OUTRAGE IN THE HOUSE.

MEMBERS DETAINED BY A NEGRO DOOR-KEEPER.

They Resisted and for a Moment a Serious Riot Was Imminent.

Negroes, black, burly, uneducated negroes, struggling with several members of the house of representatives, was the unusual and revolting spectacle seen on the floor of the house last evening. The negroes were using violence and the representatives of course resenting this, a riot was imminent and was only narrowly averted.

The way it came about was on account of a negro door keeper who, acting under the speakers orders, stood within the door and refused to let any member in or out of the hall. Capt. R. H. Peebles and Mr. Lee, of Haywood, started from the hall but were stopped at the door by the negro. They demanded to be let out but the negro refused and a struggle ensued. Several negroes rushed to the support of the door keeper, and several other persons coming to the aid of Capt. Peebles a number of people became engaged in a violent struggle; some tried to pull Capt. Peebles back in while others attempted to eject him. When the struggle was becoming serious and a riot was imminent, the door flew open and Capt. Peebles and Mr. Lee getting out, serious trouble was avoided.

This is what comes of negroes being placed where they may come in friction with the whites. It is an outrage on the whites but no less could have been expected under the circumstances. That murder was not done is a wonder.

News That Just Rolled In—For You Couldn't Go For It.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Worth, Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The legislature is dead at last and in several days the town will no longer see the festive law maker.

Speaker Walsers actions last evening while in the chair have caused much very unfavorable comment from all classes of people.

A negro was arrested here yesterday, for assault with a deadly weapon which consisted in his pointing a pistol at a friend. He is in jail.

Two convicts arrived here from McDowell county today. The sheriff took great pleasure in putting in one of them, as the rascal had stolen his horse.

The elections of Stanford, as state librarian, and new directors of the penitentiary, the caucus nominees referred to editorially, are all null and void as there was no quorum.

The funeral of Mrs. L. H. Olds has been postponed until tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock on account of the weather. It will be held from the church of the Sacred Heart.

Mr. R. L. Burkhead, who has proved such an excellent clerk in the treasurer's office, will step out on the 10th of April. His place will be taken, as has been noted, by Major Martin.

Mr. Harry Howell, a University student, arrived here today. He will appear before the board of trustees of the University tomorrow in regard to matters concerning the student body.

One more stone will be placed on the monument foundation before the shaft is put into place. It will be very similar to the one now on top, with the exception that it will be more polished and handsomely carved.

Mr. J. C. Marcom has been elected collector of the Raleigh Council 551, Royal Arcanum, to succeed Mr. D. T. Johnson, resigned. This election will go into effect on March 25. He will no doubt make an excellent officer.

Said a colored man yesterday who has been a candidate for mayor but who has drawn out of the race.

"Marse Alex. Stronach is goin' to be de man for dis' reason. He has got a grocery store and people am bound to live."

The University base ball team has arranged several important games to be played with northern colleges. On April 2d the team will appear here and play a game with Lafayette college. The Glee, Mandolin and Bango club will appear here at the Academy on Monday, 15th of April.

The candidates, or rather those suggested as candidates for mayor are legion. The latest suggestion is Capt. R. H. Brooks, the popular deputy sheriff. A prominent republican said today that if there was to be a democratic mayor, he wanted mayor Badger; if a republican, John Smith.

The Visitor is advised that the manufacturer's committee of the Massachusetts legislature will reach here in the morning on the Atlanta special. It will probably leave again on the home train for Richmond. Members of the chamber of commerce and citizens are respectfully invited to call on them at the Yarboro house tomorrow morning.

ANOTHER LARGE SHINER.

He And His Big Distillery Both Captured By Deputies.

One of the largest illicit distilleries captured this year was destroyed by deputy collector Shelburn last Monday in Orange county. The still was owned by Jim Gates, a well-known and long sought for moonshiner of that county. The report of the seizure was made to collector Simmons this morning. The still was a 130 gallon one, a very large size, and with it were captured a cap and two worms, 3,000 gallons of beer and 80 gallons of spirits, all of which were destroyed. The distillery was situated at Linover postoffice, about ten miles from Hillsboro.

UNPRECEDENTED ACTION

SPEAKER WALSER PLAYS TYRANT IN THE CHAIR.

Two Rulings Which were Never Before Made in the House.

The proceedings of the house of representatives last evening were probably more full of excitement and sensation than has been the result of any session ever held in that body. Sensation followed sensation, the most glaring rulings being made by speaker Walser and the minority being treated with a contempt for their rights that was disgraceful. Combined with the outrage at the door the proceedings will go down into history as the most unusual of any that ever took place in the house. From the hour of meeting until the house adjourned at 12:15 o'clock, the excitement among both spectators and members was intense and much feeling was exhibited by both. Two of the actions of speaker Walser, which were last evening manifestly unfair to the minority, were unprecedented and gave rise to a profound sensation.

