knows more than one usually gives him credit for, and above all things he knows where to buy cheap books. And strange to say, that's one of the few things he didn't learn out of books. Somebody had to tell him. We told several book worms—not only about cheap books, but about writing paper, ink, pens and a few specialties, such as visiting cards and Easter cards. Cosmopolitan Hotel

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 19, '95.
H. W. BOWEN, Raleigh, N. C.
DEAR SIR: I arrived this a. m. after a somewhat tedious trip as the North bound trains were all late. I took lunch and at once repaired to the field of action. My first purchase was a line of Ladies waists, these I have bought in silk, Satteen, Perce, Battie, and several other very stylish and popular fabrics which I am satisfied are the handsomest, most stylish and cheapest line ever brought to Raleigh. My long experience and thorough acquaintance in New York city in this instance will result in a saving of many dollars both to myself and our customers, as I have bought these goods at figures that cannot be met by competition, without a great loss. I am going to be very careful in the selection of my Dress goods and silks and shall devote at least one week to picking up the very latest novelties in these lines. I am more thoroughly convinced of the advantage of making my Northern purchases late this season than ever before, as I have within the last hour had goods offered to me from 20 to 30 per cent cheaper than the same goods were sold two weeks ago. If you think we will need any more help you had better secure it at once as the values we will offer this spring can't help but attract.
I hope you will have the store in good condition to receive the new stock. I shall expect to hear from you this week.
With kind regards to yourself and all in the store, I am yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL

BY WARD MEETINGS.

RALEIGH EX COM. AND "ALL GOOD DEMOCRATS" MEET

Ward Meetings and Minority Representation are Wanted.

Last evening in the Mayor's office the democratic executive committee met to discuss the coming city election and to talk over the question as to how the nominees of that party for city officers are to be selected. All and any good democrats were admitted to the meeting and allowed to state and discuss their views. Chairman of the executive committee L. S. Ellison presided. There were, of the committee and outsiders about twenty five democratic workers present.

Several plans for the nomination of city officers were proposed and discussed at some length. One of these was to have a primary democratic election, with one box, which was to be kept open fifteen hours, to receive the votes and that the candidates having a plurality to be declared the nominees. This plan was greatly favored by some present but it was finally decided, by a vote of 8 to 7, to hold ward meetings and to afterward have a nominating convention. The delegates to the convention are to be instructed to vote on the first ballot in accordance with the votes cast for candidates, this giving each and every one representation. The objection urged against this plan was that people would not attend the ward meetings.

The meeting was not a decisive one, its action being merely a "recommendation" to the executive committee, which is soon to meet. The committee will doubtless arrange matters as the meeting "recommended." The gentlemen present were representative business men, and men in whose hands the chances of the democratic party will suffer no set-back.

An amusing incident was the fact no gentleman present, which the exception of Messrs. Frank Stronach and J. C. Birdsong, could be induced to say that he was not a candidate for some office.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Meeting of the Arrington Committee Last Evening.

The Arrington committee met in chief justice Campbell's room in the Park hotel last evening. Clerk Hanser didn't turn up, so C. Tom Bailey acted in that capacity. Chief justice Campbell, who had probably taken offense, if such a thing is possible, at the motion of Phillips at the afternoon session to make Bryan chairman, asked that justice to the chair. He and Phillips both agreed on this so Mr. Bryan is now chief justice.

Several sets of resolutions were adopted, the first being:

RESOLVED 1st, That this committee require of Mrs. Arrington to put her complaint in writing duly verified on oath, wherein she shall state what she wants investigated, the names of the persons against whom she makes charge, and the charges themselves specifically stated, and that she submit this writing so verified to the acting chairman, and it is so ordered by the committee.

On motion of Phillips, it was resolved that the contract signed by A. A. Campbell, as chairman, employing Alex Stronach, Esq., as advisory council, and W. C. Clifton as marshal, and Mr. Coward as assistant clerk, is invalid.

RESOLVED 3rd, That all witnesses in attendance upon the committee are hereby discharged, subject to the call of acting chairman.

RESOLVED 4th, That this committee do now adjourn subject to the call of the said acting chairman and one other member.

A FIGHT.

No Damage Done, Though Mr. Dockery Had "Blood in His Eye.

Last evening Mr. A. V. Dockery, of this city and a gentleman from Wilmington became involved in a heated discussion that finally led to blows. The fight waged hot and furious and Mr. Dockery drew a pistol. He did no shooting but wielded the weapon as a club, striking the Wilmington man a heavy blow on the head with the bat.

Bystanders parted the fighters and quiet reigned again in the hotel. Neither gentleman was injured, although each was bruised. The fight was caused by Mr. Dockery calling the Wilmington man a liar.

On to Southern Pines.

DELEGATES ARE HERE.

STATE Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION OPENS BRIGHTLY.

Convention Work and Notes—Yesterday and Today.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the delegates to the Y. M. C. A. state convention had arrived. They came in all day yesterday on every train and a finer looking, more vigorous body of representative young men it would be impossible to find in any state in the Union.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the convention was called to order by state secretary Coulter, and Rev. J. W. W. Lee, of Greensboro, offered prayer. W. J. Ramsey, of Trinity College, led the song service and Mrs. W. H. Dodd presided at the organ. The address of W. T. Spangh, of Winston, was postponed.

Rev. R. W. Oakes, of Faicon, conducted a Bible reading on "preparation for service."

The first important meeting of the convention was held at 8:30 o'clock last evening in the Baptist church. The meeting was opened by a song service, after which Rev. Tuttle delivered an address of welcome to the delegates. He said that hospitality was a divine edict, but that it was always a pleasurable and profitable task. He warmly extended to the visiting delegates the hospitality of Raleigh and the Raleigh association.

