

EVENING VISITOR

February

VOL. XXXII.

RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1895.

NO. 75.

For the New Year.

We are not cleaning out a lot of old books and shopworn stationery, but we are cleaning out some of the most readable books, in stylish bindings, you ever saw. Some of the finest stationery that pen or pencil ever traveled over.

When you learn that we are selling the famous standard books for 25% we know you will be surprised. What a pleasure to read such books at such prices.

The best of ink and the best of pens help the fingers to help the brain to do some good work.

We have just stocked upon Blank Books, Day Books, Ledgers, Pass-Books and everything a business man wants to begin a new year's work. Prices lower than you have ever bought before.

ALFRED WILLIAMS & CO.

MUST USE
 MAKE room for new goods and to do this we have fixed the prices right on
 DRESS GOODS AND TRIMMINGS, LACES,
 Hamburgs,
 Ladies' Underwear,
 Handkerchiefs,
 Gloves,
 Hosiery and Corsets.

THEY MUST BE SOLD

And we have put a special price on all Millinery Goods. Bound to go, Men's Hats. Also a few Derbys and the price must move them.

Shoes, Shoes, for less money than can be bought anywhere. We have a few small Norbin Dress Shoes, men's 6's and 7's, that will be sold at reduced price.

LYON RACKET STORE.

Echoes from Behind the Curtain.

The crowning point of a well dressed man is a fashionable and stylish hat. A dealer with an eye to beauty can make any man's head look well. See the line for men and boys at Swindell's Cash Store.

Can a leopard change his spots? Yes, by going to some other spot. But there is no spot in Raleigh where a dollar will go so far or buy so much as at Swindell's Cash Store.

Reign of terror now at 206 Fayetteville street. Swindell's guillotine is chopping the heads off every price on every article in overcoats, ladies' wraps and all heavy winter goods. Swindell's Cash Store.

If you want to know what money's worth try to borrow it, or test its power at Swindell's Cash Store.

Knowledge is power. Knowing when and where to buy is the knowledge that gives you the power to save your money. Now on exhibition an early shipment of all of the latest novelties in Hamburgs, Laces and Embroideries at Swindell's Cash Store.

We don't keep books. If we did we'd have to hire a bookkeeper, and a collector and a lawyer, and we'd like to charge more for goods to make up for what we had on our books that we couldn't collect. But the soft rustle of a bank note, or the jingle of a silver dollar for all goods that pass over our counters is why we can offer you such values.

Swindell's Cash Store.

Moseley's Cafe,

129 Fayetteville street, Raleigh.

Do you eat? If so, at eat the Ladies' and Gentlemen's Cafe, one door from Tucker's. All the luxuries served to order that the market affords. Parties visiting Raleigh will find it convenient and pleasant to stop.

Specialty: Coffee such as we enjoy and delight to drink—coffee.

I ask a cordial support. Something that the merchant should encourage. Having a good customer treat him to a lunch at

QUIETLY WEDDED.

The Marriage At Greensboro of Mr. Barbee and Miss Andrews.

At the home of Mr. L. W. Andrews in Greensboro this morning his daughter, Miss Adelyn Andrews, was quietly wedded to Mr. E. B. Barbee, of Raleigh.

There were present at the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. W. C. Norman, only a few close friends of the family and the party of Mr. Barbee's friends who left here yesterday.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Barbee left on the 10 o'clock train for New York. They will make an extended bridal tour through the large northern cities and Canada and return here in about two weeks. They will, of course, make Raleigh their home, and the people of this city will be delighted to welcome Mrs. Barbee here.

Last evening, at the Benbow house, an elegant wedding banquet was given by Mr. Barbee. The party of friends who left here yesterday for Greensboro returned this afternoon and reported a delightful trip.

THE WEATHER

The Conditions and the Forecast.

For North Carolina: Rain on coast; snow in the interior and western portions; followed by fair Thursday and colder.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Rain or snow, followed by clearing weather Thursday evening; colder.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 39; minimum temperature 34; rainfall, 0.32.

An area of low pressure suddenly developing over northern and Florida is causing rain throughout the south Atlantic states. It will probably move up the coast today and tonight, causing continued rain or snow along the seaboard.

The weather is fair and cold in the west. The center of high pressure is over northern Texas. It is probable that fair, cold weather will begin here by Thursday evening.

A SAD, SAD DEATH

Was That of Good and Beautiful Mrs. Eberhardt.

Raleigh is shocked. Never has more universal sorrow been expressed here over the death of any person than at the sudden and sad death of Mrs. T. L. Eberhardt. The news came like a bolt from a clear sky and ran over the city like wildfire.

