VOL. XXXII.

RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1895.

NO. 75.

OUT

For the New Year.

We are not cleaning out a lot of old books and shopworn stationery, but we are cleaning out some of the most readable books, in stylish bindings, you ever saw. Some of the finest stationery that pen or pencil ever traveled over.

When you learn that we are selling the famous standard books for 25¢, we know you will be surprised. What a pleasure to read such books at such prices.

The best of ink and the best of pens help the fingers to help the brain to do some good work.

We have just stocked upon Blank Books, Day Books, Ledgers, Pass Books and everything a business man wants to begin a new year's work. Prices lower than you have ever bought before.

ALFRED WILLIAMS & CO.

MUST MAKE room for new goods and to do this we have fixed the prices right on

U S T DRESS GOODS AND TRIMMINGS, LACES, Hamburgs, Ladies' Underwear, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Hosiery and Corsets.

THEY MUST BE SOLD

And we have put a special price on all Millinery Goods. Bound to go, Men's Hats. Also a few Derbys and the price must move them.

Shoes, Shoes, for less money than can be bought anywhere. We have a few small Norbin Dress Shoes, men's 6's and 7's, that will be sold at reduced price.

LYON RACKET STORE.

Echoes from Behind the Curtain.

The crowning point of a well dressed man is a fashionable and stylish hat. A dealer with an eye to beauty can make any man's head look well. See the line for men and boys at Swindell's Cash Store.

Can a leopard change his spots? Yes, by going to some other spot. But there is no spot in Raleigh where a dollar will go so far or buy so much as at Swindell's Cash Store.

Reign of terror now at 206 Fayetteville street. Swindell's guillotine is chopping the heads off every price on every article in overcoats, ladies' wraps and all heavy winter goods. Swindell's Cash Store.

If you want to know what money's worth try to borrow it, or test its power at Swindell's Cash Store.

Knowledge is power. Knowing when and where to buy is the knowledge that gives you the power to save your money. Now on exhibition an early shipment of all of the latest novelties in Hamburgs, Laces and Embroideries at Swindell's Cash Store.

We don't keep books. If we did we'd have to hire a bookkeeper, and a collector and a lawyer, and we'd have to charge more for goods to make up for what we had on our books that we couldn't collect. But the soft music of a bank note, or the jingle of a silver dollar for all goods that pass over our counters is why we can offer you such values. Swindell's Cash Store.

Moseley's Cafe,

129 Fayetteville street, Raleigh.

Do you eat? If so, at eat the Ladies and Gentlemen's Cafe, one door from Tucker's. All the luxuries served to order that the market affords. Parties visiting Raleigh will find it convenient and pleasant to stop. Specialty: Coffee such as we enjoy and delight to drink—coffee.

I ask a cordial support. Something that the merchant should encourage. Having a good customer treat him to a lunch at Moseley's Cafe.

SOME SMALL FACTS

THAT ARE INTERESTING NEVERTHELESS.

Doings of the City Picked Up Here and There.

Mr. O. H. Dockery, Jr. came down from Chapel Hill this afternoon.

Representative George Z. French left on the 1 o'clock train for Wilmington.

Four convicts arrived at the penitentiary from Edgecombe county this morning.

A key was left at this office which the owner may obtain by calling for this office.

The members of the Independent cornet band will please meet at seven o'clock Monday evening, Feb. 4th.

The S. A. L. train from Atlanta is seven hours late today. The train that arrived at 1 o'clock was a special made up at Charlotte.

The railroad commissioners and the commissioner of agriculture have lots of routine work to do. The commissioner's mail is something "awful."

Mrs. Lily Devoreux Blake, is to speak in the senate chamber next Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. It was at first thought that she would speak this afternoon.

This morning there was a destructive fire reported at Cary. The large flouring mills there were burned. The loss is a heavy one, although partly covered by insurance.

This morning the effects in the law office of C. M. Busbee, Esq., were removed to the Pullen building where the new firm, Shepherd, Busbee and Busbee, will have offices.

Norris Brother's dog and pony show gave a "high noon" street parade today. If the company's animals are as strong in intelligence as they are in numbers the show is a big card.

Prof. Dowd, of Trinity College, came down today having with him about 20 Trinity students who went on a tour of inspection, going over the public buildings, looking in on the legislature, etc.

