

EVENING VISITOR.

VOL. XXXII.

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1895.

NO. 76.

For the New Year.

We are not cleaning out a lot of old books and shopworn stationery, but we are cleaning out some of the most readable books, in stylish bindings, you ever saw. Some of the finest stationery that pen or pencil ever traveled over.

When you learn that we are selling the famous standard books for 25¢, we know you will be surprised. What a pleasure to read such books at such prices.

The best of ink and the best of pens help the fingers to help the brain to do some good work.

We have just stocked upon Blank Books, Day Books, Ledgers, Pass Books and everything a business man wants to begin a new year's work. Prices lower than you have ever bought before.

ALFRED WILLIAMS & CO.

MUST MAKE room for new goods and to do this we have fixed the prices right on

U S T DRESS GOODS AND TRIMMINGS, LACES, Hamburgs, Ladies' Underwear, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Hosiery and Corsets.

THEY MUST BE SOLD

And we have put a special price on all Millinery Goods. Bound to go, Men's Hats. Also a few Derbys and the price must move them.

Shoes, Shoes, for less money than can be bought anywhere. We have a few small Norbin Dress Shoes, men's 6's and 7's, that will be sold at reduced price.

LYON RACKET STORE.

Moseley's Cafe,

129 Fayetteville street, Raleigh.

Do you eat? If so, at eat the Ladies' and Gentlemen's Cafe, one door from Tucker's. All the luxuries served to order that the market affords. Parties visiting Raleigh will find it convenient and pleasant to stop.

Specialty: Coffee such as we enjoy and delight to drink—coffee. I ask a cordial approval. Something that the merchant should encourage. Having a good customer treat him to a lunch at

MOSELEY'S CAFE.

A SPICY STORY.

If variety is the spice of life our stock must come pretty near being all spice, as we have the greatest variety of the best goods to be found in the city of oaks. As an evidence of the necessity of our closing out all heavy weight woollens we are now receiving small shipments of dress goods for early spring wear and are now showing an early shipment of all of the latest novelties in laces, edgings, embroideries, etc.

To make room for the largest and handsomest spring stock it has been our pleasure to show in Raleigh, we have marked down every article in ladies, misses and children's furnishings. These closing prices apply to a lot of men's and boys' woolen underwear and all heavy woolen dress fabrics, flannels, cloaking, etc., as well as ladies' wraps, men's and boys' overcoats, etc.

In clothing for men, youth's and boys we have determined that both suits, overcoats and single pants must go, if price will move them. We are offering these goods at, in many instances, below cost. As we do not intend to keep up our crockery and glassware department this entire stock is now offered at prime cost.

The little word of such great meaning to you (cost) is also attached to our heavy woolen piece goods, blankets, quilts, etc. We have just received a lot consisting of 250 pieces straw matting in the latest designs, and are offering our entire stock of carpets, rugs, etc., at special prices to close.

Are you a walker? Are you a representative? Are you a business man? Always on the hustle? Do you wear out shoes fast? Too fast? Faster than you ought to? Do you know why? You don't get the right kind. You may pay enough for them, that's no sign. See our line for men, ladies, misses and children. We have the kind that wear well and will make you prices to please.

Respectfully, D. T. SWINDELL, 109 Fayetteville st., Raleigh, N. C.

GOING OR COMING

THE VISITOR CATCHES THEM EITHER WAY.

Well Known People Seen Up and Moving Today.

Mr. A. H. Adams, of Durham, is here.

Mr. F. R. Whiting, of Hickory, is here.

Mr. A. Johnson, of Lincoln county, is here.

Mr. O. D. Bennett, of Norwood, is in the city.

Mr. Wm. Conrad, of Greensboro, is in the city.

Mr. Alex. H. White, of Pollocksville, arrived today.

Mr. W. H. Bain left the city for Oxford today.

Mr. L. L. Witherspoon, of Newton, arrived today.

Mr. C. W. Amiswright, of Southern Pines, arrived this morning.

Mr. J. H. Shelburn, of Durham, is registered at the Yarboro.

Mr. M. T. Leach returned from a short business trip this morning.

Mr. Plumer Batchelor left today to visit Mrs. Batchelor in Baltimore.

R. O. Burton, Esq., has moved into a handsome office in the Pullen building.

Mr. J. G. Steed, who has been suffering with "grip," was better this morning.

Miss Laura Carter, of Asheville, is visiting Mr. R. F. Jones, on Hillsboro street.

Mr. Thos. Pence, the energetic young city editor of the Press, has succumbed.

Dr. J. J. Mott, of Statesville, and a one-time senatorial candidate, arrived here this morning.

Mr. Fred. Green, a rising young Durham lawyer who has been here several days, returned home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Jones, of Franklin, arrived this morning. They were married there yesterday and are on their bridal tour.

Mr. "Pink" Ennis has just returned from an extended business trip through several states. "Weather too bad for pleasure," says he.

Two city officers, clerk Lambeth and chief Heatt, have experienced the prevailing malady. Chief is "down" now and clerk Lambeth is just out.

