He had been under treatment at Durham for several days and his sad case caused much regret and sympathy among Durhamites. Yesterday his physicians decided that it was best for him to be taken to Morganton for treatment. His wife and daughter went with him but as they were waiting for the train at Greensboro death came suddenly as stated in the above special.

Tomorrow Durham's mayor will be brought back a corpse. It is sad, very sad. But such is life.

FACTORY LABOR.

A Summary of a Bill for its Regulation, etc.

Mr. Lusk's bill regarding hours of labor in factories, introduced yesterday in the house, is in brief as follows:

Sec. 1. Provides that no person shall be intimidated or prevented from entering or continuing in the employment of any person or corporation.

Sec. 2. That no person, corporation, agent or officer shall coerce or compel persons into agreement not to join or to become a member of any labor organization, as a condition of employment.

Sec. 3. Owners of manufacturing establishments shall give employees time to vote at all elections in the state.

4. No corporation or person shall exempt itself from damage for injuries suffered by them resulting from negligence of employees.

5. Nine hours shall constitute a day's work for all laborers now or hereafter employed in behalf of the state, county, city, or town.

6. All contracts on behalf of the state requiring labor shall not require them to work more than nine hours each day.

Sec. 7. Hours of labor shall not be more than 54 per week.

Sec. 8. Corporations or officers or agents thereof manufacturing in the state shall not employ any woman or minor between the hours of 10 o'clock at night and 6 o'clock in the morning.

Sec. 9. That no child under 13 years of age shall be employed at any time in any factory.

Sec. 10. No child, young person or woman shall be employed more than six hours without an interval of at least 40 minutes for meals.

11. That no child under 14 shall be permitted to clean machinery in factory while in motion.

In the oratorical contest for a medal held by the Leazer society at the A. & M. college last evening Mr. J. C. Dey won the prize. A number of people visited the college to hear the exercises, which were very entertaining.

Mr. G. H. Burnham of Asheville, N. C., will speak to men only at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow evening at 4 o'clock. There will be good music of 20 minutes, led by Prof. Smith. All men are cordially invited.

Nagles' Certain Cough Cure, and Hicks' Fragrant Almonds guaranteed to cure or money returned. 25c. SHELLEW & HICKS, Druggists, Jan 17.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

At Hillsboro This Morning. Three Dwellings Burned.

It was learned today that a destructive fire occurred in the little town of Hillsboro this morning. People who came down on the 1 o'clock train stated that several dwellings and stores had been burned. The following special was received from Hillsboro this morning:

HILLSBORO, Jan. 26.

Fire this morning, between the hours of 1 and 4 o'clock, destroyed the dwellings of Mrs. John Rosemond, Dr. O. Hooker and a dwelling owned by John Laws, Esq., but occupied by the Misses Porter.

A high wind prevailed at the time the flames broke out and the fire spread rapidly. It was feared that the whole town would be burned. All efforts to retard the progress of the fire were fruitless. The fire started in the dwelling of Mrs. Rosemond and she suffered an almost complete loss, nothing being saved. The furniture, etc., in the other houses was saved. The loss will amount to $7,000. There was no insurance.

Hillsboro is a town of about 900 inhabitants. There is no fire company and the high wind made it impossible for the citizens to accomplish anything. The cause of the fire is unknown but it is thought to be of incendiary origin.

GET ON YOUR COAT.

A Cold Wave is Coming and You Will Need It.

The following special bulletin was received by the weather people from the chief of the weather bureau this afternoon:

Hoist cold wave signal. Temperature will fall twenty degrees by Sunday night.

Simply a "Scrap."

This morning two sad-faced people were before Mayor Badger for trial. The charge was affray and each charged the other with starting the row. One was a man of about 40 years and the other a mature woman with a strong and evidently pugnacious Irish cast of countenance. The man's name is C. P. Davis and the woman's Elizabeth Medlin. Davis' tale is that he rented a room from the woman; she ordered him out and on his refusal to go pounded him and struck him, first with her fist, then with an axe. The woman says that Davis had not rented the room. Other witnesses testified as to an axe being used so Mayor Badger bound both parties over to court.

