

EVENING VISITOR.

VOL. XXXII.

RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1895.

NO. 90

OUT

For the New Year. We are not cleaning out a lot of old books and shopworn stationery, but we are cleaning out some of the most readable books, in stylish bindings, you ever saw. Some of the finest stationery that pen or pencil ever traveled over.

When you learn that we are selling the famous standard books for 25c, we know you will be surprised. What a pleasure to read such books at such prices.

The best of ink and the best of pens help the fingers to help the brain to do some good work.

We have just stocked upon Blank Books, Day Books, Ledgers, Pass Books and everything a business man wants to begin a new year's work. Prices lower than you have ever bought before.

The-Live-Man

Of today is the man who succeeds, and the individual who waits for his neighbor to set the pace generally brings up the rear. It is pretty lively with us. The LOW cash prices we are making on all winter dress goods, flannels, ladies' wraps, men's and boys' clothing, overcoats, etc., causes our worthy competitors to be seized with the mad spirit of imitation and drop in line in the rear of the leader and take their respective medicines with much murmuring. They are coming in droves and all go away happy with the greatest bargains in shoes, carpets, rugs, etc., ever seen in Raleigh.

My entire line of crockery, glassware, lamps, etc., at prime cost. Respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL,
108 Fayetteville st., Raleigh, N. C.

A WORLD GIRDLER

To be Here Soon. He is a Cyclist Who Travels Without Money.

Proprietor Brown, of the Yarbboro case, is in receipt of a unique letter from a L. A. W. cyclist, of New York City, named Edward Preissig. He writes that he is soon to leave New York for a round-the-world tour on a bicycle and, if he keeps up with the schedule he has mapped out, will reach Raleigh on the 6th of April. He is to remain over here on Saturday, the 7th, and leave again on the 8th. He states in his letter that he is to make the trip without money as this is a specification of the contract of the wager for which he is to circle the world; therefore he asks Mr. Brown to allow him to stop at the Yarbboro over Sunday, free of charge.

Proprietor Brown agrees to this and wrote Preissig this morning that he would grant his request. The cyclist when he returns is to write a book describing his trip in detail. Raleigh cyclists and people generally will watch for Mr. Preissig's coming with interest as it is not every day that a real, live globe trotter, or rather wheeler, comes here.

Wouldn't Adjourn.

The legislature today discussed resolutions in both houses to adjourn and go to the Newbern fair. The legislators, a majority, didn't see the matter in that light and wouldn't adjourn. Therefore those legislators who wanted to attend the fair quietly left the halls, got their baggage and left anyhow. A number went from each house but more, in proportion, from the senate. It is likely that had a call for quorum been made, that it would have been found that a majority of the senators were absent.

Nice hot pop corn or fresh roasted peanuts at Dugh's.

Dugh's restaurant is open from 6 o'clock one morning until 2 o'clock the next. Just as well as open all the time.

Extra bargains in furniture at Thomas & Maxwell. Bed lounges with detachable mattresses a specialty.

If you want solid measure oysters at 25 and 35c, a quart go to D. Bell & Co.'s stall in the market house.

Oysters stew, fry and raw the best you ever saw, at Dugh's.

Quail on toast at Dugh's.

California pears at Dugh's.

OF SMALL VALUE?

THESE DRIBBLES OF NEWS ARE LITTLE TO BE SURE.

But Valuable to Those Who Want Straight Tips.

This evening Governor and Mrs. Carr will entertain a few friends at a whist party.

The Thaw goes merrily on and water is becoming entirely too plentiful a commodity.

Governor Carr today appointed Mr. A. A. Maynard, of Wadesboro, a notary public.

Work on the monument began again today. Another stone went up on the foundation.

The last will and testament of the late W. H. Richardson, of Marks Creek township was admitted to probate today.

Several farmers brought cotton to the market today, taking advantage of the improved condition of the weather.

Mr. John B. Kenney has moved his office and now occupies rooms in the Pullen building, one of the most handsome rooms.

