

EVENING VISITOR.

VOL. XXXII.

RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 1895.

NO. 128

THEY'LL MAKE YOU COLD

A COLD STORAGE COMPANY ORGANIZED TODAY.

Eberhardt, Baker and Baker are the incorporators.

In clerk of the court Young's office this morning was organized a company of the like of which Raleigh has for many years sorely in need. Every one will recognize this fact immediately from the name, "The Refrigerator and Ice Company." The incorporators are Messrs A. L. Baker, T. L. Eberhardt and B. W. Baker. All are enterprising business men and will no doubt make a success of the new company, the capital stock of which is $16,000, paid in. They have "struck the nail on the head."

The purposes of the company will be to manufacture ice and to carry on a first class and well-ordered cold storage business. The Raleigh people feel the sad need of every summer. The equipment will be modern in all respects. Only the latest and most improved machinery, refrigerators and methods will be used.

The visitor is glad to see this much hoped for enterprise started here and hopes for the enterprising men who are at its head nothing but success.

This Committee Meets This Evening

The following committee appointed by the North Carolina monument association will meet at the mayor's office at 8 o'clock this evening. Every member is requested to attend:

J. B. Kenney, chairman soliciting committee:

Thomas Pescoe, G. N. Walters, J. M. Broughton, I. B. Peggam, C. S. Allen, D. M. King, R. H. Bradley, H. M. Cowan, J. R. Terrell, J. R. Ferrall, E. G. Harrell, G. W. Thompson, Alex. Stronach, Jr., E. B. Bain, Graham Haywood, Frank T. Ward, Henry Horton, G. M. Allen, J. P. Wyatt, W. M. Buss, T. B. Ferrill, J. C. Birdsong, T. T. Hay, Wm. Boylan, Jr., J. A. Duncan, J. E. Pogue, R. R. Roney, L. T. Brown, R. E. Lumsden, E. B. Barbee, M. T. Norris, W. A. Hyatt, J. S. Wynne, J. C. Maroon and S. W. Brewer.

We have a full stock of quick-silver, furniture polish and bug poison which you will need for spring house-cleaning.

Hicks & Rogers, Druggists (Successors to Swindell & Co.)

You are not in it with Woolcott's nine cent sale on Thursday.

A BUSINESS QUESTION.

Do you read advertisements in search of beautiful literature, or to see who can make the greatest promises, or to discover where the greatest amount can be obtained for your dollar? If it is the latter we ask your consideration. We do not pose as "authors," nor "bluffers," nor "boasters," but strictly in the business for mutual benefits, and our offerings are bona fide bargains and money savers and that is what you are looking for. Be sure of this, our prices shall be as low here as anywhere else in town. But we do not care to sell one thing less than cost that we may make the difference up on the next purchase our customer may want.

Strong Attractions For Easter Purchasers.

Room at will all through the store, bargains in easy reach of either hand. A very fine line of imported "Model" apes, foreign made, bought especially for our holiday trade.

EASTER WRAPS--

NEW SPRING COLORED DRESS GOODS.—Our new Dress Goods stock is so varied nothing short of a personal inspection will suffice. Space is too limited for an adequate description. About 100 colorings to select from.

BLACK GOODS—Black Wool Fabrics seems to be in greatest demand and we show the "new things" in Crinkles, Boucles, Wide Walls and "Burr" Crepons and an extra grade Storm Serges.

The fashion for Silk Waists is pronounced, and our showing in silk and printed washable waists are distinctively "Up to date."

BOYS' AND MISSES' CAPS—All the craze now for Outings—Popular prices, 25 and 50c. The following are the proper styles: "Topsy," "Trippy," "Victoria," "Cinderella," "Governor" and "Golf"—all ages and both sexes. Our "blossoms" in Neckwear are as varied and rosy as the blossoms of spring. Our stock of Gents' Furnishings is replete with the newest conceits and latest fads. The liveliest trade is NOW on small wares and notions. "Great values" for "small prices" make it so.

NO SPRING SONNETS

Are Sprung Here but People, Without That "Tired Feeling."

Hon. H. G. Ewart was here last night.

Mr. Alfred Jones, the oil dealer, is quite sick.

Mr. J. A. Brookshire, of Asheville, is in the city.

Mrs. A. A. Klotz, of Chapel Hill, is at the Yarboro.

Mr. J. M. Leach, of Pittsboro, is visiting Raleigh today.

Chairman Jas. H. Pou returned to Smithfield this afternoon.

Mr. John Morehead, of Durham, is in the city today, at the Yarboro.

Messrs. A. T. Dalton and J. J. Cox, two High Point citizens, arrived here today.

Messrs. A. T. Cooper and L. T. Galloway, of Brevard, are in the city today.

Mr. Walter Lassister and J. C. Hendley, two citizens of Oxford, arrived here this morning.

