RALEIGH TO THE FRONT.

The Raleigh branch of the Southern takes pleasure in stating to its 150 members who own $140,000 worth of stock, and to those who want to become members, that she is now ready to receive application for loans with which to build a home, or to pay for one already built. It matters not how much, from $800 to $5,000 or more. Parties having lots for sale, or who have residences for sale, will do well to call at my office and register same as I now have and expect more applications for same. Real estate bought and sold. Stocks and bonds also. Money loaned on building and loan stock (of any reliable association) as I prefer this to real estate loans. I loaned a party $500 in the Raleigh branch of the Southern. He built him a nice home; only pays us $8.50 per month. He could not rent the same house for this money. Is he paying any rent? No, but he is paying for his house every month and in about 7 years will not own a cent. Recollect that the Raleigh branch of the Southern proposes to bring into Raleigh $5 for every one paid in. We only charge 6 per cent. interest. No better or safer investment to be had. C. C. McDONALD, Sec'y and Treas. Raleigh Branch, Office with Jones & Powell.

TO MAJOR WINDER.

A SILVER SERVICE GIVEN BY S. A. L. OFFICERS.

The Presentation This Afternoon—Who Were Present.

This morning a number of men prominent in Seaboard Air Line circles arrived here. Their purpose in coming was to be present at the ceremony of giving to Major Winder, who was the honored vice president of the road, a handsome silver service as a token of the esteem and affection in which he is held by the officers and men of the road which he has served so faithfully and so well.

The presentation took place this afternoon at the residence of Major Winder, on Person street. The presentation addresses were made by Mr. T. B. Meares, on behalf of the traffic department, and by Mr. B. R. Lacy, on behalf of the engineers of the road. Both gentlemen spoke feelingly and well, expressing the lasting regard they held for Major Winder, who received the gift in a short but gracefully expressed talk.

Those who were present on the occasion were: John Winder, general manager; Carroll H. Smith, H. W. B. Glover, T. J. Anderson, V. E. McBea, T. W. Whisnant, T. B. Meares, E. A. Jones, W. T. Tucker, T. B. Cowper, W. E. Rean, S. O. Bauersfeld, Col. Alston Grimes, Capt. J. O. Burton, T. C. Nowell, B. R. Lacy, W. P. McGee and A. M. McPheeters.

DONE WHILE ON A "JAG."

The Plight Into Which Whiskey Came Near Getting a Countryman.

Linn Stephenson, a countryman, had a very narrow escape from getting himself into fustion yesterday. Linn came to town yesterday morning and, according to his usual custom, immediately got drunk. He staid drunk all day and ran up with Mr. John Mangum with whom he finally made a trade, selling him his mule.

But it happened that the same mule had been used to raise revenue for Mr. Stephenson before and at the time its owner sold him to Mr. Mangum, Mr. Frank Stronach held a mortgage on it. So that is the way it came about that Mr. Stephenson slept last night in the station house instead of in his cozy, country home in Middle creek township. "I've a mind to say that I'll never touch another drop of 'iker," said he last night. All that saved him from being put in jail was the willingness of Mr. Mangum to give up the mule, he seeing that Stephenson was drunk when he made the trade.

MR. MOORE CRITICALLY ILL.

He Has Never Recovered From a Hip Dislocation.

Some time ago Mr. George B. Moore suffered a peculiar accident. A dog ran into him on the street and threw him down. In his fall his hip was injured, being dislocated. Nothing was thought of the accident, as it was expected that he would soon recover. He was taken to Rex hospital and never got better. Complications set in, and he is now lying at the hospital in a very critical condition. His death may be expected at any time.

MR. MOORE DEAD.

Mr. Moore died at the hospital late this afternoon.

A RACKET IN THE CHURCH.

Colored Members of the Christian Church Annoyed by an Outsider.

The colored members of Maully street Christian church are greatly annoyed by the unwarranted persecution of Rufus Whitaker, a colored man who, one of the "deacons" says is not a member and never was and yet wants to run the church. Of course the members object to this proceeding.

Rufus seems to be a terror. Last year he created a similar racket and broke up several church meetings and now he has started in again. Last evening a city policeman sat in the church, through the services, to arrest any member or any one else who might draw his steel. This morning some of the members and Rufus Whitaker were summoned to appear before mayor Badger and have a settlement of difficulties. For some reason the trial was postponed.

A venerable looking old colored deacon of the church who was present gave a Visitor reporter the following explanation of the trouble. "De Christian church is just a church. Hit don't belong to no conference an' hit has its deacons and officers of its own. Dis here nigger Rufus Whitaker have been raising a heap of disturbances. He gets up in the church an' hollers and whoops and breaks up meetin's. He want to run de church and git in members dat we has turned out." "Does Rufus belong to the church?" the old fellow was asked. "No sir, dat he don't," said the old negro. "He is just obstructions, dat he is."

The Governor's guards will hold an important meeting on Monday evening. Every member is particularly desired to be present at the meeting.

The Seaboard Air Line trains come in every day with trains full of passengers. The cut in price must have taken on to the traveling public.

At the meeting of the state convention of the Young Men's Christian Association, a feature will be the presence here of a number of boy delegates, members of "junior leagues."

Many complaints are still heard of stolen bills which were taken after having been introduced in the legislature. There was more of this done at this session than has ever before been the case.

U. S. commissioner Vitruvius Royster this morning had a long, lank moonshiner up for trial. The trial didn't amount to much for the evidence was plain. Back to jail went the 'shiner to await trial.

The Visitor is glad to be informed that the strike rumor of the S. A. L., engineers is false. The article was published simply as a current rumor and it is a pleasure to know that in this case the "smoke" was not caused by any "fire."

The visit of the world-famous Marine band here on the 39th instant will be the great musical event of the year and no doubt will attract large audiences at the academy of music both at the matinee and the evening performance.

At Dughi's last evening Maj. Martin ate his thirtieth partridge and thus came out a winner in his match against appetite. He told Dughi that he would not, for all the money in the bank next door undertake to eat another thirty of "thirty birds straight."
