A Book Worm

knows more than one usually gives him credit for, and above all things he knows where to buy cheap books. And strange to say, that's one of the few things he didn't learn out of books. Somebody had to tell him. We told several book worms—not only about cheap books, but about writing paper, ink, pens and a few specialties, such as visiting cards and Easter cards. The address of the place is

DEATH OF MRS. T. A. BOWEN.

Pneumonia Carries Away a Lovable Woman.

Early this morning Mrs. T. A. Bowen, wife of Mr. T. A. Bowen who is well known as one of Wake county's most prosperous and respected farmers, died at her home west of Raleigh, of pneumonia, which was brought on by grip. The funeral services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon from Central M. E. church by Rev. D. H. Tuttle.

Mrs. Bowen was a most lovable woman, and, although living in the country, she had many friends here who will be deeply pained to hear of her sad death. She was the mother of Mr. Fin Bowen, of the agricultural department. Besides him and a loving husband, she leaves several other children to mourn the loss of that best of all gifts, a good mother. She was a noble christian character and had long been a member of the church from which the funeral will be held tomorrow.

The Marine Band.

The United States marine band is now making a tour of the Southern states by special official permission of the president and secretary of the navy. The marine band, which is composed of 50 musicians, is acknowledged to be without peer among musical organizations in this country. Prof. Fanciulli is a thorough musician in every respect, a composer who stands without peer, and a director of high ability. This is the first southern tour since the band was organized.

Two grand concerts will be given at the academy of music on Friday, the 29th of March. The band is assisted by Miss Carrie Roma, prima donna; Mr. Louis Cebecke, trombone, Frank Thompson, cornet; and Mr. Henry Jager flute soloist.

GUILTY THREE TIMES.

CHARLES ROGERS HAS AN AWFUL CRAVING FOR "FOWLS."

A Summary of Other Court Doings, up to Date.

In the superior court this morning the most exciting incident was the trial of Charles Rogers, a colored man, who seems to have an overpowering regard for fried chicken. That gentleman was arraigned on account of having taken property belonging to other people. The property consisted of chickens and Charles was convicted. No sooner done than the same gentleman was arraigned again for the same offense; again he was found guilty and again he was arraigned on a similar charge. Sentence was not passed upon him but when it is, it will doubtless be a heavy one.

The case of Ed. Barham and Manda Beach, who, as told in the Visitor at the time, are charged with killing and then burning their infant, was expected to come up but was not reached.

State vs Sallie Atkins, l. and r., guilty, 4 months in work house.

State vs Joe McCormick, l. and r., guilty, 12 months on the roads.

The case of Will Jones, for carrying concealed weapons, was decided by a verdict of guilty but, on account of the offender's youth, judgment was suspended. Willie is the little, black negro about the size of a man's fist, who tried to shoot a playmate.

State vs John Ward l. and r., guilty, 4 months on roads.

Solicitor Ed. Pou was back again, prosecuting with renewed vigor.

CALL OFF THE NAMES.

These are Put Down as They Come to the Top.

Attorney general Frank Osburn left the city this morning.

Mrs. W. H. Hood is very ill at her home on Martin street.

Messrs. William and James Hickson, of Apex, are here today.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Tuck, of Selma, are in the city at the Yarbors.

Judge and Mrs. E. W. Timberlake, of Louisburg, arrived here this morning.

Mr. T. J. Hubbard is confined to his home on Hillsboro road by sickness.

Mr. J. T. Harris, a prominent Winston manufacturer, arrived here this morning.

Mr. G. E. Leach, of High Point, arrived here today to be with his brother, Mr. M. T. Leach, who is quite sick.

Mr. J. B. Massamore left this morning for Mouere, where he will remain for some time. He says he hopes his stay away from Raleigh will be only temporary and he has many friends here to hope with him that such may be the case.

AN ALDERMANIC TICKET.

It is a Strong One and Will Be Vigorously Pushed.

The following ticket has been elected by a number of democratic workers as aldermen for the four different wards. They showed judgment in selecting it, as the men named are good, substantial business men and men who as aldermen, would do nothing that is not for the best interests of their city. Their friends propose to push this ticket in the democratic primaries for all it is worth, and they are right in saying that it is worth a good deal. Here it is:

First ward: Jno. W. Horton, Robt. Simpson, Chas. E. Johnson.

Second ward: Thomas S. Stevenson, J. C. Drewry, C. C. McDonald.

Third ward: J. M. Norwood, F. W. Hunicutt, Ed. V. Denton.

Fourth ward: C. B. Edwards, J. A. Mills.

Voting Place Changed.

The voting place for the second ward has been changed from Horton's store to the vacant store in front of Evans & Martin's and Jordan's blacksmith shop, corner of Blount and Martin streets. Registration books will be opened there March 30, at 9 a. m.

ANOTHER ASSIGNMENT.

John R. Ferrell, Grocer, Assigns—No Preferences.

Early this morning Mr. John R. Ferrell, who keeps a grocery on Wilmington street, filed a deed of assignment, to A. W. Haywood, Esq. Under the new assignment law no preferences could be made.

The conveyance, with the usual exemption, is as follows: First, a tract of land in Little River township of 96 acres; second, a tract of 9 acres; third, a tract of 2 acres; fourth, a tract of 22 acres; fifth, a tract of 22 acres; sixth, a tract of 38 acres; seventh, a tract of 100 acres.