There will be a meeting of the Epworth literary circle this evening in the Bible class room of Edenton St. M. E. church.

There was a small real estate transaction yesterday. L. H. Moore sold to W. H. Hood a lot on East Martin street. The price paid was $277.50.

This evening Miss Merrimon will entertain a number of friends at a reception to be given in honor of Miss May Hall, of Athens, Ga., who is visiting her.

Raleigh has a new social organization, a club. Its membership is made of young ladies and meetings to which their friends are invited are held monthly.

A colored boy, named Smith, was badly hurt at the News and Observer office this morning. His hand was caught in the folding machine and badly mashed.

The sheriff gives notice to delinquents for real estate taxes that if they come up and settle within the next few days they will save the costs of advertising, etc.

Mr. Richard S. Busbee who, as noted, is an alternate for a cadet ship at West Point, is at home, having left the university, to study especially for the West Point examination.

Mayor Badger had four cases to settle this morning. Three were simply drunks and were given 12 hours each in the station house, the other, a case of assault, was settled by a fine of $5.25 on the offender.

Dr. P. E. Hines left yesterday afternoon to attend Mr. William Green, of Wilmington, who as noted in the Visitor, is critically ill of pneumonia. His father and mother are with him. There is very little hope of saving his life.

The book committee has thus far taken no steps toward making a report on the school book question. A meeting was held yesterday to hear from the book men but they did not appear. A report is expected on next Saturday.

Last night some unknown person fired a pistol the bullet from which struck a window of a residence in the northeastern part of the city, broke the glass, went through the inside blind and fell on the floor inside. Such carelessness is criminal.

Trains from the South are greatly delayed on account of having to make a wide circuit, by Columbia, around the big freight wreck that occurred below Spartansburg. Twenty two freight cars are piled on the track and in the ditch and it will take several days to clear away the debris.

Rev. L. L. Lafferty, editor of the Richmond Christian Advocate, has invented and patented a new flour. He is in every humorous card to the press asking editors to notice his invention. "It is customary" he writes, "for an inventor to die penniless while his bystander makes a million out of his invention." For my part, however, I had rather die in the order of uncut coupons.

U. N. C. STUDENT DEAD

Mr. W. H. Green, Jr., a Sophomore, died at Chapel Hill of Pneumonia.

On the east bound train today there was a sad party that was in sharp contrast to the merry, laughing throng of pleasure seeking fair, goes that made up the greater number of passengers. In the express car was a casket which contained the remains of a young boy and this was why the little party was sad. There was a mother, a heart broken mother, on board, also, who was carrying the dead body of the son she loved home for burial. For days and nights she had watched over him at the university where his life was slowly ebbing away; she had cared for him as only a mother can and only to see him leave her forever. It was a sad, sad sight and as one looked at her pale, wan, sorrow-stricken face and then at the smiling careless pleasure seekers, those words in the Bible, "in the midst of life we are in death," seemed ever so true.

The casket contained the remains at W. H. Green, Jr., a sophomore at the university. For two weeks he had been ill of pneumonia and a week ago his mother was sent for. As stated elsewhere Dr. Hines left for Chapel Hill yesterday afternoon. He came back today, having arrived too late, for young Green quietly gave up his life at 8 o'clock last evening. His mother and uncle were with him when he died.

The remains were being taken to Wilmington where the funeral takes place tomorrow. With the body also went several university students, fraternity mates and close friends of the dead body, who will act as pall bearers at the funeral. They are Messrs. Shaffner, Balunson, Stephenson, Emple, London, Sharpe and Lemly, all of the Sigma Alpha, the dead boy's fraternity.

The Conditions and the Forecast.

For North Carolina: Fair, cooler Friday.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Friday clear and slightly warmer.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today. Maximum temperature 47; minimum temperature 20; rainfall, 0.00.

A Hard Time for Deputy Troy.

