RAH! TO THE LADIES.

The Monument Appropriation Bill Goes Through Triumphant.

At noon today the bill to appropriate $10,000 for the purpose of completing the Confederate monument came up in the house of representatives and at some time later it went through triumphantly and tomorrow will be a law, for the senate has already passed it.

The debate was a spirited one—not that the opposition was strong but because of the spirit of the bill. Men voting for a bill in which sentiment is predominant cannot help being enthusiastic and it is good they should be. It is a good thing that the deeds of the confederate dead should be commemorated and this legislature has "done itself proud" in passing the bill which enables the ladies of the monumental association to complete their work. The ladies have had a hard fight and they have won. They asked the legislature for nothing at this session. They have got what they deserved from that body.

But the ladies were there to applaud the efforts of the men who were championing their cause. The galleries were filled with them and every outburst of patriotism, and eloquent plea for honor to the men who died in the ranks received a rich reward in the enthusiastic clapping of gloved hands from the galleries, that rang out as sharply and bravely as did the volleys of rifle shots from the soldiers in whose memory the monument is being built. Lack of space forbids a mention of the speeches for or against the bill. Suffice it to say that "Cherokee" Campbell voted against it. Governor, did you say? Well, hardly.

And thus the matter ends. The monument is to be carried to completion. The ladies have won. Rah! to the ladies.

TEA TIME TALK.

THE DAY'S DOINGS FROM MORN TILL EVEN-TIDE.

These Little Dots Serve as a Good Evening Sauce.

Last evening in a fusion caucus it was decided that the legislature must adjourn on next Tuesday.

Superior court adjourned yesterday after finishing up one of the lightest civil calendars on record.

It is said that Maj. Martin is to succeed Mr. R. L. Burkhead as clerk in the office of State Treasurer Worth.

"What Polk Miller does not know about the negro is not worth finding out."—Amateur Sportsman New York.

The chicken thief Rogers was given a hearing before a magistrate today and bound over to the next term of court.

The sheriff of Columbus county today brought in one convict to the penitentiary to serve out a larceny term.

It is becoming a very popular amusement for people to visit Dughi's between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock to see major Martin eat birds.

As stated in the Visitor yesterday George Mills will not be sentenced for some time by the Governor. He will be sentenced on April 1st.

Polk Miller kept his audience convulsed with laughter for a full hour."—New York Tribune. Hear him at Metropolitan hall Friday night.

During the monumental discussion today "Cherokee Governor" Campbell got up and asked a speaker in favor of the appropriation if he was not a widower.

Late yesterday afternoon Fayetteville street was treated to its daily bit of excitement, a runaway. The horse ran clear to the central graded school, where it succeeded in breaking the buggy.

The Southern railroad has not yet made any reduction to meet the cut made yesterday by the Seaboard Air Line. It is doubtful, say railroad men, whether any reduction will be made by the Southern.

Yesterday the educational committee voted to adversely report a bill to double the appropriation to a colored normal school. Then "Jim" Young addressed the committee and made such direful threats, they say, that the committee went squarely back on their first action.

The Selma Ala., Daily Journal, says of Polk Miller. "The gentleman had scarcely spoken ten minutes before his audience felt as if they were seated around the hearth stone of their own circle. Mr. Miller appears at Metropolitan hall Friday night next. Don't fail to hear him.

The misplacing or appropriating of bills that have been introduced in the legislature continues and many parties are kept "on the anxious bench," hunting them up. Many bills are also being railroaded through with marvelous rapidity.

It is curious how often Mr. Lusk is a candidate for office and with what punctuality he is always downed by the fusionists. The speakership, judge of the new criminal district and code commissioner he has all three aspired to and yet he is still plain, unadorned Mr. Representative Lusk.

Injustice was unintentionally done J. M. Ferrell, the laborer in the house by the publication of an item yesterday that as doorkeeper he was insolent. He says his behavior was courteous; that he is not a doorkeeper but a laborer, who looks after the door because Abe Middleton, the colored assistant doorkeeper, is otherwise employed. It is also said that the policeman sent for that night was to stop noise in the gallery.