Also all the goods, wares, stock etc. in the grocery store on Wilmington street. The just and reasonable expenses of administration are first to be paid and then all debts of the firm.

It is understood from Mr. Haywood that the assignment is by no means a bad one, the liabilities being small and the assets will be ample to "pay out."

The Visitor regrets to learn of this assignment, which was caused by "hard times," slow sales and difficult collections. The liabilities are small but are as yet not known, exactly. There is no more honest and upright citizen in the community than Mr. Ferrell, and in his financial misfortunes he will have the sympathy of the entire community.

MULES RUN AWAY.

Had it Not Been For This Fact the Engine Would Not Have Gone Through.

Some days ago the owner of a big thrashing engine was hauling it from the other side of Crabtree to a farm on the city side of that stream. When he came to the bridge, however, he found that the boiler of his engine was just about five inches too high to permit of its passage through. So he turned his mules about and tried another road. Again he was disappointed, for the road was so soft that no progress could be made. Again he determined to take a look at the bridge. When within about two hundred yards of the bridge, a dog ran from the roadside, barked and frightened the mules, so they ran away. Straight for the bridge. They went at break neck speed, the driver thinking the engine and carriage would be overturned when it struck, crouched fearfully in his seat. Then he felt two or three jars, heard a rapid bumping and crashing and the engine and mules were through the bridge. An examination showed the engine and boiler both intact. In the bridge way the cross beam, from end to end had been broken by the top of the boiler smashing against them. The mules running away was the fact that caused the gentleman that afternoon to have his machine at work this side the "crick."

A TRI CORNERED AFFAIR.

Three Deputies Make a Raid and Get Three Stills.

Yesterday morning deputies Wiley Jones, J. A. Thomas and deputy marshal Col. Lon. Stephenson, the flower of the revenue service, left here in buggies and drove off into the wilds of Granville county in search of moonshine stills; last night these three gallant officers returned each wearing in his belt a moonshine scalp.

They had been informed of the location of four different blockade establishments and expected to capture that number of stills, but one of the 'shiners was just a little too "cute." He heard the deputies coming while yet afar off and putting his still on his back removed it to a place of safety ere the officers of the law arrived on the scene. But the other three stills fell into the hands of the deputies, as did the outfit of the establishment that had been removed, for the owner had time only to get away with his distillery. At each still a complete outfit and about a thousand gallons of beer were seized and destroyed. And today there is wailing and gnashing of teeth among Granville county "Coppers."

"It is the best coffee I've used since the war," is what a farmer remarked in speaking of the "Oriole" brand, comes in lib packages. m36 244

CLEAN CUT BRIEFS.

POINTS, OF LOCAL NEWS, NOT LAW, AND OF MUCH INTEREST.

What Was Said and Done in Raleigh Today.

Still another stone was put in place on the monument today.

Several "tickets" for aldermen of the various wards have been made out by the "heelers" of city politics.

Farmers have had an opportunity to do a little ploughing the past few days for the first time in several weeks.

The Raleigh sinner now has ample opportunity to reflect. Revivals are going on in no less than four different churches.

The change of office of the telephone exchange was accomplished without a moment's delay of the operation of the line.

Solicitor Ed. Pou, whose illness was noted a few days ago, has recovered sufficiently to be at his post again, the Visitor is glad to see.

Cotton came in by the hundred bales today. The market still holds very firm—that is for the cotton market since the slump over three years ago.

Mrs. S. O. B. Robinson, wife of judge Robinson, of Goldsboro, gave an elegant reception there last evening, Dughi, as usual, furnished refreshments.

Representative Ethridge, of Davidson county, who has been ill since before the adjournment of the legislature, and who was much improved a week ago, is now worse.

"They've just sawed me off at the knees," said a real estate man this morning in regard to the new law to regulate assignments. "But I can starve for two years as well as the farmer."

The chicken thief Ben Plummer, played to a full house in the court room this morning; or rather the court played with Ben while the full house laughed. He will chicken grab no more for some time.

"Sanctification—what it is and what it is not," will be the subject of the sermon by Rev. E. W. Oakes, at the Baptist Tabernacle tonight. The meetings in progress have been of the highest interest to christians.

A special train will be tomorrow run here from Louisburg to bring down people who wish to hear the Marine band concert to be given tomorrow afternoon and evening. About 50 reserved seats have been sold for the concerts at that place.

Early this morning Mrs. T. A. Bowen died at the home of her husband west of Raleigh. The cause of death was pneumonia, brought on by lagrippe. She was a lovable Christian woman. She leaves, besides a husband, several children to mourn her loss.

The base ball management of the A. & M. College, has arranged a good schedule of games for the coming season. Some of them will be played here. The first game is with Guilford College on the 12th of April. It will be played in Greensboro.

Yesterday Mr. Jordan, the manager of the Raleigh base ball club, received a challenge from Portsmouth from the Dallas base ball professional team. Of course the challenge was accepted. The game will be played here at Athletic park, and it remains with Raleigh people to say whether or not there shall be more good games played here.

Health officer Sales says that the report for March will show the city to be in a very healthful condition. Despite the fact that there will be more deaths reported for the month than March, 1894, the city's health is better. This is because the greater number of people who have died here this month have died of constitutional causes, and many of old age.

We have a full supply of quick-silver, furniture polish and bed bug poison which you will need for spring house-cleaning.
