When Easter Comes.

A friend of the Boston Transcript, 'R. M. H." writes: "I was attracted by the suggestion in your paper today to compose a rhyma which would give the reasons of the "movable nature of the Easter feast." The following clever rhymes are added. They should be taught in the primary schoots:

"Thirty days bath September," Every person can remember; But to know when Easter's come Puzzles even scholars some.

"hen March the twent-first is past, ust watch the silvry moon, i . I when you see it full and round, anow Raster'll be here soon.

After the moon has reached its full, Tuen Easter will be here, The very Sunday after. In each and every year,

And if it hap on Sunday The moon should reach its height, The Sauday following this event Will be the Easter bright.

Held Captive Eleven Years.

Assouan, Egypt, March 16 .- Slatin Bey has arrived here, having escaped from the Hahdi's camp, Omburman, Khartoun, after eleven years' captivity. He had made nine previous attempts to get free. Father Ohrwalder and two Sisters of Charity, long prioners at Omdurman, escaped from here on November 29, 1891, and arrived at Cairo December 1.

Soldiers in Havanna.

The military are in evidence at every turn. At the wharf so many soldiers are pacing to and fro, or lounging listlessly about, that gives one the inpression of having landed at a military post, rather than a commercial seaport of 250 000 people. It requires some time to get away from this im pression. Almost every fifth man one meets wears a military dress of some sort; barracks and fortresses are strewn about the city and its outskirts ad libitum, and bands of marching men and the sounds of martial ausic are encountered from morning to night.

"Perhaps you would not think so but a very large proportion of diseases in New York come from care-lessness about catching cold," says Dr. Syrus Edson. "It is such a simple tking and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. New York is one of the healthiest places on the Atlantic Coast and yet there are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Dr. Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold but we will take Chamberlain's Cough remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. Hal Bobbitt.
