

EVENING VISITOR.

VOL. XXXII.

RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY, JANUARY 29, 1895.

NO. 74.

For the New Year.

We are not cleaning out a lot of old books and shopworn stationery, but we are cleaning out some of the most readable books, in stylish bindings, you ever saw. Some of the finest stationery that pen or pencil ever traveled over.

When you learn that we are selling the famous standard books for 25% we know you will be surprised. What a pleasure to read such books at such prices.

The best of ink and the best of pens help the fingers to help the brain to do some good work.

We have just stocked upon Blank Books, Day Books, Ledgers, Pass Books and everything a business man wants to begin a new year's work. Prices lower than you have ever bought before.

ALFRED WILLIAMS & CO.

MUST USE T MAKE room for new goods and to do this we have fixed the prices right on
DRESS GOODS AND TRIMMINGS, LAVERS,
Hamburgs,
Ladies' Underwear,
Handkerchiefs,
Gloves,
Hosiery and Corsets.

THEY MUST BE SOLD

And we have put a special price on all Millinery Goods. Bound to go, Men's Hats. Also a few Derbys and the price must move them.

Shoes, Shoes, for less money than can be bought anywhere. We have a few small Norbin Dress Shoes, men's 6 and 7, that will be sold at reduced price.

LYON RACKET STORE.

Echoes from Behind the Curtain.

The crowning point of a well dressed man is a fashionable and stylish hat. A dealer with an eye to beauty can make any man's head look well. See the line for men and boys at Swindell's Cash Store.

Can a leopard change his spots? Yes, by going to some other spot. But there is no spot in Raleigh where a dollar will go so far or buy so much as at Swindell's Cash Store.

Reign of terror now at 206 Fayetteville street. Swindell's guillotine is chopping the heads off every price on every article in overcoats, ladies' wraps and all heavy winter goods. Swindell's Cash Store.

If you want to know what money's worth try to borrow it, or test its power at Swindell's Cash Store.

Knowledge is power. Knowing when and where to buy is the knowledge that gives you the power to save your money. Now on exhibition an early shipment of all of the latest novelties in Hamburgs, Laers and Embroideries at Swindell's Cash Store.

We don't keep books. If we did we'd have to hire a bookkeeper, and a collector and a lawyer, and we'd have to charge more for goods to make up for what we had on our books that we couldn't collect. But the soft rustle of a bank note, or the jingle of a silver dollar for all goods that pass over our counters is why we can offer you such values. Swindell's Cash Store.

Moseley's Cafe,

120 Fayetteville street, Raleigh.
Do you eat? If so, at eat the Ladies' and Gentlemen's Cafe, one door from Tucker's. All the luxuries served to order that the market affords. Parties visiting Raleigh will find it convenient and pleasant to stop.
Specialty: Coffee such as we enjoy and delight to drink—coffee.
I ask a cordial support. Something that the merchant should encourage. Having a good customer treat him to a lunch at ja28 MOSELEY'S CAFE.

THE WEATHER

The Conditions and the Forecast.

For North Carolina: Fair tonight and Wednesday. Slightly colder tonight, warmer Wednesday.
Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Clearing, cooler tonight, Wednesday, fair.
Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 41; minimum temperature 31; rainfall, 0.82.

A "Self Made Man."

Mr. Robert H. Ricks, of Rocky Mt., was here today. Mr. Ricks is a prominent citizen and wealthy farmer of that place. He is vice president of the Rocky Mount bank and a large stock holder in the cotton mills there. He is a striking example of the "self made man." During the war Mr. Ricks was a member of that famous old Raleigh company, Manly's battery. At the close of the "unpleasantness" he went to Rocky Mt. and there started out, penniless, to make a living. For three years he worked at the princely salary of $8 per month but by conscientious and earnest application to business he gradually worked himself up. His estate is now estimated at $200,000.

Fell Dead.

HOFFMAN, N. C., Jan. 29.
Special to the VISITOR.
Mr. Ishah Priest, an old and respected citizen of Hoffman, died very suddenly here yesterday. He was at the time standing in the door of a store and, without any warning symptoms, suddenly fell over in a faint and when friends reached him he was dead. Mr. Priest was in his 84th year. He was in the Mexican war and drew a pension on account of his services there. The cause of death assigned is heart failure. He was apparently in good health. The funeral was held here today.

