A Book Worm

knows more than one usually gives him credit for, and above all things he knows where to buy cheap books. And strange to say, that's one of the few things he didn't learn out of books. Somebody had to tell him. We told several book worms—not only about cheap books, but about writing paper, ink, pens and a few specialties, such as visiting cards and Easter cards. SPRING CAMPAIGN OPENS.

A SEIGE OF GENEREROUS RIVALRY.

The Battle is on, the Knife is Out and We are "In" for the War.

FOR THIS WEEK:

Ten per cent off of the price of all Spring Woolen Goods. Your first chance at such low prices.

This Clearing Out sale presents a fine opportunity to lean pocket books, while shrewd investors do "fairly well" during this bargain sale.

OUR GREAT LEADERS.

N. C. Plaids, Dress Gingham, Apron Checks, White Fiques, Check Muslins, Standard Prints are sold for 50c a yard and is the talk of the town. The quality seems too much for the price. Bleach and Brown Domestic at about cost.

DAINTIES FOR SUMMER

are the immaculate White Goods of this season—Plain, fancy figured, bars, stripes, dots and hair lines. In Swiss, Dimities, Nainsooks, Lawns, &c., Embroideries, Laces and Feather Braids.

Our huyer, ripe with experience, now in New York picking up bargains, enables us to make prices discomfiting to our competitors and unknown to "other days." Surely dry goods were never so cheap as at the present time.

SOUTH RALEIGH DEVELOPING

The Mills Wagon Factory and the Farina Flouring Mills.

A busy part of the city these days is that where the wagon factory and the flouring mills are being put in shape for big work. The company has put in its new saw mill plant. In this is a battery of three boilers. These furnish steam for the wagon factory, saw mill and flouring mill. These boilers are now being cased in. The flouring mill is completed. It is a brightly painted and attractive building, and fronts on the Southern railway, which runs by it. The mill is of wood, and 3 stories high. Its equipment is to be of the very best.

MERCURIAL HEALTH.

Dr McGee's Little Girl Desperately Ill Last Evening—Well Today.

Last evening the little girl of Dr. James McGee was taken suddenly ill. She became worse and worse and finally went into spasms. Physicians were summoned and all night, into the morning even, the parents and the doctors worked to save the little one's life. Finally the spasms ceased and the child slept.

This morning she was as well as ever, playing in the open air. And there was nothing in the little child's merry language to indicate that she had been "nigh unto death."

The Weather For Tomorrow.

For North Carolina: Fair and warm.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Saturday fair and much warmer.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today. Maximum temperature 78; minimum temperature; 40 rainfall 0.00.

BARHAM ON TRIAL.

THE CHILD BURNING CASE TAKEN UP IN COURT.

Barham Will Probably Go Free—Proved an Alibi.

In the superior court this morning the case of Ed. Barham, charged with performing a criminal operation, came up. The hearing of testimony consumed the entire morning session almost, and when it was finished the general opinion was that the state had failed to make out a case.

Manda Bunch, the woman who is indicted along with Barham and who will likewise be tried at this term of court, was the state's chief witness. She went to pieces badly on cross-examination and seems to be testifying against Barham through spite or to save herself. She said that Barham had brought her a mixture and advised her to take it. She did so. Barham was in her house when the child was born and took it and threw it in the fire. The child was born dead. Bones were found in the fireplace and several witnesses testified to the finding.

Dr. Sexton was called as an expert and testified that he had examined the bones but could not swear that they were human. In fact the doubt was on the other side.

Barham had several witnesses called for the defense and he established a strong alibi.

Solicitor Poy made a short argument at the morning session. He was followed this afternoon by W. B. Snow, Armistead Jones and T. M. Argo, Esqs. All arguments were able efforts.

The case will go to the jury late this afternoon. Barham will be acquitted doubtless.

DISCUSSION OF FINANCE.

A Free Lecture on the Vital Issues of the Day.

Mr. J. A. Collins, of Washington, D. C., is in the city for a few days, and while here will deliver some discourses on the questions of the day. Mr. Collins has been connected with the U. S. census bureau for a number of years, as superintendent of the "wealth and debt" department. On the question of national finance and its bearings he is probably the best posted man in the United States.

On Monday evening, April 1, he will discuss the great civic problem in the mayor's office beginning at 8:30 o'clock. The discussion will be in the light of history and science, and from a purely mathematical and economic point of view, independent of political or party prejudices or theory. Everybody, and especially students of economics, are invited to hear the discussions. If there shall be sufficient interest shown the lectures may be continued for several evenings. There is no admission fee and everybody interested in the great problems of the times will find something of interest in what may be presented.

HAM LONG INSANE.

Placed in the Asylum Today—Was a New Magistrate.

Many people will remember Ham J. Long, who was here during almost the entire term of the legislature. When that body adjourned he returned to his home in Haywood, Chatham county. Today he returned here in charge of a deputy sheriff who had him placed in the insane asylum he having been declared insane.

Mr. Long for many years has been known as a prominent republican politician. He was a large Chatham county farmer and before the war was a man of considerable means. He was a conspicuous character in the late legislature, although not a member. His name is in the list of newly appointed Chatham county magistrates. For years he has been in bad health and the news that he is insane will not be a complete surprise to his friends.

We have a full supply of quick-silver, furniture polish and bed bug poison which you will need for spring house-cleaning.

THAT OUTRAGIOUS ACT.

The Sensation About the Assignment Law Continues.

