A Book Worm

knows more than one usually gives him credit for, and above all things he knows where to buy cheap books. And strange to say, that's one of the few things he didn't learn out of books. Somebody had to tell him. We told several book worms—not only about cheap books, but about writing paper, ink, pens and a few specialties, such as visiting cards and Easter cards. The address of the place is

ALFRED WILLIAMS & CO.

That's no news to you perhaps—a case of "no news is good news."

MRS. SPANN, NOW.

The Pretty Home Wedding of Miss Bell to Mr. L. Y. Spann.

At 11 o'clock this morning Miss Annie Lipscomb Bell became the wife of Mr. Lawrence Yates Spann, of Washington, D. C. At 4 o'clock this afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Spann left on the Southern train for their future home in Washington. Mrs. Spann was very popular here and left behind her countless friends who are pained to see her leave Raleigh but who send after her nothing but love and good wishes.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's father, Mr. B. B. Bell, on Hillsboro street. A number of special friends of the bride and groom were present. Rev. J. N. Cole performed the marriage ceremony. There were no brides' maids, Miss Bell being attended by her sister, Miss Luta Bell, and Mr. Spann by his best man, Mr. Minetree, of Washington, D. C. The bride was dressed in a handsome going away gown of reds.

After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the Union depot to take the noon S. A. L. train for Washington. On account of the delay, however, they remained over until 4 o'clock this afternoon, to the delight of their friends.

LENTEN RIPPLES.

LOCAL NEWS THAT MAKES LIFE LIVELY.

The Essence of it All is Here Found.

Mr. Richard Gattis is very ill at his home here.

The Bowery Insurance company has withdrawn from this state.

The trial of the colored Christian church squabble was postponed again today. Rev. Rufus Whitaker didn't turn up.

Income tax deputy R. W. Jones left this afternoon for a trip to Wilmington on business connected with the "rich man's trouble."

The University german club will give an Easter german this spring. The Washington birthday dance was postponed. Many Raleigh young people will doubtless attend.

Mr. William Faulkner, a colored gentleman who became obstreperous in a bar room, was fined five dollars and costs by mayor Badger this morning.

Commissions have been issued to judges Meares and Jones, of the new eastern and western criminal courts, these bearing date March 13, when their nominations were sent to the Senate.

The commission of Mr. B. R. Lacy, as commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics, was issued to him this morning by Gov. Carr. Mr. Lacy has made an excellent officer and has made the bureau what it is, a good and very useful office.

Supervisor McMackin this morning sent a large force of convicts to Greystone to prepare and load rock to be used on the township roads. They are going to be "beauts" when finished.

Mrs. Pattie D. B. Arrington says, and wants it distinctly understood, that the legislature should not be blamed for the quality of that notorious "Arrington committee." "I picked out the committee myself, says she and they were appointed at my suggestion."

The Seaboard Air Line train was two hours late today and did not arrive until 2 o'clock. The wedding party therefore had a nice, long while to talk matters over and say goodbye before the newly married couple got away. No cause was given for the delay.

A West Raleigh man has a dog ghost story to tell. Some time ago he killed the animal, whose "day" he thought had passed. The dog was carried three miles in the country by a farmer. Three days later he turned up in his master's back yard. Whys and wherefores are in order.

Few people know that Mr. John Wilbur Jenkins, of the News and Observer, is a poet. Such is the case however and he is a "crack-a-jack," too. He is soon to publish a volume of nice, spring sonnets. Watch out for "Springlets," in pea-green binding, price $1.25.

The machine at the Yarbors which weighs you for the small sum of one cent took on an exceedingly accommodating mood last Saturday evening and performed its accustomed duties gratis. A well known gentleman was so elated at the idea of "beating" the machine that he weighed and weighed until the wee small hours, when he finally left on account of the electric lights having gone out.

The March number of the Southern magazine is of a high standard of excellence. This magazine is growing both as to popularity and circulation and deserves success. Its illustrations are beautiful. "Historic and picturesque Chattanooga" is its leading feature for the month. It is published at Louisville, Ky., at the remarkably low price of $1.50 a year.

Mr. J. C. Scarborough, state superintendent of public instruction says regarding the effect of the new school law. "Our system of public schools is almost ruined; we are set back 20 years. As soon as I can get the new law I will have it printed. The abolition of the county superintendents and boards of education is a severe blow."

LENTEN THEATRICALS.