Secretary Coulter introduced G. G. Stephens, of the State University, to respond to the address of welcome. Mr. Stephens said "business men have laid aside their affairs, college men laid aside their books to come to this convention and we expect to enjoy the occasion doubly on account of the warm Christian welcome you have given us. We will carry away the most pleasant recollections of the good and hospitable people of the city of Raleigh."

Rev. Dr. Pritchard was then introduced.

Dr. Pritchard: "For thirteen years I occupied the pulpit of this church: the most successful ministry of my life. But I am still young. My wife says my beard is white and my hair is black, because I use my jaws more than my head.

We talk about the Christian religion as if it were a preparation for eternity. I believe it is to live by. If I can live right, then eternity may take care of itself. I believe we should do all the good we can and go through the world with a joyous smile upon faces.

"Whenever I get so old that I don't admire a good bird dog, a fine horse or a pretty woman, I want to die."

Mr. Coulter then introduced Prof. W. W. Smith, LL D., who he said, had been intimately connected with the Y. M. C. A. work in his state, and was now the president of four colleges.

Dr. Smith said Virginia and North Carolina have been linked together in all their history; and that bond was welded by the war. "I followed the same standard your soldiers followed," he said, "for four long years. I have stood side by side with Hoke's Brigade on many a hard fought field. And I learned to love them there."

He made an especial appeal to college men, saying they were the picked men who had the privilege of standing in the front of the fight.

The speaker closed his address with a stirring appeal for a higher manhood, and for the Y. M. C. A. as one of the agencies for the uplifting of mankind. Dr. Smith's address was one of the most elegant and forcible addresses of the kind ever heard here. Dr. Pritchard, on behalf of the young men, thanked Dr. Smith for the superb address to which they had listened.

Secretary Coulter announced as the committee on nominations, Prof Harding, of Davidson college; T. S. Sprinkle, J. T. Pallen, J. W. Calder, Farlowe, of Guilford college; and C. P. Wharton. The convention then adjourned.

At the meeting this morning the following organization was effected. W. S. Primrose, Raleigh, President; T. S. Sprinkle, Winston, first Vice President; J. E. Brown, Davidson college, Secretary; G. G. Stephens, University, second Vice President. Instructive and interesting exercises were held and good talks made by J. E. Brown, T. L. Mearns, Rev. J. W. Lee and T. S. Brockman.

At the afternoon session a well put talk was heard from Prof. Haveland, of Guilford college, and a general conversational discussion indulged in. The ladies tender the delegates a reception this evening.

NO STONE UNTURNED.

Mr. Harris says the chickens found in Ben Hummer's possession are not his.

The March term of Wake superior court begins here next Monday at 10 o'clock.

The examinations that have been in progress at the A. & M college closed today. The spring term begins next Tuesday.

The meeting for organizing a county temperance association will meet at 12 o'clock sharp at the Y. M. C. A. building.

A colored woman, Liddie Chambley, who was drunk on the streets last evening, was fined $10 by mayor Badger this morning.

Rev. Phillips, worn out completely by his arduous duties on the Arrington judiciary, returned to his home in Greenville to recuperate today.

Among the prominent men present as Y. M. C. A. delegates, is noted Mr. H. P. Anderson, of Richmond, secretary of the International Y. M. C. A.

The witnesses, who were summoned here by the Arrington judiciary, are a disgusted lot. They have lost three day's here, have received no pay, and have had absolutely nothing to testify to.

The big shaft of the confederate monument is being laboriously drawn up the street towards the monument by means of pulleys. It will reach its destination this afternoon, probably, and be put in place tomorrow.

The mayor's court this morning, filled as it was to overflowing with a varied crowd, composed of people of all ages, sex and colors, crowded together in a steaming, curious mass, reminded one of criminal court on the day of a murder trial.

The governor has ordered a special term of Davidson county court, to convene the first Monday in July, for the trial of criminal cases only. This term is called especially for the trial of Baxter Shemwell for the killing of Dr. Payne at Lexington. Judge E. T. Boykin will preside.

Gov. Carr today paid W. H. Deaver the reward of $100 offered for the arrest and conviction of the murderers of Mr. James Brown. The murderers were convicted and are now both serving their time in penitentiary. They are T. Cram and Edward Posey.

Last evening at 9 o'clock "Squire" Barber officiated as knot tier for two Raleigh people who had pledged their troth. The young people were Mr. Frank W. Johnson and Miss Minnie Doolittle, well known and popular. The marriage ceremony was performed at the bride's residence on West Davis street.

Deputy collector Troy has another "moonshine" tale to tell. He writes of the capture of a queer distillery. It was made of planks, 20 by 24 inches long. The box thus made was 3 feet deep. The bottom of the still was made of sheet iron and the cap, worm, &c., were all home-made.

There was a real little strike here yesterday. About a dozen linemen employed by the Raleigh Electric company struck for higher wages and a half day of work. They went back to work, having got what they struck for. Q. D. Boushall, who it is alleged instigated the strike, was discharged by manager Keeler.

Mr. W. J. Max, superintendent of Middletown, N. Y. Gas Electric Light company, says that the Welsbach lamp has regained the company many of its old and largest consumers, and the output for the past twelve months shows an increase of 18 per cent. over the previous year. The company has placed 825 Welsbachs, which replaced 475 incandescent electric lamps and 75 oil lamps. The consumers of oil who have gone over to gas concede that the Welsbach burner gives them a better light at a less cost than that formerly obtained from oil, cost of the latter and chimney renewals being given due consideration.