Notice!

A. & M. COLLEGE NOTES.

The Baseball Team and Improvements.

The college boys at the A. and M. college, encouraged by their success on the "gridiron" field last season, are working earnestly to get out a good baseball team this season. A captain, Mr. Beard, and a manager, Mr. Griffith, have been elected, and as soon as warm weather comes the candidates for the team will go into outdoor training. Captain Beard has all the candidates "pledged," and indoor training has been going actively on ever since the spring term opened.

Several games have been arranged with North Carolina college teams, and the college boys propose to give Raleigh people some good sport this season.

The long expected dynamo has arrived, and the building and grounds will soon be beautifully lighted at night with electricity.

Work on the water works is being rapidly pushed to a finish, and two more weeks will see the college well fitted with water.

There are now 181 students enrolled at the college.

Four of the seven games already scheduled will be played in Raleigh and there may be more. Games have thus far been arranged as follows: Two with the University, two with Wake Forest, two with Guilford college and one with Blacksburg.

Wedding Bells.

This afternoon a special car left for Greensboro bearing a happy and jolly crew. It was chartered by Mr. E. B. Barbee and was to carry him and a large number of friends to Greensboro where tomorrow Mr. Barbee will wed Miss Adela Andrews, of that city. The party of friends will come back tomorrow but Mr. Barbee and bride will leave for an extended bridal tour.

Never were two more popular people wedded than Mr. Barbee and Miss Andrews. Mr. Barbee is well known here as one of Raleigh's most popular and successful business men, and Miss Andrews is also well known here. Raleigh people will be more than glad to welcome this charming young lady. The Visitor joins with scores of friends in wishing them every joy.

The following gentlemen accompanied Mr. Barbee: Messrs. James McKee, Oct. Coke, A. A. Thompson, J. E. Stagg, Claude B. Barbee, J. G. Brown, M. T. Leach, J. R. Ferrall, Frank I. Osburn, W. E. Christian, W. M. Russ, G. Rosenthal, Armistead Jones, B. S. Jerman, D. E. Everett, E. C. Smith and Greek O. Andrews.

"You Must Take Your Hat Off to Me."

This morning the mayor's court was in a state of subdued excitement; a prisoner was arraigned for a particularly serious offense; Mayor Badger had on his most serious frown and was putting the prisoner through a Goff like cross-examination; Chief Heartt, the police force and the spectators kept breathless silence and listened feverishly to every word that fell from the faltering lips of the prisoner. It was an exciting moment. Just as the crisis in the testimony was reached the door of the mayor's office opened and shut with a slam; a flood of whistled melody pervaded the room, and the next moment in bounced an irrepressible newspaper "local," a tune on his lips, cigar in mouth and his hat on his head. All business stopped; it was as if cold water had been thrown on the mayor. "What's the news," sang out the newspaper man. Just then he saw the glare in the mayor's eye and made a break for the door. Policeman Beasley was took quick for him, though, and caught him on the steps. He was brought eringing before the mayor. "Contempt of court," said that dignitary, "$7.25 or 30 days." And he borrowed the money and went on his way, "sadder but wiser."

Marriage.

Tonight at 8:30 o'clock at West Raleigh Baptist church near A. & M. college by Rev. A. D. Hunter, pastor, Mr. James Leslie Cox to Miss Laura Bell Jones. Doors open at 7:30.

See advertisement of Manicuring, Split, Brittle and Hanging nail thread. Manicuring taught.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

The Raleigh musical society meets this evening.

Two convicts arrived at the penitentiary from Cumberland county this morning.

Fire yesterday destroyed the barn and two out-houses of Mr. Mayberry, of Buckhorn township.

A colored man was arrested and put in jail for stealing a ham from a grocery store this morning.

"The wind is in the west," said a prophet this morning, "and tomorrow the sun will shine."

