A Book Worm

knows more than one usually gives him credit for, and above all things he knows where to buy cheap books. And strange to say, that's one of the few things he didn't learn out of books. Somebody had to tell him. We told several book worms—not only about cheap books, but about writing paper, ink, pens and a few specialties, such as visiting cards and Easter cards. The address of the place is

ALFRED WILLIAMS & CO.

That's no news to you perhaps—a case of "no news is good news."

RALEIGH TO THE FRONT.

The Raleigh branch of the Southern takes pleasure in stating to its 150 members who own $140,000 worth of stock, and to those who want to become members, that she is now ready to receive application for loans with which to build a house, or to pay for one already built. It matters not how much, from $300 to $5,000 or more. Ladies having lots for sale, or who have residences for sale, will do well to call at my office and register same as I now have and expect more applications for same. Real estate bought and sold. Stocks and bonds also. Money loaned on building and loan stock (of any reliable association) as I prefer this to real estate loans. I loaned a party $500, in the Raleigh branch of the Southern. He built him a nice home; only pays us $8.50 per month. He could not rent the same house for this money. Is he paying any rent? No, but he is paying for his house every month and in about 7 years will not owe a cent. Recollect that the Raleigh branch of the Southern proposes to bring into Raleigh $5 for every one paid in. We only charge 6 per cent. interest. No better or safer investment to be had. C. C. McDONALD, Sec'y and Treas. Raleigh Branch, Office with Jones & Powell. ml14 t, s, 6t

THE MARROW.

THAT IS WHAT THIS BOILED STUFF IS TO NEWS.

And It Has the Same Rich Sweetness as Real Marrow.

Another runaway was the attraction on Morgan street this morning.

Two convicts arrived at the penitentiary today from Davidson and Johnson counties.

Cotton came in again today in small lots. But the weather man says that the next day it shall rain.

It is said that the Raleigh cotton mills are soon to be greatly enlarged and improved.

Two colored women, who had raised considerable Cain last evening were tried by mayor Badger this morning and fined $5.25 each.

The Park hotel has gotten out an exceedingly handsome line of writing paper, with a beautiful cut of the hotel on the corner.

Mr. E. D. Bowden has been appointed a commissioner of wrecks for Currituck county, No. 1 district, by the governor.

Wake county is to have a July term of court, for the trial of criminal cases only. The court was created by the legislature near the close of the session.

Many citizens are helping to carry vigorously on the campaign of "Squire" C. B. Root for the democratic nomination for mayor.

There was a fire in the country last evening, the glare from which was readily observed here. The fire was beyond Method and is said to have been a barn burning.

Hon. Thomas A. Jones has accepted his appointment by governor Carr as judge of the new criminal district, composed of Buncombe, Madison and Haywood counties.

Rev. Dr. Creasy, of Charlotte, will assist Rev. J. N. Cole in a series of revival services that will be conducted at Edenton street Methodist church, beginning the fourth Sunday in April.

Messrs. H. F. Smith & Co., are to have the agency for the Sterling wheel. An interesting sight this morning was Judge Womack, 180 pounds, standing on the spoke of a 22 pound wheel, and the spoke wasn't even bent.

Willie Jones is a little colored boy who does not know his age. He is a wicked youngster, though, and yesterday pulled out a pistol and threatened to shoot a playmate named Massey. So today Willie is in jail.

The ladies' auxiliary will give the visiting delegates a handsome reception on Friday evening. The reception committee will meet this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the association rooms.

As yet there seems to be no way of settling the colored Christian church racket. Rev. Rufus Whitaker, described as a "light colored nigger who doesn't look like a preacher," cannot be found.

Old George Mills, who is sitting there in his cell in jail waiting for the death sentence to be passed, and building grotesque air castles while he "studies," is sick. He seems neither to care or think about the future.

The Visitor is requested to state that the conveyance from the Briggs Building and manufacturing company to P. Theim which was filed on the 8th of March was drawn on that day but inadvertently dated February 8th—one month prior thereto.

Passengers who came in from Weldon yesterday afternoon report that the train on which they came had run over a man on the bridge there and injured him, probably fatally. They knew nothing of the accident beyond the fact and could not give the man's name.

Many college students, members of colleges Y. M. C. A's, are booked to arrive here as delegates to the state convention. The University leads in numbers, 23 of that institution having agreed to come. Wake Forest will send 18, Elon College 10, including two young ladies, Davidson 5, Oak Ridge 5, Guilford college 3, Fairview Institute 4.

SHALL WOMEN HOLD OFFICE?

Governor Carr Does Not Think They Can.

Governor Carr today received a very interesting and, for this State, unique letter from a lady of Graham county. The lady's name is Catherine DeVaughan, and her object in writing the Governor was to petition him to appoint her a notary public. The Governor, when he came in receipt of the letter, looked up the matter in the constitution and reached the decision that the lady could not be lawfully appointed. It must have been a hard thing for the gallant Executive to do, but there was that obstinate constitution in the way. So today Major Telfair wrote the lady that it was with the greatest regret that the Governor refused her request, but that in this instance the stern law forbid him to do otherwise.

