A bill is offered in the Pennsylvania legislature to increase the pay of members from $1,500 to $2,500 a session.

The Japanese have landed a large body of troops at Wei-Hai-Wei and captured three forts, while another fort has been silenced by the heavy fire of the Japanese fleet.

Hartford, Conn., is to lose its large-est manufacturing plant through increased taxation, and a number of other New England industries have been driven south by the same means.

There were angry words in congress yesterday "Eli" and "seconded!" were the epithets bandied between members. Congressman Breckinridge attempted to strike Mr. Heard, of Missouri. Both members were arrested and satisfactory public apologies made. Hawaii was the indirect cause of the altercation.

Secretary of war Lamont, in pursuance of the act of congress providing for the dedication of the Chick-amauga military, has addressed an identical invitation to the governors of all states, being the first event of a military character connected with the war to which the governors of states have been invited.

The pig-iron manufacturers in the south do not seem inclined to be caught napping when the promised improved demand for foundry and forge grades of iron comes along in the spring. Many furnaces in that section of the country are blowing to their full capacity, while others have everything ready to put on the blast as soon as the demand for iron will give them good ground for doing so.
 In the west a number of rolling mills have resumed work.

One of the most attractive features of the cotton states and international exposition to be held in Atlanta from the middle of next September to the end of December, will be the reproduction of the world's Columbian exposition in miniature by Mr. W. G.
 Ferris, the builder of the great Ferris wheel, which was such a conspicuous feature of the Chicago exposition.
 The world's fair will be reproduced in its entirety, complete in every detail, on a scale of 1-140th.

An extra session of the fifty-fourth congress will probably have to be held.
 This is one of the unpleasant possibilities which has been before the country ever since the present congress began its final session eight weeks ago. At no time was there a likelihood that any comprehensive financial legislation of a remedial order could be had this winter, but there seemed, at the beginning, to be a chance that some palliative, some measure to remove or mitigate a few of the country's monetary ills, might be adopted.

The administration understands fully that it will receive no help from congress. The reception the president's message met with was a lesson to him. In anticipation of the unavoidable necessity for another bond sale, the president sent one of the treasury officials to New York today to sound the bankers. The hostility among those who control the supply of gold outside the treasury, toward the present administration, is so well understood that one of the highest officials of the treasury department declined today to undertake the mission. Mr.

 Curtis, an assistant secretary, was therefore put forward as the only available messenger.

It is just possible that some of the fishing smacks, which were cruising in the vicinity where the Wildflower picked up the survivors of the sunken steamer Elbe, may have rescued a few more. Life-boats and a tug which put out to the scene of the wreck, however, could find no traces. The colliding steamer, the Crathie, did not answer the Elbe's signals. The total loss of life is 334. The survivors say that the vessel responsible for the accident immediately steamed away.
 There are some grave charges against the Elbe's crew. French newspapers are making unfavorable comments.

These Two

Men had a bet. What it was we would tell you, only we do not want to add to the loser's misfortune. If you look at the picture you will see that he has all that he can bear up under now. It was but yesterday that this man was an object of envy and wonder. He was a well groomed and a bold-shouldered fellow—know lots of fellows like him. He knew everything, almost, from the time that man was a protoplasm till the hour that Baby Esther Cleveland got her last new tooth. He answered questions in B. C. History with an off-hand "for goodness sake—don't you know—that" air that was as biting as a northern blast to less favored mortals.
 So the boys in the store where he worked put up a job on him. All of them read The Observer regularly and one day a special advertisement—Encyclopedia Britannica— came in. They saw within their reach a source of information that would give them a that innocent-looking chap you see in the barrow got into a discussion in history with the man with the mind.

 Soon the latter was terribly shocked to bear these awful words come from the fat and rosy face before him:
 "Old man I think you are wrong." At once a bet was made. The man with the mind lost of course for his fat friend had primed himself for the contest from the new up-to-date Encyclopedia Britannica, a set of which the boys had purchased. The bet was paid the following day, just as you see it in the picture.
