

REMNANTS.

So far the frosts have done no damage in this section.

Mr. W. W. Smith left for Fayetteville this morning.

Income tax collector R. H. Jones returned this afternoon.

All the military organizations in the state are to be invited to attend the unveiling of the monument.

The democratic city convention at Metropolitan hall this evening will certainly attract a large number of people.

Mr. G. E. Leach will leave for Washington tonight to wind up his business as clerk to one of ex-congressman Bunn's committees.

Inquiries are made as to whether Brookside park is to be put in shape for use this season. It was some years ago a very popular resort.

The following university students arrived this afternoon to spend the Easter holidays: F. J. Haywood, Grimes Haywood and Clifford Carroll.

It is understood on very good authority that Mr. Ham Smith will get the nomination for city clerk on the second ballot at the convention this evening.

A letter from Shanghai says that Mrs. R. Jernigan, wife of the American counsel general there, has arrived. She went by steamer from San Francisco.

Tonight is the time at which it is said the heavenly bodies will be in exactly the same position as they were the day Christ died on the cross. It is the first time this has occurred since the crucifixion.

Dough is greatly pleased with his French ice cream freezer. Its simplicity, neatness and arrangement for preserving cream in a porcelain lined holder, are unequalled. It is the only one in the state.

The old Alfred Williams & Co. bookstore reopened this morning. The stock, goodwill, &c., are offered for sale. This widely known business will be a good investment for the purchasers, whoever they may be.

To show how much public interest there is in a proper observance of the monument celebration May 20th it may be stated that King & Co., druggists, will give all the net proceeds of their sales next Tuesday to the fund which is being raised to meet the expenses of the celebration. Raleigh people intend that this shall be a grand affair.

A dealer in farm supplies was asked today whether there was much doing in the way of mortgages, and replied that there was very little. He added that since the supreme court's decision as to the 'mortgage law' the merchants were willing to make advances; but that the farmers do not as yet know of this. He also said that now not many farmers want supplies.

University of N. C., Glee, mandolin and banjo club will hold the boards at the academy of music Monday evening, April 15. The club is highly recommended and as it is composed of N. C. boys they should receive the hearty support of all the people. As their date is Easter Monday they will doubtless receive a big patronage here. The tickets will be on sale at W. H. King's drug store tomorrow morning. Secure your seats at once. Prices 25, 50 and 75.

There is a big demand for copies of the new election law, and no wonder. The Visitor published some days ago a summary of an article prepared by Hon. Clem. Dowd for the Charlotte Observer which showed that the last legislature repealed all city or town charters obtained since 1883, and that unless it provided a new charter instead the cities and towns are really charterless. The question was asked then and is again asked, what will the supreme court say about this?

Horse Races in May.

Arrangements are now being perfected to have some good trotting races at the fair grounds May 21. The matter is in the hands of enterprising gentlemen here, and the plan is to have a number of speedy horses. There will be many visitors here that week, and they will relish some amusements.

Brief Items of State News.

May 20th and 21st seventy five bicyclists will have a meet at Charlotte and exciting races are promised.

President Winston of the university accepts the invitation to deliver the annual oration at the Guilford battle ground July 4.

An illicit still is on exhibition at Durham, composed of a kettle, with a little keg for a cap and an old guano "trumpet" as a worm.

W. F. Barnes, formerly of Winston, was found dead in a sleeping car near Lynchburg. He had a large sum of money on his person and was en route to New York where he held a prominent position. It is thought he committed suicide, the Greensboro Record says.

As some men were floating down the Waccamaw river on a raft they saw passing over them a gray eagle which had caught by the back a common house cat and was carrying it off. The cat was making desperate efforts to free itself but could not, the Southport Leader states.

At Newbern a few nights ago Miss J. Taylor was alarmed by a burglar and felt dead, after summoning aid. The Journal says she was asked by a neighbor to go to his house, after her fright. She did not answer and was found lying dead on the floor. The coroner's jury said fright killed her.

The Leader says that the three masted schooner John H. Cross, from Providence, R. I., to Brunswick, Ga., which went ashore near Southport last October and was 8 1/2 deep in the sand, and which had defied all efforts to get her off, floated the high tide of Tuesday, and was towed into Southport.

Thomas & Maxwell has just received a large lot of pine fiber mattresses for people suffering with bronchial lung troubles.

NOW FOR BUSINESS.

HER ISN'T A SUGGESTION OF WINTER ABOUT OUR STOCK Everything is New. Styles, Qualities, Varieties, Prices.

Loyalty to fashion has already "worked the change" with some of you, and out you've gone, preaching the praises of our greater facilities. The weather—besides East or being only one week off—will set business whirling, lash it from a trot to a run, and then everybody will want quick attention. This is why we would like to have you drop in now, and settle a point or two to your own satisfaction. We say we can fit you out of ready-to-wear line of Spring Suits as perfectly as if they were made to order. And we want to prove it to you. We say that there is no other store in town carries near the variety we do. If you think that's putting it too strong look around a little and see. You will say we are right. We say our prices are lowest, as our qualities are best. There can't be two opinions on that score. We carry everything men, boys and children wear (except shoes). We are in every market; buy from the best manufacturers; have goods made to our own ideas, planning, suggesting, commanding, from the best workers their best work. And your money goes back on the slightest ground of dissatisfaction. Must be honest goods, honestly sold, to warrant such a guarantee, but you know us. Get acquainted with our new stock. You will like it.

S. & D. BERWANCER.

HAIL THE SPRING!

Our spring goods are arriving and we desire to lay before the public a fact, whereby you receive the benefit. We have bought largely, and in making our selections we had an eye single to low tariff prices. All wool goods—equal to a tailor's $18 garment in finish and material.