Several University students came down on the 1 o'clock train today. They are Messrs. Pruden, Jackson, White Johnson, Watkins, Long, Bryson and Bennett.

Rev. John C. Kilgo, the eloquent Trinity president, came down from Durham today to view the legislature. He will preach at Edenton street church tomorrow.

Mr. W. L. Moore, who for several months ran a photograph gallery here, left on the Atlanta special last night for New York. He will take a position as traveling agent for the Tempera Chemical Company.

At 3:30 o'clock this morning Mrs. Rebecca Beasley died quietly at the home of her son, Mr. J. W. Beasley, on east Cabarrus street. The funeral services will be held from the residence tomorrow at 3 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances invited to attend.

Prof. Riddick entertained about 20 young people at an exceedingly pleasant little party at his home on Hillsboro street evening. Among the pleasures of the evening was a pleasant informal dance.

One poor, lone countryman braved the weather and brought in a bale of cotton today. And he only got 4-7-8 cents per pound.

Nearly everybody one meets, who isn't laid up, has a remedy to suggest for the cure or prevention of king la grippe.

Railroad people report that snow fell at Danville last night to a depth of three inches. It is still falling there.

The little country pages in the legislature are rapidly becoming "city-fied." Many of them smoke cigarettes.

LAIID TO REST.

The Funeral Services of Mrs. S. D. Wait.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon the funeral services over the remains of Mrs. S. D. Wait were held from Edenton street church. Rev. J. N. Cole conducted the services in impressive, solemn style. Music as pure and sweet as the nature of the woman, whose dirge it was, was sung by the choir.

The day was cold and the church dark and gloomy as the lives of those who loved, honored and revered the mother, wife and sister—whose loving face they are to see no more on earth. But they took consolation, and it was consolation, in knowing that the spirit of the woman that had left the suffering body knew no rain, felt no damp and experienced no darkness.

The church was crowded in spite of the weather with a large number of friends and many carriages followed the remains to the cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. G. Brown, R. T. Gray, Herbert Jackson, Seymour Whiting, S. W. Brewer, Walter Clark, S. A. Sexton and G. Rosenthal.

THE WEATHER

The Conditions and the Forecast.

For North Carolina: Cold wave. Temperature will fall 15 or 18 degrees by Sunday evening or night.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Rain, changing to snow tonight. Clearing Sunday, cold wave.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 45; minimum temperature 32; rainfall, trace.

The storm yesterday central over the west gulf has moved rapidly eastward to the Atlantic coast, causing heavy rains from Texas to S. C. It is also snowing on the west and north side of the storm at N. Y., and other places. The weather is clear over a section of the country extending from Davenport to Abilene.

COLD WAVE WARNING.—The temperature will fall 16 or 18 degrees by Sunday evening.

APOSTOLIC CHURCH.

The Subject on Which Dr. Murdoch Will Speak.

The last sermon in the series which have been progressing at the cathedral of the Good Shepherd on the subject, "The Church—One Holy, Catholic and Apostolic," will be delivered tomorrow evening. Rev. F. J. Murdoch, S. T. D., of Salisbury, a distinguished theologian and divine, will be the preacher. His theme is the church apostolic, and from Dr. Murdoch's well-known reputation as a profound thinker and scholar, a very able discourse may be expected.

On Monday evening at 8 p. m. Rev. Dr. Murdoch will deliver a lecture at the cathedral of the Good Shepherd on "Apostolic Succession," to which the public are also cordially invited. Seats free to all services.

It is understood that the committee on printing in congress will recommend the publication of a small edition of the report of the Columbian dairy tests conducted during the world's fair at Chicago in 1893. As there undoubtedly will be a very large demand for these copies, it would be advisable for all parties who desire this report to apply at once through their representatives in congress for the same.

Regular services at Central M. E. church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7:30 by Rev. D. H. Tuttle, pastor. At night services the third and last sermon of a series on the liquor traffic will be presented. In this sermon it will be shown how the evil may be stopped. (1) by education. (2) by legislation. Members of the general assembly especially invited to hear it. Cordial invitation to all.

The monthly bulletin of the agricultural department is ready for distribution.

TALK AND GOSSIP.

THERE'S A DEAL OF TRUTH IN IT, THOUGH.

This "Stuff" Was Boiled Especially For You.

Nothing doing in the Raleigh real estate world this morning.

The house up to this morning had 200 bills put up for passage.

To prevent the "grip," says a gentleman, liberally pepper your food.

Mayor Badger fined a drunk and disorderly $5 and costs this morning.

Snow fell at several different times today but melted as soon as it reached the ground.

In spite of the bad weather there have been several good "breaks" at the farmers' warehouse.

That sewer stoppage is a curious thing. Another unsuccessful attempt was made to clear it up today.

The delay of the noon S. A. L. train yesterday was caused by the breaking down of the engine, not by a wreck, as reported.

The house of representatives met at 10 o'clock this morning. If there is any virtue in an early start, the house is "in it" today.

The bad weather has at last stopped supervisor McMackin's road force from work. They kept at it up to today. But they are idle now.