Mr. Barnes, of the firm of Barnes Brothers, tells the Visitor that the report that he and the Stewarts had entered into a contract whereby he is to do most of the work here, is entirely false. He says that the Stewarts, in anticipation of getting the printing, have already purchased and had delivered at Winston a large quantity of machinery.

RALEIGH'S CHARTER.

A Brief Summary of the Modified Shaffer Bill.

Last evening a bill to change the city of Raleigh came up in the senate and passed its readings. It will now go to the house and, if that body ever reaches it, it will probably become a law. The bill is a modification of the Shaffer bill, being the same with exception that the city limits are not to be extended. These are the main features of the bill:

The city is to be divided into four wards of equal size, Halifax and Fayetteville streets, Hillsboro street and Newbern Avenue, dividing them. The northwest fourth between the centre of Halifax and Hillsboro streets will be the first, the northeast fourth between Halifax street and Newbern Avenue, the second, the southwest area between the centre of Hillsboro and Fayetteville streets, the third and the remaining area, the fourth ward. Each ward is to have three aldermen and the mayor, the tax collector and the treasurer are to be elected by the citizens at large, biennially.

The policemen are to be elected biennially and by the board of aldermen who are also to elect a city clerk, a chief of police, a street commissioner, a commissioner of the sinking fund and an auditor. There shall be a board of equalization appointed to act with the board of county commissioners and agree upon an equalization of taxes. It shall consist of three members to hold office two years and to be elected by the board of aldermen. The bill is quite voluminous, enumerating taxes, bonds, duties etc. The above are its main features.

REVENUE SEIZURES.

Four Deputies Report Illicit Stills Captured.

After many days when it seemed as though the tribe of moonshiners had ceased to exist or were successfully evading the raiders, four deputies today reported the seizure of just so many illicit stills, thereby exploding any such idea. Here are the reports: Deputy collector E. A. Moffitt reports the seizure and destruction in Chatham county, of a peculiar illicit still. It had a copper bottom and wooden top and sides. It was owned by Jordan and Polk.

Deputy W. F. Davis and R. E. Causey report that they destroyed, near Reidsville, a 50-gallon illicit still and 40 gallons of spirits owned by B. F. Sprinkle.

Deputy Shelburn destroyed an 80 gallon still and 1000 gallons of beer, in Person county. This establishment was owned by Alex Long.

The last seizure was reported by deputy R. E. Causey who captured and destroyed a wooden still, with tin worn, owned by George May, in Guilford county.

To Stewart Bros.

Last evening the house passed the majority report of the printing committee, thereby awarding the public printing to Stewart Bros. of Winston. A minority report was presented which provided for the question to be referred back and for expert, practical printers to examine the bids. After a long and heated debate the majority report was adopted and Stewart Bros. are therefore the printers. The vote was almost strictly partisan, the fusionists voting for the majority report and the democrats for the minority. Some republicans, however, supported the democrats. Among those were Lineback, of Forsythe, and Young of Wake.

Parker vs. Peebles.

The contested election case of Parker against Peebles has been made a special order for this evening at 8 o'clock. There is much interest manifested in the case. Mr. W. J. Peele represents Parker. However the case turns out Mr. Parker will not be a representative for more than three days, anyhow.

There will be an important meeting of St. Agnes' Guild, at Christ church chapel, at 4:30 p. m. tomorrow. A full attendance is especially requested.

Funeral of Mrs. Baker.

At 3:30 o'clock this afternoon the funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Ashby L. Baker were held from her late residence on Halifax street. Rev. Dr. T. E. Skinner conducted the services. Only the friends of the family were in attendance. Mrs. R. Y. McAden and Miss Lucy McAden of Charlotte, were present. Mrs. Baker's death was a particularly sad one and brought gloom to many friends and relatives. She was a member of the Baptist church.
