TWO STROKES

Of Paralysis Came Upon Representative Julian-Better this Morning.

Saturday evening at 11 o'clock Mr. D. R. Julian, the democratic representative from Rowan county, suffered a slight stroke of paralysis. He soon recovered but on Sunday morning was again stricken. The second stroke was a very severe one and it was feared that he would not recover. He became delerious and remained in violent delerium for several hours. Dr. Coggeshall was called in and rendered medical attention with good results. Last evening Mr. Julian became better and this morning his condition is so much improved that his friends and his physician hope for his speedy and complete recovery.

The stroke is supposed to have been brought on by worry. A bill had been introduced in the legislature to extend the limits of Salisbury, Mr. Julian's town, and he had been very active in his efforts to defeat it. He had been on a constant strain for s-veral days and Saturday made a very ing his point. This is Mr. Julian's first term in the legislature and he has shown himself to be an earnest is well known in Raleigh and to politiclans throughout the state, as for over twelve years he had been the efficient door-keeper of the house of rep-

WHISKY UNDER THE BED

Sick Moonshiner Lucas was Within Easy Reach of "Preventatives."

Deputy collector Gibson made a raid yesterday near Flagtown and eaptured an illicit still, 60 gallons capacity, 400 gallons of beer, 30 gallons of whiskey and, last but not least, two moonshiners, Arch and Millard F. Lucas. The deputies also have their finger on old man Lucas, their father, who was third owner in the still.

Arch and Millard were both taken entirely by surprise and captured right in the act of tending the moonshine establishment. The deputies search of the house revealed three kegs of whiskey underneath the bed the sick man was on. Within eash reach was a pail full of "dew" and a tin cup from which the sick man took his medicine. Old Lucas, who is a notorious 'shiner, was too ill to move. His two sons are in jail awaiting trial at Flagtown.

MAY BE BURGLARY.

The case of a Negro Boy Sent to March Court for Larceny.

Saturday's Visitor told briefly how two boys, whose names were withheld, had been arrested for stealing a gun from a man's house and then pawning it here. One of them has been released; the other, John Bethel, is in jail on a charge of larceny, awaiting March court. Bethel may be in it very deep. though for the crime for which he was arrested looks very much like burglary. About a week ago the house of a man named Mangum was robbed at Gar ner during night. When Wm. Mangum awoke he found that a suit of clothes and a gun had been stolen. There was no clue to the thief. Friday he came here and in the pawn shop found his gan. Bethel was seen on the street and arrested. He is an accomplished liar, claiming that the thief, out of the kindness of his heart, had made him a present of the gun. He was sent to jail by mayor Badger this morning.
