Somebody had to tell him. We told several book worms-not only about cheap books, but about writing paper, ink, pens and a few specialties, such as visiting cards and Easter cards. ARRINGTON COMMITTEE. We Warrant Every One

But It Took An Hour to Accomplish That Much.

At 12 o'clock today, the hour set for the meeting of the Arrington committee. Attorney general Stronach and Adjutant general Clifton were promptly on hand in the court room. None of the justices were present, however, so court could not begin. Then general Clifton started on a tour of inspection. First he went Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith and to the Yarboro: "Judge Phillips is Miss Zelda Smith left for Smithfield in his room," said the clerk. Up to Phillip's room he went and found the justice asleep and snoring. "Ob Lord! I'm too sick to go," groaned he. At the Park chief Campbell was also found in bed snoring peacefully through his toothless gums. When awakened he promised to go and soop after was on his way, adjusting his eeth as he went.

> When the committee met, a majority of it, no clerk was present. Mr Cowand was asked to officiate in that capacity but on objection of Mr. Byan he was ruled off. Finally clerk Hauser came and Campbell, looking solemnly at the ceiling, proclaimed that this committee "get down to business " Many witnesses were ready and on hand but, as Mrs. Arrington has filed no complaint and the committee did not know what it had to investigate, they were not needed. Then Byran came to the front wishing to abolish the offices of attorney general and adjutant general. This raised a discussion and Phillips was sent for and ousted from bed into the court room. The wrangling continued and the committee finally adjourned, without taking a vote or doing anything, to meet at three o'clock this afternoon. Byran on one occasion said he wanted to protect the treasury of North Carolina. "For my part," said Cherokee, "I've more regard for my own pocket than for a half a dozen treasuries.

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 19, 95. H. W. Bowen, Raleigh, N. C.

DEAR SIR : I arrived this a. m. after a sowewhat tedious trip as the North bound trains were all late. I took lunch and at once repaired to the field of action. My first purchase was a line of Ladies waist, these I have bought in silk, Satteen, Percal, Battice, and several other very stylish and popular fabricks which I am satisfied are the handsomest, most stylish and cheapest line ever brought to Raleigh. My long experience and thorough acquaintance in New York city in this one instance will result in a saving of many dollars both to my self and our customers, as I have bought these goods at figures that cannot be met by competition, without a great loss. I am going to be very careful in the selection of my Dress goods and silks and shall devote at least one week to picking up the very lasest nevelties in these lines 1 am more thoroughly convinced of the ad vantage of making my Northern purchases late this season than ever before, as I have within the last hour had goods offiered to me from 20 to 30 per cent cheaper than the same goods were sold two weeks ago. If you think we will need any more help you had better secure it at once as the values we will offer this spring can't help but attract.

I hope you will have the store in good condition to receive the new stock. I shall expect to hear from you this week.

With kind regards to yourself and all in the store, I am yours truly.

This afternoon a negro man attempted to drive his horse and wagon in front of a street car in front of the Park hotel. The horse balked on the track and the motorman stopped his car just as it struck the horse, in time to prevent damage.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. E. R. Pace, whose death was reported yesterday, were held at the residence this morning. The body was taken to Wake Forest where the interment took place this afternoon.

On the fourth page is a copy of the township collectors bill which was noted yesterday. The wohle bill is full of oversights and very carelessly drawn. It can be easily seen that it will not stand.

A policeman this afternoon carried to jail a mere tot of a colored boy for larceny. The little fellow, who cannot be more than 10 years old and whose name is Richard Hinton, is a professional thief. He has repeatedly been whipped for stealing but that did hands of the above gentlemen as no good, apparently.

Curtis Tates, a white man, was brought here from Apex yesterday evening and jailed for retailing whiskey. He was arrested by officer Idley. "I had rather die than stay in jail ten minutes," said he. He slept there all night though and this morning was taken out, tried by commissioner Royster and committed again.

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Bob Johnson, the jolly colored man who for eighteen years has been Dr. McKee's faithful carriage driver, died of pneumonia, after a long illness. His funeral will held be tomorrow afternoon. Bob's familiar figure will be missed greatly.