The blow was a terrible one. At 9 o'clock last evening Mrs. Eberhardt was well, in good spirits and was visiting a friend in the city. She was with her mother, Mrs. M. M. Marshall, and parted from her happy and well. What must have been the shock to the fond mother when informed in the middle of the night that the daughter she had left a few short hours before in such perfect health was critically ill. She was taken deathly sick during the night and at 5:30 this morning life left the suffering body. The cause of death was hemorrhage.

There was not a more popular or better loved woman in Raleigh. Young, happy, kind, with a loving and cheerful disposition, she was an ideal daughter and wife. The greatest sympathy is on all sides expressed for the bereaved family and heart-broken husband. One little child is left behind who will scarcely remember the loving mother that cared for it so tenderly. Truly life is sad, but death, the death of one so young, good and beautiful, is sadder. Her christian parents and stricken husband, however may take consolation in knowing that the pure spirit of the daughter and wife has gone on angel's wings to a better land than this.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock from Christ church. Rev. Dr. Bennett Smedes will conduct the services.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

No seizures reported today at the revenue office, for a wonder.

Rain, rain, rain—and the weather prophet said yesterday "fair weather tomorrow."

A street car off the track delayed travel on one of the lines for a short while this morning.

It is good to see the number of people registered at the hotels these days. They are not nearly all politicians, either.

Passengers who came in on the Greensboro train reported a fire at Melane. No particulars could be learned.

The sales of fertilizers tags this season indicate that the spring trade will be only half as great as that a year ago.

One drunk to whom 12 hours was allotted as punishment was the extent of the mayor's court criminal docket this morning.

A colored man named Evans stepped suddenly from a curbing in east Raleigh last evening. The unexpected drop broke the man's ankle.

Business at the court house is at low ebb. Tax payers come in slowly. No new boarders at the jail, and Messrs. Rogers, Young and Moye all making a big "bluff" at working.

At 11 o'clock this morning Mr. Hubbard, of Baltimore, and Miss Birdsong, of Raleigh, were quietly married here. Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard left on the noon train for Baltimore.

A runaway occurred on Dawson street this morning. Dogs barked, gamins shouted and a mad countryman swore, while his horse waltzed into a telegraph post and smashed the buggy.

Mrs. A. Baumann last evening entertained at a delightful party a small number of young people. The party was given complimentary to Miss Graves, of Bedford, Va., who is visiting her.

Representative Williams was still alive this afternoon and good hopes are now entertained for his recovery. He is blessed with a particularly robust constitution and this may save his life.

A committee of temperance workers of the state association met in the Y. M. C. A. here today. The meeting was held simply to consider plans for having a temperance bill passed by the legislature.

The bad weather has had the effect of stopping work on the confederate monument. Some idea of the massiveness of the monument can be gathered, however, from the large foundation, which is nearly laid.

Miss Yaw sang to a $1200 house in Macon, Ga., Saturday, March 26th and her advance sale at noon Saturday in Savannah, Ga., for her appearance Monday night was $1000. Miss Yaw appears here at the academy of music on Feb. 6th.

At the Yarbrough last evening the Raleigh druggists' association held their anniversary banquet. The table was set with delicious edibles and drinkables. The speeches were good; druggists, clerks and guests in good humor, and the evening passed off as pleasantly as possible.

Morris Bros. equine and canine carnival will be held at the academy of music February 1 and 2, with matinee Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Morris Bros. have one of the best horse and dog shows on the road and they tuck people away at almost every performance. Be sure to see the parade Friday at noon.

The Cross Bearers circle of the King's Daughters will hold a reception at the mission rooms on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. A. H. Ehler's will talk to the daughters on the King's work. After the address there will be an informal reception. The small sum of ten cents will be charged admission, and which will entitle all to refreshments. The Daughters and Sons and public are cordially invited to be present.

AT THE MANSION.

The Governor's Reception Last Evening.

The general assembly, or a good part of it, met at the Governor's mansion last evening and right royally were they entertained. The Governor's reception to the members of the legislature and the public was a distinct social success.

The spacious parlors were ablaze with light and presented a really beautiful scene. Raleigh society was there and, as stated above, many legislators thronged the rooms.

The hours were from 8 till 10 but it was at least 11:30 o'clock before the last unwilling guest took his leave.

In the large, handsome parlor Governor and Mrs. Carr were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Carr, of Washington; Col. and Mrs. A. Q. Holladay, Maj. and Mrs. S. F. Telfair, Miss Mary Davis and Miss Mary Hinton.

From the ball room on the right came sounds of delightful music and there the young people enjoyed themselves until a late hour. A feature of the evening was the dancing of the old-fashioned quadrille that brought back to the older people pleasant memories of by-gone days. Several staid and sober politicians cast dignity to the winds and joined merrily in the mirthful quadrille. One grave senator in particular attracted much attention and was much complimented on his quaint and stately steps.

On the whole the evening was a delightful one and one which all who attended will remember with the greatest pleasure.