One of these rulings was the action of the speaker in voting in order to make a sufficient number of votes to suspend the rules of the house. This is expressly denied him, that is the right of voting, in rule 8. The other ruling was his unusual and inexcusable action in ordering the doors of the house closed without a call. This attempt to prevent members from leaving the hall nearly brought on a riot, as is told in another column.

It is a pity that the end of the session should be so marred by the tyrannical and unjust rulings of the chair, but they are worthy of the most severe condemnation.

OUT FOR MAYOR.

Mr. J. C. Marcom, the First Openly Avowed Candidate.

Now is the day of aspirants for the office of mayor and in a few weeks the candidates will be thick as autumn leaves. Several gentlemen have already been suggested by their friends for the place but there is as yet but one gentleman who has formally declared himself out for the place. That gentleman is "squire" J. C. Marcom who says he is "in it" to the finish. He is at any rate an early worm and he has many friends who will help to "boost him along" toward the goal to which he aspires.

THREATENED CHILDREN.

And Then John Daniels, a Tramp, Resisted Wake Forest Officers.

John Daniels, a white tramp, turned up in Wake Forest yesterday and while at the depot became very boisterous and profane. Finally he pulled a pistol and, pointing it at some little children, threatened their lives. Then it was that several deputies attempted to arrest him. They finally succeeded but not until after a desperate struggle. Daniels fought like a tiger and it was not until he had been soundly clubbed that he could be put under arrest.

He was tried by a magistrate at Wake Forest and committed to jail to await trial for assault with a deadly weapon. He is now in jail here, having been brought in yesterday evening. His head is broken and Daniels' view of life is gloomy, gloomy.

LOOKING OVER RALEIGH SCHOOLS.

Mr. M. C. S. Noble, the efficient superintendent of the Wilmington graded schools, is here. Mr. Nobles has made several trips here lately, examining the system in vogue in the Raleigh schools. It is his intention to have the same plan introduced in the Wilmington schools next season. Prof. Moses' plan seems to catch every instructor, who comes here and visits the schools.

LIKE A WET HEN.

That Was the Way People Felt Today—Some of Them.

Mr. S. N. Betts, of Winston, is in the city.

Mr. H. T. Hackney of Greensboro, arrived here today.

Mr. M. D. Bailey, Jr., of Winston, arrived here this morning.

Mr. J. R. Schenck, of Greensboro, arrived here on a visit today.

The following Durhamites are here today: Messrs. J. S. Carr, S. T. Morgan, L. A. Carr, Geo. W. Watts, E. C. Hackney and J. W. Coble.

Mr. S. A. Campbell, who has been with Thomas & Maxwell, left with his family this morning for Augusta, Ga., where he will spend a few days with relatives and friends.

AN ELECTRIC STAR

TO BE PLACED OVER THE SHAFT OF THE MONUMENT.

And Perpetuate the Deads' Memory by a Blaze of Brilliant Light.

On the evening of the day on which the confederate monument is unveiled people of the city, far into the country even, will know that the monument is complete. For they will see, if the night be dark, a beautiful, shining star of white electric light that will mark the spot on which will stand the memorial to the wearers of the gray.

Arrangements have already been completed for the placing over the monument of this electric star, a brilliant, crowning diadem to a great and noble work. As was the monument, this plan to make it more beautiful, more grand, more original was conceived by the ladies. And they have proved well that whatever they undertake, they carry to a successful end.

The star will be something inique and grand. It will be about five feet in diameter and every tip will be a cluster of shining incandescent lights, while in the centre will be a larger and more brilliant cluster. In all there will be some 50 lights. The star will be suspended just over the head of the big confederate statue that will, top the monument proper. The new innovation is a good one that will add greatly to the beauty and grandeur of the monument.

WHAT HAS SHE GOT?

What the Wake County Republicans Have Obtained From Fusion.

"Now that the legislature is about to adjourn," said a prominent old line republican today, "We are beginning to look around and consider where we are at in the matter of offices obtained from the legislature? Soon after the election we were jubilant, for was not Wake the largest county in the state? Was she not the banner fusion county, with one exception, in the state? We wanted pie and we fully expected it. Now what have we got?" said the gentlemen, a look of the most profound humiliation overspreading his features, "nothing in the world but Orho Wilson and Harry Roberts, a democrat."

The gentleman spoke feelingly and his words are going to have a great deal of weight. Wake county has been sadly left, in the "pie counter" distribution.