The Coming of Great Salvini And Worle Famed "Wang"

Local theatre-goers have selected Salvini as their special favorite and his coming is always looked upon as one of the chief events of the season. Although his fame has been enhanced from the fact that he is, the only actor of his day who has been able to thoroughly arouse in the audience of the period an enthusiastic regard for the sentiments of old-time romance, he is by no means confined to these limits. He is not an actor of one part, but of many parts. As a comedian or a tragedian he seems to be equally at home; unlike most of the greater actors he has no pronounced mannerisms, but, like the great artists of France, he is able to lose all self-consciousness and sink his identity in the roll he portrays.

"Wang" in all its royal magnificence, absolutely new and accurate costumes and scenery comes to the academy of music April 6th. Ten of the prettiest girls in "Wang" introduce a chorus of banjos that arouses great enthusiasm nightly. These girls represent the daughters of the French Consul at Bangkok, Siam, and their banjos are twanged for the entertainment of a number of envoys from the King of Burmah.

In the famous comic opera "Wang," one hundred and fifty costumes are used by the chorus alone. This fact give a faint idea of the gorgeousness with which the opera is put on the stage.

THE MAY TIME ELECTION.

The Preliminary Preparations Soon to be Completed.

Clerk of the court D. H. Young, being "ex-officio" in charge of the preparations and in fact of the municipal election, which is held on the first Monday in May, the 6th this year, has begun preparing for that event. The poll holders, registrars etc., have not as yet been selected but will be picked out and given to the public by tomorrow, perhaps.

As there are only four wards now, there will be two voting places in each ward. The reason for this is a clause in the new election law recently passed by the legislature which provides that there shall be a voting place for every 360 votes. This of course makes two voting places for each ward necessary.

The candidates for the mayoralty and for clerk are legion. In this connection it may be said emphatically that Mr. B. R. Lacy is not a candidate. He so stated to a Visitor reporter today and desires his statement printed.

New Firm.

The north-side drug store is now owned by Messrs. J. S. Wynne and Ed. Birdsong, Mr. Birdsong having purchased a half interest in said business. As stated last week, their business has grown to such an extent that it is found necessary to enlarge their present building. Other improvements will be made and the north-side drug store will be one of the handsomest in the city.

CAN SCRATCH FOR A LIVING.

A New Born Pickaninny Well Supplied With Digits.

Deputy sheriff Brooks is responsible for this tale, but it is a solemn fact. It deals with the birth of a little negro baby, who came into the world last evening. The parents of the child are Laura and Sam Hinton and the reason their child gets into print is on account of the queer arrangement and unusual number of fingers and toes with which it is blessed.

On the child's little, fat, black hands, there are twelve well formed fingers. The two extras are one on each hand, coming out on each hand below the little finger and each being about as large as that digit. On one foot is an extra toe but the other foot is not so provided. The child certainly came into the world prepared, literally, to "scratch for a living."

We have just received a large lot of sponges and Chamois skins which we bought at very reasonable prices and we are selling them correspondingly low.

SOMETHING BESIDES RABBITS

Chatham County Now Has a New Product.

Chatham county, so famous for its production of rabbit meat, now has another product, to-wit: moonshine-liquid. It so happens however that the farmers of that county, while they realize greater profits by the production of the new staple, cannot do so in entire safety, as sometimes the cruel arm of the law reaches out and gets the up-to-date rustic in its clutches or utterly destroys his means of livelihood. The tragedy happened in three instances last week. Here are the victims:

Deputy L. C. Bagwell cut up a still of 60 gallons capacity and poured out 1,500 gallons of beer on the thirsty earth. The supposed owners were Turner Perry and Bud Self.

Deputy Shelburne reports the seizure and destruction of a 60 gallon still, two worms and 50 gallons of "dew." He spilled 700 gallons of beer. This was owned by J. T. Wright.

The remaining capture was made by deputies Moffit and Causey, who destroyed a 65-gallon still and 500 gallons of beer, the supposed owners of which are Nathan Smith and Sam McCoy.

Funeral of Mr. George B. Moore. The funeral services over the remains of Mr. George B. Moore whose death was necessarily briefly mentioned last Saturday, were held yesterday afternoon from Christ church.

The remains were taken to the residence of his sister, Mrs. M. A. Parker and thence to the church. The entertainment took place in Oakwood cemetery. A large number of friends and relatives of the dead gentleman attended the funeral. Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall conducted the services.

Mrs. George V. Strong, the VISITOR is sorry to learn, is again seriously ill.
