

SUPERIOR COURT.

Very of Little Interest Was Accomplished Today.

Superior criminal court of Wake county convened in the court house today, Judge Starbuck presiding. The morning session was almost entirely taken up by the judge's charge to the jury which was rather long but a strong and creditable one. Very little was accomplished during the entire day. The docket to be disposed of is light and unimportant. Here is a summary of what was done:

State vs Robert Jones, larceny, 4 months on the public roads.

State vs Richard Lassiter, bastardy, guilty. Judgment reserved.

State vs Henry Smith, assault with a deadly weapon, not guilty. The woman who prosecuted him was taxed with the costs.

The case of J. W. Allen, the countryman, who, as reported in the Visitor at the time, disposed of mortgaged property on account of a mistake in accounts, came up. Allen pleaded guilty but on motion of acting solicitor James H. Potts, judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

ONLY A DELUDED BRIDE.

Miss Grainer, of New York, the Wife of a Bigamist.

St. Augustine, Fla., March 19.—Miss Margaret Grainer, of New York, Tuesday night became, as she believed, the bride of Edward Fizer. She learned late yesterday afternoon that Fizer had a wife, and she is going back to her northern home. Fizer came here from Clintonville, Ill., at the opening of the tourist season, with a handsome young woman of that place, whom he had just married.

He said nothing of his wife, and developments show that he took rooms for her in an out-of-the-way quarter and never appeared with her in public.

Miss Grainer was spending the winter here, and Fizer began to pay attentions to her. He urged her to marry him, and last Tuesday night induced her to accompany him to the residence of the Rev. Mr. MacGonigle, where they were married. Mrs. Fizer No. 1 had her suspicions aroused, and yesterday went to Fizer's office. There she found her husband and his latest wife embracing one another. As soon as Fizer saw wife No. 1 he left the office.

Wife No. 1 asked wife No. 2 what she meant by stealing her husband. Explanations followed. When Fizer fled he secured a horse and came to Jacksonville, where he was arrested and brought back to St. Augustine, and jailed on a charge of horse thief and bigamy.

Mrs. Fizer No. 1 is determined to return to her parents in Collinsville, Ill. Both women refuse to prosecute the man who wrecked their lives, but the state will see that he is punished.

An amusing incident occurred in the court room this afternoon. A jury was being called. "Rawls", called clerk Mays. A man answered and went into the box. Then it was discovered that he was not Rawls, but Ross. He was ousted from the box and when the Vigoron reporter left the court room, Mr. Kinion Jones was looking anxiously under a bench for the missing Rawls.

When the academy of music is thrown open next Wednesday evening for the production of the play, the "Fast Mail," it will be brilliantly lighted, not with gas, but with shining, incandescent electric lamps. The connections and machinery were put in shape last Saturday.

CAMPAIGN BY WOMEN.

CINCINNATI, March 22.—Norwood is a fashionable suburb and the women are running two of their number for members of the school board. It is the first women's ticket ever nominated in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Helen H. Stevens and Mrs. Jessie A. Jewell, the candidates, opened their campaign last night. Every voter was asked to come. There were flowers and music and a fine supper. The ladies spoke and pleaded their cause.

The women at the meeting applauded as vigorously as any men at a political meeting. It was the most unique political affair in years.