Yesterday afternoon Jacob Sykes, a 17 year old white boy, was brought here from the country and jailed. He is charged with retailing whiskey.

Raleigh is to have still another newspaper. It will be a Monday morning telegraphic sheet, and the only paper of the kind in the state. Practical printers will run it.

A fair sized audience went to the academy of music last evening to witness the performance of the Norris trained animals. They performed many difficult feats excellently.

The revenue people are enjoying a rest and the moonshiners also are unmolested. There has been but one seizure reported in three days—a queer state of affairs for this season.

Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. were losers by the terrible sinking of the Lyod liner Elbe. There was a large consignment of ladies dress goods of German importation on board that steamer for them.

The Visitor is sorry to learn that the people are not giving the aid they should to the Y. M. C. A. The association has been excellently managed and has done much good. Surely Raleigh is not going to let it die?

A gentleman last evening went into the back room of a drugstore for a drink of water. There, in the dark, he stepped through an open trapdoor. He fell with a hard thump but, beyond being very short of breath for a few minutes, was unhurt.

Woolcott and Son have started a merchant tailoring department in connection with their store. They have engaged one of the finest cutters in Baltimore. The prices will be moderate and the department one of which Raleigh has long been in need.

At the Baptist tabernacle tomorrow evening special services will be held in the interest of the temperance movement. Addresses will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. A. M. Simms, Mr. F. S. Blair and Mr. N. B. Broughton. The public is invited to attend.

The lower part of Fayetteville street is in such a terribly muddy condition that people who live in that part of town have to walk home on the fences to escape drowning. A stream of vehicles were stuck there today. Why can't something be done to the streets and sidewalks before the next bad spell comes along?

THE CITY'S HEALTH.

The Monthly Report Shows that "Grip" is Fatal.

Clerk of the board of health T. P. Sale has his monthly report of the city's health made out. The report is not as good as usual but the increase in the number of deaths is due to the bad weather prevailing and the all prevalent la grippe. Here is a summary of the report:

The total number of deaths was 24; whites 13, colored 11; white males 5; colored 6; white females 8; colored 5. Deaths of children under 5 years of age, 11; white 7; colored 4. Over 10 years 4; 1 white, 3 colored. There were 3 still births.

The following were the causes of death assigned: Imitation, 1; paralysis, 1; heart-disease, 1; pneumonia, 5; premature birth, 3; consumption, 1; cancer, 1; meningitis, 1; marasmus, 1; Bright's disease, 1; thrash, 1; hemorrhage, 1; colera infantum, 1; not stated, 2.

The proportion of deaths to city population, whites, 1 in 615; colored, 1 in 636; total 1 in 635. The showing is not so bad, after all.

A World-Beater—Singer who Equally Seats are Word's Record.

Miss Ellen Beach Yaw, who appears at the academy on Feb. 6th, is accounted the most remarkable soprano in the world—possibly her range has never been paralleled. Her compass of voice extends from G. below to E. in alt., nearly four octaves. Her tones are produced without labored effort, and her beautiful method and the sympathetic quality of her voice have provoked as much comment as her starting range. The most wonderful thing about it is that a singer who can reach such a height should also be able to sing in her lower register with the breadth and sonority of a contralto. Tickets may now be procured at W. H. King & Co.'s

Free Again.

This morning a prisoner, a woman, was released from the penitentiary where she had been confined for 12 long months. The charge against her was concealing stolen property. Her name is Anna Bell Maness and she is, as she looks, like a simple minded country woman. As she got on the car that was to take her home to Moore county her face was wreathed in smiles. "They 'cused me of concealing stolen tobacco," she said, "but if there is a God in heaven, I didn't do it. I've worked out my time, though an I'm goin' home. I ain't got no hard feelings agin anybody." The way she said this made me think she spoke the truth. The sentence was a hard one but Anna Bell Maness has gone home.

A Henry Blount Lecture.

That is what it was advertised for, and that is what it was. A large audience took advantage of the occasion and visited Peace Institute to hear that gentleman's noted lecture, "Beyond the Alps Lies Italy." Mr. Blount "laid himself out" and delighted his audience. His language, bright, flowery and eloquent, as it always is, greatly pleased those who heard him.

After the conclusion of the lecture a reception was given to the visitors by the young ladies and was one of the evening's many enjoyable features.

Towels, Fancy Linens and White Goods.

Special values in these lines will be ready Monday morning. They will be shown from a special table in front of linen section. They are goods we found while "taking stock" and have thrown them out of their regular departments. Some of these will be so cheap that one can well afford to buy them now and hold for future use.

ODD LOTS AFTER

INVENTORY.

We have just finished "taking stock" and find as must necessarily be, accumulations in many departments goods that have not sold as well as they should—some shop worn. These we have placed on special tables and marked down to such prices as will make them sell.

The departments mentioned all contribute something of special interest.

Men's Outings, Black Dress Goods, Shoes and Carpets, Cotton Dress Goods, Foreign Dress Goods, Ladies' Furnishings, Linens, White Goods.

First shoppers always get the best from these odd lots.