Mayor Badger had two offenders to deal with this morning, a drunk and a disorderly. The drunk got twelve hours, and the disorderly was discharged.

The car motormen had a hard time last night. The rain struck their water proofs and froze immediately. The men frequently had to come into the cars to "thaw out."

The meeting here for the purpose of organizing the state association for the more complete observance of Emancipation day will be held Wednesday of next week, February 6.

At the depot this morning the following young gentlemen were noted: Messrs. Benjamin Baker, Geo. Snow, Henry McKee, W. W. Vass and Howard Thomas. They all left for—?

It now looks as though representative Williams, of Warren county, will live to read his death notice. It will be remembered that a Raleigh paper announced his death a day or so ago.

One of the many queer customs the present legislature has adopted is not to admit anyone to the floor of the house unless he be of age. A minor can and frequently does have business to attend to there. The rule is "country."

John Ward, the colored man who stole a coat and vest which an old colored citizen had laid aside to be buried in, was given a preliminary hearing before the a justice this morning. He was sent to jail in default of a $50 bond.

The directors of the colored institution for deaf mutes and blind ask for a special appropriation of $14,000. This is for the purpose of erecting a new building. The institution is now so crowded that the directors say unless there is increased accommodation they will be forced to send a number of the pupils to their homes.

The annual meeting of the Mechanics and Investors union of Raleigh, was held on Monday, when the following directors were elected for the year 1895: John C. Drewry, president; J. S. Wynne, vice president; J. N. Holding, attorney; B. L. Jerman, treasurer. Geo. Allen, secretary; W. L. Primrose, C. G. Letta and Wm. Woolcott, directors. A profit of sixteen per cent was carried to the surplus account.

Theatrical

Robert Downing is adding to his histrionic laurels this season by his splendid production of that great play Ingoman in which he will be seen here assisted by Eugenie Blair and a large, competent company of players on Thursday evening. Downing is known to be a generous manager, as regards the character of his support, his scenery, costumes and stage accessories. The policy he has followed of striving to give people the full value of their money has reaped its reward in a large and constant patronage. As Mr. Downing is a great favorite here it is certain that he will be greeted by a large audience.

The manager of Ollie Torbett company arrived today. Miss Torbett is well remembered here as an accomplished violinist and Raleigh people will be glad to learn that she will probably appear here next week.

RALEIGH DRUGGISTS.

To Celebrate This Evening—The Banquet.

This evening the Raleigh druggists' association will celebrate the second anniversary of the association by a banquet at the Yarboro. The hour is 9 o'clock and proprietors and clerks will all celebrate. Therefore the various stores will be closed this evening.

The Raleigh druggists' association was organized two years ago and is one of the few associations of the kind in the state. Mr. John Y. MacRae is president and will, ex officio, be toast master this evening. The dining room of the Yarboro has been nicely prepared for the occasion and the handsomely gotten up menu cards show that the druggists will have plenty whereof to "eat drink and be merry." There will be speeches too and they do say that the prescription rooms of several well-known drug stores have been ringing with a deal of preparatory eloquence lately.

First of the speakers will be jovial, large framed J. Hal Bobbitt, who will "talk shop" in general but take as the subject of his oration, "The North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association." Then will follow the usually sedate Mr. A. Bradley, clerk in J. Y. MacRae's. He will speak on a wide topic and one which should give rise to much eloquent enthusiasm, "The City of Raleigh." Mr. J. I. Johnson will speak of the "Raleigh association" and John Y. MacRae will talk about "Drug Clerks," which subject, unfortunately, will give him no chance to display his powers of minstrelsy. The speech making will come to an end with a technical talk by studious H. T. Hicks on "the Silent Partner" (the liver).

Caught at Their Still.

Deputy collector Ford today reported to collector Simmons the seizure and destruction of a 125-gallon illicit copper distillery and outfit. He also captured 1500 gallons of beer and 70 gallons of whiskey. The still was owned by J. J. Phillips and A. M. Webster and was situated near Casey, P. O. in Rockingham county. The deputies took four prisoners, who were bound over for trial. They are J. J. Phillips, "Bud" Phillips, Walter Seales and "Bob" Seales.