On next Monday applicants for license to practice law will be examined by the supreme court here. The University and Trinity law schools will send down a number of applicants. There will be several local applicants, also.

See notice of Raleigh cotton mills increase of stock. The stock is being gobbled right up and any one wishing to procure any had better be quick. A gentleman took $5,000 worth yesterday.

The Edison phonograph people will on Monday evening give a concert for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. Raleigh musical talent will sing and play and their performances will be reproduced by the instruments.

The mayor's court this morning was devoid of special interest. Charlie Eaton, a bay in the market, was arrested for violating the market rules by enticing a purchaser from a stall. Judgment was suspended, with a warning.

Dough treated the local newspaper fraternity and several friends to an oyster roast last evening, after the Downing performance. The delicious, roasted bivalves caused those who participated to think fondly of the seashore and clam bakes.

Mariah Harris, the colored nurse of Mrs. Charles M. Kimmom, was seriously burned yesterday. She was in the nursery with a little boy when her dress caught fire, in the back. The little fellow called her attention to it and she rushed into the hall. When help came she was badly burned.

This morning the car loaded with provisions, etc., for the Nebraska sufferers left here for its destination. On the sides of the car in big letters is the inscription, "From the citizens of Raleigh to the Nebraska sufferers." Among the outsiders who contributed are Messrs. Robert H. Steele, of Rockingham, and Ed. Holt, of Burlington.

REPUBLICANS MEET

And Decide on Changes in the City Charter.

Last evening, in the office of superior court clerk Young, there was a meeting of local republicans to decide on what changes the legislature would be asked to make in the city of Raleigh. Clerk Young was chairman of the meeting and W. F. Debram, secretary.

After a good deal of discussion it was decided that the city limits should not be extended. The changes the republicans propose to ask for are to rearrange the five wards, taking a part of the fourth ward and putting it into the third so as to make that ward republican, and providing for the election of a mayor by the people.

Committees were appointed, one from each ward, to draw up a petition and urge the legislature to act in the matter. The following is the committee: 1st ward, W. W. Wynne; 2d, Rev. R. H. W. Leak, colored; 3d, John Nichols; 4th, B. J. Robinson, colored; 5th, J. D. Newsom.

A GOOD "INGOMAR."

Robert Downing Pleased His Audience.

A fair sized audience visited the academy last evening to see Downing, the tragedian, play "Ingomar." Robert Downing as that character was good, although he over played the part on several occasions. Eugenie Blair as Parthenia was a disappointment although she tried hard to please.

The play was better suited to Downing than heavy tragedy, such as the "Gladiator," and this probably was the reason he appeared to such advantage last evening. At times his acting was excellent and he splendidly portrayed the savage nature of the barbarian chief. The support was good, better than is generally seen here.

The audience was evidently well pleased with the performance as was shown by the liberal applause given both to Downing and Eugenie Blair.

PASSED FROM EARTH.

Mrs. S. D. Wait Sank to Rest Like a Child.

Yesterday evening Mrs. Susan Ada Wait, wife of Mr. S. D. Wait, passed away from earth, at her home on Fayetteville street. Her untimely death is a shock to her friends, but they are comforted by the full knowledge that her end was that of a true Christian and that she was fully prepared to leave earth for heaven.

Mrs. Wait was the daughter of the late William Folk, of Smithfield, Va. She leaves two brothers, Col. George N. Folk of Caldwell county N. C., and Capt. William D. Folk of Smithfield, Va. Her sister, Mrs. Virginia Blacknell and her niece, Miss Nannie G. Blacknell aided her devoted husband in care for her during her illness. Mrs. Wait was a communicant of the Methodist church, and Rev. John N. Cole will conduct the services. The funeral services will be held tomorrow from the residence.

Norris Bros. Trained Ponies and Dogs.

This novel and entertaining attraction will hold the boards at the academy of music this evening and also give a special matinee for ladies and children tomorrow afternoon. The Richmond Dispatch Jan. 19th speaks as follows:

"Go and see Norris' pony and dog show and take your children, if you have any, and other people's if you haven't. The exhibition will amuse and interest you. Norris' animals have reached a very high standard. There was not a hitch in the performance, and the many difficult and some brilliant feats were splendidly executed, and well received."

Much Interest in the Pearson Meetings.

The Pearson meeting at Chapel Hill closed last evening with an exceedingly enthusiastic meeting. Since Mr. Pearson has been holding his meetings there, there have been over 100 conversions among the students, and fifty "backsliders" have also been reconverted. At the meeting last night, alone, there were 54 conversions.