The Governor decides that the lady is not eligible to office on the ground that article 6 of the constitution expressly forbids women from holding office.

It is supposed that the woman thought that some recently enacted law made her eligible. Such may possibly have been the case, that is a law might have been passed with such intent, but there is old article 6 of the constitution. Graham county people cannot yet have the pleasure of swearing before, though they may still swear by, a woman.

The Clerkship.

The Visitor is daily in receipt of numerous communications suggesting the names of various gentlemen for the position of city clerk. The interest in the election seems to have shifted. Probably the most popular candidate yet out, judging by communications, is Mr. Will Bain. Mr. Dick Burkhead is also prominently mentioned. Go which way it may, if the clerkship falls into the hands of either of these gentlemen, things will be serene. As to communications, the Visitor does not publish anonymous cards or communications. Sign your name and any communication will be published with pleasure.

THOSE "JUDGES."

Messrs Ewart and Cook Preparing For a Fight.

Messrs Ewart and Cook, who were recently elected by the legislature as judges of the new criminal court circuits, and who Gov. Carr denies are lawfully elected, are preparing to bring the question as to whether or not they are entitled to the title of judge to a speedy settlement. The matter at best is a puzzling one, as the constitution of the state may be easily made to prove favorable to the governor or to the newly elected judges.

Mr. Ewart will be represented by T. R. Purnell, Esq., in the legal battle that is sure to come and Cook will be represented by Judge Russell and Col. L. C. Edwards. Mr. Ewart and Mr. Cook are both to go to law in their own counties and bring the matter before the supreme court at the earliest possible date.

The question will be a very interesting one whichever side wins.

TO REX HOSPITAL.

The will of Mr. George B. Moore was filed in the clerk of the court's office today. Mr. E. H. Battle was named as executor and he has not as yet qualified. So the will cannot be seen, until he does so. One interesting clause of the will, however, was learned. That is a bequest of $12,000, to Rex hospital, where he was so kindly cared for during his last illness.

No better object on which to bestow money could have been found, and in years to come many persons will live to thank the kind-hearted man who thought of the hospital when night unto death. This money will prove a boon to the hospital which is not amply supplied with funds. Even if it accomplished nothing more than the placing there of one bed, the good it would do could not well be calculated. But it will do more, far more.

IDLE DAYS

ARE THESE IN THE EARLY PART OF SPRING.

Some of Those Who Shook off Spring Fever and Moved.

Mr. Deane Grimes, of Grimesland, arrived here this morning.

Mr. Robert Rogers, of Durham, arrived here this morning.

Mr. A. H. Michaels, of Durham, arrived in the city this morning.

Maj. John C. Winder left here for Washington today.

Col. W. P. Batchelor left for Louisville this morning.

Mr. H. H. Granger left this afternoon for a visit to Kinston.

Mr. C. H. Richardson is among Raleigh's visiting Darhamites.

Miss Nannie Cannon arrived here on a visit this afternoon.

Mr. Murray Borden, of Goldsboro, arrived here this afternoon.

Mr. George Graham turned up from Hillsboro on the Southern train today.

Mr. George F. Bertrand, a Southern Pines citizen, arrived here this afternoon.

Mr. Thos. J. Shaw, a well-known Greensboro attorney, is here, at the Park hotel.

Mr. W. C. Petty, president of the Carthage railway, and his daughter arrived here at noon today.

Mr. J. G. Farriss, who has been spending a few days in Greensboro, returned home to-day.

Mr. Gaston Meares, a well known Asheville citizen, arrived here this morning.

Col. William Johnston and Mrs. T. R. Robertson, of Charlotte, arrived here this afternoon to visit Col. A. B. Andrews.

Col. F. A. Olds, who has been "cooped up" in the legislature for two months, left for Southport this afternoon, on pleasure bent.

IN BUYING STOCK

One Sometimes Gets too Much—That's the Way With These Fresh Items.

Special United States' gauger T. M. Frazer, of Covington, Ky., is here on revenue business.

Collector Simmons, having been allowed an additional clerk by the government, has appointed a Mr. Mitchell. He will arrive tomorrow and will help to hold down the work in the big office. Applications for the position continue to pour in.

This morning a number of 'cyclists' gathered on Fayetteville street to examine a new wheel, a full nickle-plated Sterling of the latest pattern. The wheel seemed almost to run of its own accord, so perfect was the adjustment. "A plumb beauty" was the general verdict.

One of the clerks of the last legislature has remained over to finish up some of his work. This morning he was in the house of representatives and wished to go to the secretary of state's office. Walking under the big dome confused him and he became "turned round." He went into the offices of the treasurer, the governor and auditor before getting straight. And he is a prohibitionist.
