COULD NOT FACE DEBT.
 Tried to End His Life on Account of Financial Trouble.

WATERBURY, Ct., March 24.—Dr.
 George C. Gay, 36 years old, a well known physician, killed himself this afternoon on account, as believed, of financial troubles. He returned from New York early in the day and tried to shoot himself, but his wife prevented him.

He ran out to the barn and she followed. The doctor aimed at his temple but she threw up his hand. Then he aimed at his heart and fired, falling face downward in the hay. After calling help his wife grabbed the revolver and threatened to shoot persons flocking into the barn, but neighbors took the pistol from her, whereupon she fainted.

A suit for debt was recently brought against the doctor, but it is thought that failure to raise the money caused despondency.

Horse Thieves Cremated.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 24.—Two men stole 30 horses in Choctaw nation, from a stockman named Coulter. He organized a posse and gave pursuit.
 A running fight ensued, the thieves firing at their pursuers from behind trees and bushes, and the latter sending a shower of bullets after the fugitives as they ran from one hiding place to another. One of the posse was mortally wounded, his arm being shattered by a bullet.

The thieves made their last rally in a piece of timber near an abandoned house, and for a time held the posse at bay. They abandoned their horses and made the fight on foot, driving back their pursuers some distance.

The latter, however, speedily rallied and the robbers were forced to take refuge in the house, where they barricaded themselves and refused to surrender, saying they preferred being shot in their tracks rather than lynching. After repeated efforts to induce them to come out, some of the posse set fire to the house.

The building was old and partly of log and partly of log frame, and burned like tinder. Even when the roof began to give way, the two men inside refused to give themselves up, stubbornly insisting that they would die rather than surrender. Suddenly the roof caved in, the burning rafters falling on the imprisoned men and pinning them to the earth. Before they could be extricated from the burning mass they were cremated.

 known as skin cancer, of thirty years' standing, and found great relief; it purifies the blood and removes all ir-and prevents any spreading of the sores. I have taken five or six bottles and feel confident that another course will effect a cure. It has also relieved me from indigestion and stomach
