EX. DEPARTMENT NEWS.

Although Ill Governor Carr Does a Deal of Work.

Governor Carr has granted a reprieve to Billy McDaniel who was sentenced to death in Buncombe county, for murder. The day of his execution was March 12th. The governor has given him a month's respite.

Mr. W. F. Dough has been appointed a commissioner of wrecks for the first district. The governor made the appointment today.

Governor Carr has offered a reward of $100 for the capture of Ben Brodie, a colored man who killed his wife in Franklin county. He has fled and his whereabouts are unknown.

Governor Carr has ordered a special term of court for Robinson county to convene on April 15th. The term is called for the purpose of hearing civil cases only, with which the calendar of that court is overcrowded.

Judge Geo. H. Brown will preside.

A strange fatality seems to hang about the governor's office. First Governor Carr was ill; he recovered and Major Telfair was stricken down; now the major is out and the governor is sick again. He will be out soon, it is hoped. Clerk Hinton yet laughs at this.

THE WEATHER

The Conditions and the Forecast.

For North Carolina: Showers, followed by fair, colder with moderate "cold wave."

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Rain tonight, flurry of snow Tuesday morning, followed by clearing, much colder.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 51; minimum temperature 37; rainfall trace.

Administrators Notice.

Having this day qualified with the will annex of the estate of Isaac Moore, deceased late of Wake county, N. C., this is to notify persons having claims against the said estate to present them to me on or before the 3rd day of March, 1895, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery; and all persons indebted to the said estate are hereby notified to make immediate payment.

J. C. MARCUM,
Administrator et al.
JOHN GATLING, Attorney. m34w.

What the Note Book Captured and Salted Down.

In the mayor's court this morning a man was fined five dollars and costs for disorderly conduct.

The trustees of the University meet this month at Chapel Hill, soon after the adjournment of the legislature on Monday next.

The weather report Saturday said "light flurry of snow Saturday night." That was exactly what came. In sheltered places it was an inch deep.

Col. T. S. Stephenson, his friends will be sorry to learn, is confined to his room with an attack of gout. He hopes to be about again in a few days.

The board of county commissioners met this morning and staid in session until 2 o'clock. They meet again this afternoon. Nothing but routine business was transacted.

Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock the fire alarm rung from box 34. The fire was in the residence of Mrs. Scarlet. The damage, estimated by a fireman, was 15 cents.

An interesting sight seen on the streets today was a big whiskey distillery being hauled to the revenue office. It was formerly a turpentine still but had been adapted to different uses.

At 8:30 o'clock last evening Edith Isabella Evans, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Evans, died at the age of 19 months. The funeral will take place from the residence tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Friends are invited to attend.

Last night there was a lively "scrap" between the telegraph operator at the Caucasian office and a printer on the same paper, named Goldsmith. Goldsmith is a cripple and uses crutches, but he put up a game fight, anyway.

Rev. Dr. Burwell has been at death's door during the day. At 9 o'clock this morning he was thought to be unable to live through the day. At 3 o'clock this afternoon he was still alive, but sinking.

Tomorrow the supreme court decisions will be handed down and the fate of George Mills will be settled, in all probability. Then one will hear no more of George, except perhaps a notice of his violent death.

Superior court met and adjourned today. That is the whole story. The case of Yancey vs. Stronach was on the calendar but a postponement till tomorrow was agreed to. The motion docket will be called tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

The Isabella circle of King's Daughters will on Tuesday evening give an entertainment in the parlors of the Park hotel. The program will consist of the best instrumental and vocal music by Raleigh talent. The ladies earnestly invite all favorable to the cause to attend.

Yesterday Noah Wilson, in the heat of passion, struck a colored man named Wilcox, on the head with a pair of heavy tongs. This morning he was committed to jail for assault with a deadly weapon. He says Wilcox abused him beyond measure.

At the meeting of the county commissioners held today cotton weighers were elected. They are P. W. Doud and J. W. Pear, elected by the commissioners, and T. M. Richardson and R. G. Dunn, by the cotton engrossers exchange.

This morning there arrived here a committee of Wilmington's citizens, who are visiting here to take steps to prevent, if possible, the change of their city's charter by the legislature. They are some of that city's most progressive citizens. Their names may be seen in the personal column.

Yesterday some trivial changes of schedule went into effect on the Southern railroad. The 5:40 train to Greensboro now leaves at 5:30. The train from Greensboro leaves at 9:15 instead of 9:5. The night train from Greensboro arrives at 9:10 instead of 9:45.

GORMAN'S BOY DEAD.

The Baby Died Saturday Afternoon "Of Meningitis."

The little baby boy of Maxwell Gorman is dead. Death came to the suffering little body late Saturday afternoon, the day after it had been maltreated by its unnatural father. The burial took place yesterday afternoon in the old cemetery. Mrs. Gorman and Maxwell Gorman were both present at the services at the grave which were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Carter.

Dr. J. W. McGee made out the burial permit and assigned the cause of death as meningitis. The little child died at its home. It was only seven months old and had suffered with an affliction of the head, caused by meningitis, since its birth. When it became known that the child was dead Gorman was liberated from the jail where he was confined, preparatory to being sent the roads. So Maxwell Gorman is free; the child he maltreated is dead and buried. Whose fate is best? That of the dead child or of its living father?

Mrs. Gorman states that no injury was done to Mr. Gorman's little child. He was arrested, Mrs. Gorman says because she feared he might do the child unintentional injury. Mr. Gorman has decided to give up intemperance, and intends to lead a new life, which his friends sincerely hope he may do.

NO GREENSBORO HOTELS

That is What May Happen If the Aldermen Are Obstinate.

They are having a stir in Greensboro. Some months since the board of aldermen ordered that all liquor saloons be placed in the front part of the buildings occupied by them. Capt. Fisher, of the Benbow house, has a very elegant saloon attached to his hotel. He closed it rather than remove it to the front of the hotel. He has now leased the McAdoo hotel and being in control of the situation, threatens to close both hotels 1st of April unless the aldermen rescind the ordinance.

MRS. SETTLE DEAD.

Death came at Greensboro yesterday morning.

Mrs. Settle, widow of the late judge Thomas Settle and mother of Hon. Thomas Settle, member of congress, died yesterday morning. She was a lady of superior social and intellectual qualities. She was the daughter of the late Tyra Glen, of Yadkin county.

Civil Service Examination.

The civil service commission at Washington has ordered that an examination be held in this city on Saturday, March 23, 1895, commencing at 9 o'clock a. m., for the grades of clerk and carriers in the city post office. Only citizens of the United States can be examined. The age limitations are as follows: for carrier not under 21 nor over 40; for all other positions, not under 18 years. No application will be accepted for this examination, unless filed with the undersigned in complete form, on the proper blank, before 5 o'clock p. m., on March 18th, 1895. The civil service commissioner takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all respectable citizens who may desire to enter the postal service, without regard to their political affiliations. All such citizens whether democrats or republicans or neither are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to their political views, or to any condition save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination. For application blanks, full instructions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, apply at the postoffice to E. R. ELLIS, Secretary Board Examiners.