Mr. register of deeds Rogers returned this morning from a pleasure trip of recuperation.

Congressman Thomas Settle is here, and is copying some records in the office of the secretary of state.

The Weather For Tomorrow.

For North Carolina: Fair, cooler to eastern portion tonight.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Cooler tonight. Fair, warmer Thursday.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today. Maximum temperature 63; minimum temperature 47; rainfall trace.

No Earthly Need.

There is no need of your wasting money. Buy your dry goods from Swindell's, not for friendship or favor, but because it is to your interest. Those who expect you to trade with them because of friendship expect to use you. Such men are a dead failure in the mercantile race, as all past records show. We expect to give you more good value for your money than any other place can or will.

Merit merit! We have no past failures to record to solicit your sympathy, for sympathy is something we do not want. We have succeeded and it is merit. We shall move to Norfolk at the expiration of this year and will give you many bargains out of reach of other merchants. Therefore, don't waste money but come to D. T. Swindell's.

Who said "Woolcott's nine cent sale" wasn't on Thursday?

Woolcott's nine cent sale Thursday.

AN ELEGANT BANQUET

GIVEN TO THE 'MEN WHO DID THE WORK'

A Number of Good Speeches and Much Good Cheer.

Last evening seventy-five persons sat down at a banquet in the handsome dining room of the Yarboro. It was given by some of the state officers and other prominent men here and there. W. E. Ashley, president of the chamber of commerce, presided. Secretary of state Coke made the opening speech, in behalf of the monument association, and on its behalf thanked those who did the work. He also eulogized the ladies for the great efforts they had made to secure the erection of this monument. The reply was by Mr. Coonan, the foreman in charge of the work. He declared the monument to be the finest of all the Muldoon company had put up in the south.

Other speeches were made by Messrs. S. McD. Tate, S. A. Ashe, Spier Whitaker, T. P. Devereux, C. F. Lumsden, E. J. Hale, H. A. London, D. M. King and Maj. Hayes, U. S. A. The banquet ended at midnight.

SHALL RAILROAD BE TAXED?

Case of the North Carolina Railroad Heard at Greensboro.

This afternoon Messrs. R. H. Battle and A. W. Haywood returned from Greensboro where they yesterday appeared in the case of the state against the North Carolina railroad. This road has formerly been exempted from taxation but by a recent law it is made liable. The case yesterday, which was argued before special master in chancery Douglass in the federal court, was whether depots, etc., of the railroad should be taxed. It is of course to the governor's interest to contend for taxation.

Mr. Manning, of Durham, appeared for the state, against Messrs. Battle and Haywood. The argument was excellent and fully worthy of the eminent counsel who delivered it. The case is not as yet decided.

ALLEGED INCENDIARIES

In Jail at Lillington But May be Brought Here.

A few nights ago the store of Mr. Bob Rollins, near Chalk Level, Harnett county, was entered, plundered and set on fire and it and its contents destroyed. Suspicion fell on two men named Johnson and Driver, who live near there. They were arrested and are in jail at Lillington. Not long ago the tobacco barn of Mr. Phillips of Holly Springs was burned, after some tobacco in boxes therein had been stolen. Phillips had the houses of Driver and Johnson searched and the stolen tobacco was found. Now he wants these men transferred to Wake jail, as it is said Harnett jail is not a strong one.

Wilfred Clarke in a Widow Hunt.

"A Widow Hunt," the play in which Mr. Wilfred Clarke, the eminent American comedian will be seen here tomorrow evening is well known. It was first called "everybody's friend," but was re-written and the title changed to "A Widow Hunt" for John Sleeper Clarke, father of the present actor. In no other comedy has Mr. Clarke achieved so much success. He has an excellent company.

Memorial Day.

Mr. J. B. Hill accepts the invitation of the ladies' memorial association to be the chief marshal memorial day, May 10. Rev. Jno. N. Cole will be the chaplain of the session.

Be sure to ask your grocer for the celebrated "Leverings" E. C. L. coffee and take no other. It is the best, goes further and makes a delightful drink.

"It's the best coffee I've used since the war," is what a farmer remarked in speaking of the "Oriole" brand, comes in 1 lb packages. ma26 24t

N. C. corned herrings in the barrel at D. Bell & Co's. Stall No. 12 city market.

I'll bet you can't guess what Woolcott is going to sell at the nine cent sale on Thursday.

Never heard of a nine cent sale before, but Woolcott's going to have one Thursday.

NO LEVITY HERE.

The Plain, Hard Facts of Raleigh's Doings, Tersely Told.

J. M. Broughton today qualified as a notary public.

Neuse river is today higher than in many years.

Today the work of taking down the derrick at the monument began.

It is alleged that the tax on druggists under the new revenue act will amount to 6 per cent.