It is the opinion of able lawyers that it will require at least a month to get a decision of the courts as to the status and legality of the new assignment act. Telegrams and letters are pouring in from various states inquiring if the bill really passed. Ed. Chambers Smith, Esq., says it is the most infamous act passed in 25 years. It is the belief that the bill was stamped through by the clerks. Another assignment bill was discussed in the senate but was killed there by an overwhelming majority, yet it was far less objectionable than this one. Many inquiries are also coming in as to whether the governor will assemble the legislature. The constitution allows pay for not over twenty days at an extra session. The governor is given power to call it, by and with the advice of the council of state, and is required to state the specific purpose which he thinks makes it necessary that the legislature should meet; but if the council's decision is adverse the governor is powerless to have the legislature assemble. The legislature which has just adjourned absolutely ignored the governor's recommendations and he has no reason to think it would do any better at a special session.

The governor was specially interviewed this evening and said: "It is a matter the governor and his council. The latter cannot act save upon the call of the governor, and there seems to be a sentiment among those who came in contact with the last legislature not to have it assemble in the capital city again."

COTTON MARKET BOOMING.

The Report For This Week is a Good One, and the Price Rises.

The activity in the local cotton market the past few days has been truly wonderful, the season considered. The report for this week shows a wonderful increase in receipts over the corresponding week last season. And the best part of the thing is that the prices are firm and on the rise. The price for middling is now 5 3/4 cents. Only a few weeks ago the farmer got only 4 3/4 cents for the same grade of cotton. The rise in the price is directly responsible for the activity of the market; the farmers have been holding back their cotton and now they are taking the tide of prices at the flood, fearing an ebb, and bringing in the staple for sale. Here is the report for this week:

Total number bales received this season to date 32,358; last season 24,905; receipts for the week 419 bales; corresponding week last season 245 bales, stock at platform 345 bales; shipments 725 bales.

AS TO PEOPLE.

Who Came and Went—What They Are Doing.

Mr. J. L. Shell of Winston is in the city today.

Mr. N. H. Branson, of Durham, is here today.

Health officer T. P. Sale returned to the city this morning.

President Will. Bailey, of the Louisville bank, is in the city.

Mr. William B. Howard of Tarboro is in the city, at the Park.

Mrs. T. W. Bell left yesterday for Asheville, to visit her daughter, Mrs. A. Pauli.

C. B. Watson, Esq., one of Winston's foremost lawyers arrived here this morning.

Mr. W. E. Christian, of the News and Observer, who has been taking a well-earned recreation trip, returned today.

Mr. A. F. Page, of Aberdeen, came down to the city this morning. This afternoon he returned, accompanied by several Raleigh friends who will spend tomorrow and Sunday at his pleasant home there.

The condition of Mr. M. T. Leach, whose serious illness was reported yesterday, is greatly improved this morning. An abscess on the side of his throat was out today. His numerous friends will be glad to learn that he will soon be out again.

SPRINGTIME CAROLS.

PEOPLE, THOUGH LISTLESS, TALK AND MAKE NEWS.

Sayings and Doings of This Dreamy Day Briefly Told.

The shaft of the monument will hardly be in place before the end of next week.

There are now 52 county convicts. These are at work on the road near Mahler's vineyard.

Gov. Carr appoints George W. Young clerk of the criminal circuit court for Buncombe county.

Meeting of W. R. Womble Hook and Ladder Co. tonight. Every member urged to be present at 8 o'clock.

Blow, ye trumpets, blow. Read the Visitor's horn on the third page. It has a border around it. IT TELLS THE TRUTH.

A gentleman of color was brought here today from Aberdeen and put in jail. He stole a mule there yesterday.

The committee which is working the town in the interests of the Y. M. C. A. report some, but not entirely gratifying success.

Local sportsmen have turned their attention from quail to snipe, many of which are said to be in the meadows surrounding the city.

With the coming of the new temperance paper to be started here Raleigh will have 21 publications, says a gentleman who keeps up.

The Marine band, fifty strong, arrived on the one o'clock southern train this afternoon. They are a fine looking set of men, and musicians all.

Chief of police Heatt has passed an ordinance to give news to no reporter who visits his sanitarium with cigarette attached. He's right, too.

Today postmaster Busbee issued a notice directing all holders of box keys to return them at once, and also to return all receipts for deposits for keys.

"The moon is holding water" now. Did you notice the beautiful new rim last evening? Farmers are hoping it will be some days before Luna drops her load of rain.

The special train run by the S. A. L. for the purpose of bringing in Louisville lovers of music to hear the Marine band will arrive here at 7 o'clock this evening.

Robert Merritt, a colored boy, was sent here from St. Matthew's township today and jailed for vagrancy. There is something else "behind the scenes" in this case. But that isn't known yet.

Sheriff Page, the Visitor is sorry to state, is again unwell. He left for home this morning. The sheriff was ill the first part of the week but after a day off pluckily resumed his duties. Now he is down again.

The funeral services of Mrs. T. A. Bowen were held this afternoon from the Central M. E. church. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. N. Snelling, E. M. Martin, T. C. Williams, S. W. Walker, W. H. Bunch and J. D. Riggan.

The trial of Manda Bunch and Ed Barham for "concealing child birth," is rather peculiar. The bones of the child were found in the woman's house, in the fireplace. Does it not look as though this way of "concealing birth" calls for some other charge.

Deputy collector Moffit reports to collector Simmons the seizure and destruction of a 45 gallon illicit copper distillery and outfit with 300 gallons beer in Chatham county near Providence post office. The owners, Frank Davis and Joe Harper, were also captured.

A great treat is in store for theatre-goers here, this being the presentation at the academy of music of "Wang," one of the most delightful and noted comic operas. The production will be in fine style and people who are fond of sparkling music and real fun cannot afford to miss "Wang."

For City Clerk.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for city clerk, subject to the action of the democratic primaries to be held on Monday evening, April 8, 1895.