Who Wants Josiah Johnson?

Policeman Beasley is in receipt of a curious letter. It comes from a man named Josiah Johnson who states that a Raleigh lawyer, whose name he did not know, had offered a reward of $10 for information about his place of residence. He kindly gives Mr. Beasley the information and advises him to collect the reward. If there is such a lawyer here Mr. Beasley can furnish all information desired.

Rev. Dr. Tyler author of "Forty Years Among the Zulus," will preach at the Christian church tomorrow morning at 11 a. m., on his mission work and describe the process of raising Zulus from barbarism to manhood. Dr. Tyler is a most interesting speaker and preacher of the Gospel, of broad and rich experience in both home and foreign mission work. Friends and the public are cordially invited to hear him.

Eighteen Years Old.

William Robertson, white, was hanged yesterday at Rocky Mount, Va., for the murder of Jere Barbour three years ago. Robertson and Barbour left Wardsboro together on the night of January 25, 1892. Barbour's body was found in the road next morning. His pockets had been robbed of $10 and the money was found on Robertson's person. The murderer was eighteen years old and Barbour was 68.

A gentleman tells the Visitor that he actually saw a dead white mule. The sacred animal belonged to Capt. Coke and was 47 years old. Another idea—the immortality of white mules—is "busted."

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered In and Around the City.

Mrs. George V. Strong is still critically ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bain left for Louisville this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Biddick left for Wake Forest this morning.

Many people turned out to the 5 cent show at Metropolitan hall this afternoon.

David Jones, a U. S. prisoner from Oak Grove, was released on bail today.

Mr. Cary Hunter is having built five handsome cottages near the the Devreux place. Raleigh grows.

Mr. Lewter, freight agent of the Southern railroad, is confined to his room with a severe case of la grippe.

A rapidly rolling hat and the "flying dutchman" figure of its owner was a sight frequently seen on the streets today.

The foundation of the new ice factory being built on West Hargett street is laid. It is of North Carolina brownstone.

The legislators have caught right on to the "cottonene" exhibit in Stronach's. A number of them lunch there daily.

Regular March weather this morning. The screeching of many wildly swinging signs furnished a weird sound on the streets.

Mr. Charles T. Grandy, of North Carolina, has purchased an interest in the Richmond State and becomes its business manager.

There are now only six prisoners in the county jail. The rest have been released on bond or are on the roads or at the penitentiary.

In its next issue the Biblical Recorder will contain a strong editorial attack on the Greensboro Normal and Industrial school for girls.

The frame work of the new Farina flouring mills is up and weather-boarding is being put on. The building will be a large and handsome one.

The change in the weather last night was a wonderful one. Between the hours of 6 and 11 p. m. the temperature rose from 36 to 62 degrees.

A colored man, named Jones, fell from a scaffolding on a house this morning and was quite painfully hurt. He was badly bruised and his wrist was broken.

The weather bureau people should feel proud of themselves. They have been predicting the fluctuations of that various element with wonderful precision.

The sheriff's people are hustling about town at a great rate these days hunting delinquent tax payers. And this class of citizens don't get much sleep o' nights.

Chief of police Heartt on the evening of the 23rd picked up a pocket-book in Metropolitan hall, containing money. The owner can get it by calling and describing property.

The memorial committee of Baptists today presented their memorial paper to the legislature. But the caucus has already decided that the appropriation to the University is to be unmolested.

Prof. E. A. Allerman this morning delivered an excellent address to the children of the Murphey school. It is to be regretted that the Visitor, owing to a lack of space, is unable to publish a summary of the talk.

Rev. Robert Strauge of Wilmington, sometime rector of the church of the Good Shepherd in this city, arrived to day and is the guest of Mr. R. H. Battle. Tomorrow evening at the Cathedral of the Good Shepherd Mr. Strauge will deliver the fourth sermon in the series on the church now in progress there. His theme is THE CHURCH HOLY. It will be a happy privilege to his many friends and old parishioners by whom he was greatly beloved to again listen to his eloquent voice. Seats are all free and every one is cordially invited.