Seven convicts arrived at the penitentiary today; one from Chowan, five from Transylvania and one from Buncombe.

There was a report today and last night that the iron bridge across the Neuse at Miltourie had been wrecked by the flood. It is not true.

Mr. Thos. C. Denson succeeds Mr. Armistead Coward as leader of the Carolina cotillon club, and Mr. W. W. Vass, Jr., becomes a member of the governing committee.

Miss Matilda Coffin, of Detroit, Michigan, one of the best known teachers in the country, is to be in charge of the summer primary school at the state university.

The meeting at Caraleigh mills, conducted by Rev. A. B. Hunter, assisted by Mr. John Pullen, continues with unabated interest. Thus far there have been over twenty conversions.

State labor commissioner Laey says he is in receipt of letters from many mill owners stating that they now think that the publication of the statistics will be of benefit to them.

It is going to be extremely difficult to keep in place the great amount of cloth which envelops the confederate monument. Usually only the statues on such monuments are draped until the unveiling.

The attraction at the union depot this morning was a blooded $1,500 "jack" en route to Scotland Neck. His jacksip was done up in a large crate from which his long ears and sonorous bray issued comically.

Rev. S. Wilson Moran, rector of Emmanuel church at Warrenton, will deliver a sermon on "the doctrine of the intermediate state" at the church of the Good Shepherd this evening. Seats are free. Every one welcome.

While the stock in the old bookstore of Alfred Williams & Co., is being sold the new book company occupies part of Mosley's restaurant. The old building will be refitted entirely and a new stock put in, Col. E. G. Harrell says.

The regular monthly meeting of Epworth league, No. 24, will be held this evening in the Sunday school room of Edenton street M. E. church. The semi-annual election of officers and other business of importance will claim the attention of each member.

In all the attacks made upon the action of the new officials of the Seaboard Air-Line there are none in regard to Mr. John H. Winder, the general manager. He is held in the sincerest regard by the Raleigh people, as well as by all who know him, and most justly so.

The state weather bureau has now 350 correspondents who send in crop reports. There are 45 regular stations and 20 others send in reports. There are four flood stations and four rainfall stations. To 52 stations special frost warnings are sent, and 60 get special bulletins.

Capt. C. B. Denson will go to Wilmington day after tomorrow to see the widow of Gen. Whiting in regard to securing material for the address he is to deliver in this city May 10th on that officer's life and services. He hopes that some of the veterans of Fort Fisher will come here May 10th and if they do they will be heartily welcomed.

Most of the rain fell Sunday night. At Morven 3.17 inches fell, at Chapel Hill 4.75 inches. Reports at 8 o'clock yesterday morning stated that the Roanoke at Weldon was 31 feet, or 4 feet above the danger line, and rising rapidly, and reports from the Cape Fear at Fayetteville were that it was 42 feet, or 4 feet above the danger line, and rising rapidly.

OPERATION KILLED HER.

SAD DEATH OF MISS EDITH TURNER, OF CARY

Nearly Well, She Turned Over and Died Suddenly.

On the Seaboard Air-Line train this morning came from Richmond the remains of Miss Edith Turner, of Cary, who died yesterday afternoon in that city. She was known here and is the sister-in-law of Capt. Gess, of Cary, who has a lumber yard in this city.

The circumstances of her death were peculiarly sad. For many years she has been an invalid and for some time had suffered from an internal tumor. Several weeks ago her physician decided that her life could not be saved unless an operation were performed. So she went to Richmond, with hopes of life. There an especially delicate operation was performed, apparently successfully.

Miss Turner rallied rapidly and her friends had high hopes of her recovery. Late yesterday afternoon she was resting easily. Becoming uncomfortable she turned in her bed, immediately she became critically ill and, in spite of the efforts of physicians and friends died in a few minutes.

The funeral will be held this afternoon from the home of her widowed mother in Cary. The people of that little town had cause to love the cheerful invalid and she will be sadly missed.

Democrats in Conference.

Last evening the democratic state committee met, chairman James H. Pou presiding and nineteen members being present. George S. Bradshaw of Ashboro was elected a member, vice Walter R. Henry of Henderson, who recently resigned. James H. Laughran of Asheville was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Chas. D. Blanton, and George W. Blackburn and Chas. M. Stedman were added to the central committee.

A Dog and a Baby's Foot.

Yesterday near Holly Springs a dog was observed running across a lot with something in his mouth. On examination it was found that the "something" was a negro baby's foot. No arrest is as yet made, though a negro girl is suspected of killing the child.

Two Corrections.

In the Visitor's report yesterday of Monday evening's primaries two mistakes occurred which are here corrected. In the report of the first ward primary Mr. J. C. Maroon was entitled to three instead of two delegates, as stated. In the third ward the name of Mr. Boushall should be substituted in place of that of Mr. C. C. McDonald.
