RALEIGH, N. C., MARCH 18 1895

If the new silver party isn't cut off, the people will forget all about it before it gets itself fully organized.

The gradual adjournment of the state legislature tends to increase the feeling of relief and thankfulness that began with the disappearance of congress.

The fact that Alabama is preparing to hold a state convention for the purpose of devising means to attract northern immigration is one of general interest and significance.

The mayors of New York and Brooklyn have decided to give women a share in municipal government by appointments on boards of education, street cleaning departments, and boards of charity and correction.

All attempts to reduce the acreage of cotton in the south are likely to fail for want of general cooperation; and the next best thing to do is to establish more local mills and increase the price of the product by turning it into manufactured goods.

The coldest inhabited spot on the earth is the little town of Verchojansk, in Siberia, which the lowest temperature observed there is 90 degrees below zero. The terrible cold which prevails in eastern Siberia is, fortunately, not accompanied by wind, for otherwise no human being could exist there.

The evidence that is being collected by the commission sent out to investigate the Armenian outrages seems to be corroborating the worst stories that have been told of Turkish brutality, and the complete report is likely to show a condition of things that will warrant the interference of other nations for the protection of a terribly oppressed people.

It is stated that a provisional government had been organized by the revolutionists in Cuba and that Gen.
 Marti has been made provisional president. The revolutionary army as now organized consists of 5000 infantry and 3,000 cavalry. The Cubans are armed with heavy knives and rifles, while the Spanish forces are armed with rifles and swords.

A digest of the last legislative appropriation shows that the increase over 1893 and '94 for the Raleigh asylum is $13,500; for the state hospital $8,000; for the deaf-mute school $21,- 500; for the penitentiary $24,000; for the normal and industrial school $23,- 500; for the agricultural and mechanical college here $23,500; for the colored normal schools $5,000; for the colored orphan asylum $3,000. The decreases are: For the state guard $20,000; for the university $10,000; soldiers' home $20,000; and the appropriations for the colored agricultural and mechanical college, Oxford orphan asylum, deaf, dumb and blind institution here, remain as they were for 1893-'94.

The result of the census investigation of farm mortgages just officially published, shows a large amount of indebtedness in the aggregate; but does not justify the gloomy talk that has been heard from professional agitators and designing politicians.
 There is nothing in it to warrant predictions of approaching agricultural collapse and poverty. Of about four and three-fourths millions of farm families, less than 900,000 were carrying mortgages in 1890, and this number has since been considerably reduced. The farm families owning their lands free of mortgage were 47.32 per cent of the whole number; those subject to mortgages were 18.60 per cent of the whole; and those hiring farms were 34.08 per cent of the whole. This exhibit is certainly not an alarming one.

It is evident that this administration is likely soon to have serious trouble with several foreign nations on account of the recent action of mobs in different parts of the country.
 The purser of a British ship has been shot at New Orleans, and five Italian prisoners have been killed in Colorado.
 Strictly speaking, the federal government has no practical power to protect foreigners in this country, but is obliged to rely upon the states for the fulfillment of its treaty obligations in that behalf. It can not interere to compel proper local action in cases like those now presented. The authority of the state is supreme, and it must be left free to manage such affairs in its own way. But the state is not responsible in any sense to a foreign nation, and can not be reached by any direct process of internal law.
 A foreign nation with a grievance against any state can look only to the federal government for redress, and thus that government is compelled either to assume a liability that does not legitimately belong to it, or to plead in avoidance the doctrine of state rights and thereby laugh the complaining nation to scorn. That is to say, a state may cause a war to ensue by failing to give the protection which has been guaranteed by the United States government.

 known as skin cancer, of thirty years' standing, and found great relief; it purifies the blood and removes all ex-citation from the seat of the disease and prevents any spreading of the sores. I have taken five or six bottles and feel confident that another course will effect a cure. It has also relieved me from indigestion and stomach