THE LEGISLATURE

TODAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN BOTH BRANCHES.

Both Houses Adjourn as a Mark of Respect to Mr. Williams.

SENATE.

In the senate Rev. D. H. Tuttle offered prayer.

Announcement was made by senator Cook of the death of representative Williams, of Warren, and he eulogized him. On his motion a committee was appointed to accompany the body to Warren. Senators Cook and Mercer were appointed. A motion that the senate as a further mark of respect adjourn at noon was adopted.

A petition was furnished opposing any legislation fixing the hours of labor in factories.

Bills were introduced to establish graded schools at Kinston.

To amend the public school law.

To regulate the purchase and sale of poisonous drugs.

To make a loan to complete the Confederate monument.

To allow Charlotte to purchase the fair grounds.

To incorporate the retreat for the sick at Charlotte.

To better protect railroad employes.

To amend the code regarding the practice of medicine.

A resolution allowing the election committee to send a sub-committee to go to Edgecombe and Bertie to investigate alleged election frauds was tabled.

HOUSE.

At 10 o'clock the house met, and Rev. A. D. Hunter offered prayer.

Smith, of Gates, offered a resolution as follows:

Resolved by the house of representatives, the senate concurring, That we have heard with the deepest sorrow of the death of Dr. S. A. Williams, the member of the house from the county of Warren, who departed this life at 3 o'clock this morning. That a committee be appointed, with a like committee from the senate, to accompany his remains to his late residence. That we tender to his family and friends our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement. That the general assembly do now adjourn through respect for his memory, until 10 o'clock tomorrow. The resolution was adopted.

Speaker Walker pointed on the committee Smith of Gates, Williams of Craven and McLean.

An invitation from Charles Reizenstein, secretary and treasurer of the East Carolina fish, oyster, game and industrial association, to attend the fair February 18 23, was received. The legislature is asked to attend in a body.

At 10:30 o'clock the house adjourned. Some of the members spoke in favor of meeting tomorrow at 10 o'clock and then adjourning at one until Monday. In opposition to this it was said that just as little time as possible should be lost, for otherwise this legislature would not only railroad bills through, but put them through by cyclone.

Death of Representative Williams.

At 3 o'clock this morning Dr. Sam. A. Williams, representative in the house from Warren, died at his boarding house here of pneumonia. His sickness dated from the beginning of the session. It was reported, and in fact published a week ago, that he was dead. He was a practicing physician and was 71 years of age. He was widely known and esteemed in his section of the state. His body left here at noon today for Warrenton, escorted by a joint committee. Both houses of the legislature adjourned as a mark of respect to his memory.

Notice.

The stockholders of the Raleigh cotton mill having resolved to increase the capital stock of the corporation by the sale of 500 shares of stock of the par value of one hundred dollars each, notice is hereby given that the books for said subscription are now open at this office. Parties desiring a safe and profitable investment will do well to subscribe early. Any information regarding the company can be had by calling at the office of the company or writing to the secretary. J. S. WYNN, Secretary.

Roy D. Riggan, the little son of Mr. Jones M. Riggan, who has been quite sick with pneumonia, is much better today.

Misses Sallie Cotten, Jane Andrew and Lizzie Taylor returned from a short visit to Chapel Hill this afternoon.

Sentenced Commuted.

Governor Carr yesterday commuted the sentence of death of Henry Webb, who was to have been hung in Buncombe county on the 12th of March, to imprisonment for life. "Billy" McDaniels, who committed the murder, will be hung at that time. Webb was convicted of being an accessory.

A Prominent Durhamite Dead.

This afternoon, at Durham, Mr. Lucius L. Green, a prominent and wealthy tobacco dealer of that place, died of consumption, with which he has suffered for years. He is well known here, and his death will cause deep regret.

THE WEATHER.

The Conditions and the Forecast.

For North Carolina: Generally fair, preceded by light showers on the coast. Colder Saturday afternoon and night.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Saturday occasional rain or snow, colder.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 35; minimum temperature 28; rainfall, trace.

The weather is still cloudy and rainy over the south. The pressure has risen and is highest over Nebraska. The temperature is very low; lowest is 26 degrees below zero at St. Paul. The storm over the West gulf region is likely to cause continued bad weather in the south.