Deputy collector W. C. Troy this morning made a report to collector Simmons of the seizure of an illicit distillery near Fayetteville. The seizure was made yesterday morning at 4 o'clock. The still was located in a particularly inaccessible locality, about 15 miles from Fayetteville, and had been in operation for several years. Revenue men knew of its whereabouts and several efforts have been made to capture it before. Deputy Troy started from Fayetteville Tuesday night. The roads were in a terrible condition and the night a dark one. On the way to the still the buggy the deputy was in was twice overturned and he was thrown out once in the mud and again into a 10 foot ditch. He writes feelingly of his trip. The still, which was not destroyed but carried to Fayetteville, was one of 65 gallon capacity and was owned by John Bouie, a notorious white moonshiner of Cumberland county. He was not captured.

Death of Mr. John Waters.

Mr. John Waters died at his residence, corner Polk and East streets last evening at six o'clock after a short illness. For several years he had suffered severely with asthma, which disease caused his death. He came to Raleigh in 1865, and during the thirty years of his residence here was esteemed and respected. He was for several years an efficient police officer and was for a long while in charge of Oakwood cemetery. He was a member of the Legion of Honor. The funeral services will be held from his late residence, Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales lodge this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Work in the initiatory degree. Every member requested to attend. All Odd Fellows cordially invited.

FOR WEAL OR WOE.

WHETHER ILL OR WELL, JOYOUS OR SAD, ALL ARE HERE.

It is EVER WELL to Know How Your Neighbor Fares.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Speague are in the city.

Hon. Lee S. Overman arrived from Salisbury this afternoon.

Col. F. A. Olds is confined to his room with a severe attack of la grippe.

Mr. Clifford Carroll, of the University, came home for a visit this afternoon.

Messrs. D. T. Laurison and M. Silver, two citizens of Morganton, are in the city.

Capt. John B. Broadfoot and W. A. Sinclair, two Fayetteville citizens, are visiting here today.

Mr. S. A. Ashe, Jr., who has been on a visit home, returned this morning to his school at Bladensboro.

Miss Winnie Adderton, of Lexington, N. C., is in the city, the guest of Miss Josie Brown, on Hillsboro street.

Mr. Theo. F. Klutz, of Salisbury, arrived here again on business today. His daughter, Miss Ruth Klutz, is also here visiting friends.

Miss Sallie Cotton left this afternoon for Newbern to attend the fair. Her many friends will be glad to know that she is soon to return.

Among the Raleigh people who left to attend the Newbern fair today were noted: County treasurer Riggsbee, Dr. J. M. Ayer, Edgar Bobbitt, Dr. George T. Winston and F. S. Spruill also left for Newbern.

TO MISS HAIGH.

The Brilliant Cotillion Club German--Last Before Lent.

Last evening the Carolina Cotillion club gave its last german before Lent and Raleigh's young people will dance no more until Easter. The german was given in honor of Miss Haigh, of Fayetteville, who is visiting Miss Margaret Hinsdale, on Hillsboro street. It was, if possible, the most enjoyable german yet given by the club. About twenty couples and several stags participated in the dancing which lasted until half past one o'clock.

It was the last dance before Lent and this fact, probably, caused the young people to enter heart and soul, for the while into the pleasures of the waltz and made the german one long to be remembered.

The german was skillfully led by Mr. Armistead Coward. Haywood's band furnished delightful music for the occasion. The german took place at Briggs hall.

Beware of the "Purp"

Tuesday night Mrs. John U. Smith heard a man fumbling at the blinds of the front window of her house which is low and opens on the porch. She didn't scare, though, and fired two shots through the blinds. The man was probably not struck and ran. Later in the night the Smiths heard an awful commotion in the back yard where two bull-dogs are kept. Upon investigation the yard was found to be greatly ploughed up and the dogs licking their jaws and trying to get over a high fence, on which a large scrap of cloth was hanging. The man had made his escape, however. It is supposed he was a tramp.

For Burning a Jail.

Sheriff McCain, of Stanly county, today brought two prisoners to the penitentiary. Both were colored men; one was sent up for a short time for larceny and the other was convicted and sentenced for burning a jail in which he was confined, in the attempt to escape. He is to remain in the penitentiary for 7 years.
