A HIGH FESTIVAL DAY.

How Easter was Observed at the Institution for the Blind.

Yesterday afternoon the smaller pupils of this institution enjoyed an egg hunt, something entirely new to them. The prize for the largest number of eggs found was won by a little girl entirely blind. It was interesting to watch the expression of delight in their faces when they would find an egg. Some found as many as a dozen. After the egg hunt they were treated to candy, etc., which of course they very greatly enjoyed. These little ones will ever remember this as one of the happiest days of their lives. In the evening, from 7 to 9 o'clock, a reception was given by Miss Nina Parker, assisted by Misses Fallie and Bessie Anderson and Eugenia Small. Some of the pleasant features of the evening were "pinning the Chinaman's nose," the "fortune basket" and cutting a cake for a ring and a piece of money. Miss Decie Anderson got the ring. A silver spoon was given to the girl who succeeded in "pinning the nose" nearest to the right place, and this was won by Miss Fallie Anderson, and a scarf pin, offered to a boy for the same, was won by Jesse Lassiter. At the close of the reception souvenirs, consisting of bon-bons, in fancy wrappers, were distributed. For this most delightful occasion the pupils are indebted to Miss Parker, and they wish to express their high appreciation of her kindness and her efforts to make them happy at the joyous Easter time.

Railway News.

The hearing of testimony in the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad case before special commissioner Eugene S. Martin at Wilmington is ended. The Farmers' loan and trust company of Baltimore relinquishes its claims on the branch roads, and these now go to the second mortgage. The trust company also concedes that the North State improvement company is the owner of certain rolling stock, valued at $60,000, which was held under lease by the company. It further concedes that the North State company was entitled to a rental of $12,000 for the past year from Gen. John Gill, receiver of the railway. Other points are yet in dispute. The case is closed so far as the examination is concerned, but it is not argued.

REPUBLICAN POLITICS.

THERE WAS A MEETING YESTERDAY. PLANS MADE.

The Question is as to a Mass Meeting or a Regular Convention.

At the office of superior court clerk Young last night a meeting of republicans was held. There are two factions in the party. One of those, headed by J. C. L. Harris and James H. Young, is considered as favoring a mass meeting instead of a convention composed of regular delegates, and also as favoring a "citizens' ticket."

In order to settle this matter of mass convention or convention of delegates the whole business is to come up at a meeting at Metropolitan hall Friday evening. This was called primarily for the purpose of arousing interest in registration on the part of the republicans. A vote was taken last night on the question of what sort of a convention should be held. Mr. John Nichols says the vote was 13 in favor of a delegated convention, and 5 against it. Several did not vote and Harris and Young declared the decision was not final.

There was talk about who should be put up for mayor, &c. W. W. Wynne was favorably mentioned, and so was K. W. Merritt for clerk.

Who is the Justice?

Yesterday Gov. Carr appointed George Kennedy a justice of the peace for St. Mark's township. The governor was informed that John Marshburn, who was elected by the legislature a justice, had twice said positively he would not accept the place or qualify. Clerk D. H. Young declined to administer the oath of Kennedy, saying that Marshburn had not informed him he did not intend to qualify; that he had sent notice to marshburn April 3, and that under sec. 821, vol. 2, of the code the justices had 30 days from April 1 in which to qualify. This place in dispute is that of "additional justice" of which the legislature elected three in each township, all republicans or populists. Kennedy is a democrat.

Sparkling Music Last Evening.

The university glee, mandolin and banjo clubs deserved a big audience last evening at the academy, but had a small one. What it lacked in size it made up in appreciation. The mandolin and banjo music was simply delightful. Encore upon encore was given it and the students, like the generous fellows they are, responded liberally. The instrumental music was enjoyed more than the vocal. The best selection of the latter was "The Sweet Tam Tam." Of the instrumental selections there were even triple encores. The mandolin playing of L. M. Bristol of New York and the banjo playing of H. S. Lake of New York were fully equal to that of professionals.

Fine Cattle.

Today Mr. S. C. Pool sold to Mr. W. R. Crawford thirty head of stalled cattle from his farm near here. Fine animals they are. Mr. Pool got $800 for the lot. He says it pays to raise cattle. He sells two droves annually and finds prices here quite satisfactory.

Bailey, Jr., Vitruvius Royster. Third ward, A. J. Rogers, C. E. King, Logan Terrell. Fourth ward, R. L. Heflin, W. C. Betts and W. E. Price.

S. A. L. Wins a Suit.

A telegram received today says that the Seaboard Air Line won its injunction suit against two railways, the hearing of the matter being had at Atlanta. The two railways in question run into Atlanta and were attempting to shut out the S. A. L. in the matter of freights.

THE PENITENTIARY.

EFFORTS MADE TO GET NEW DIRECTORS TOGETHER.

It is Very Doubtful that There Will be a Quorum.

This legislature elected, or attempted to elect, nine additional directors of the penitentiary, but at the time the election was held there was no quorum. It is therefore contended by the democrats that the election was void. It was a part of the plan, arranged in the populist and republican caucuses, that Capt. "Buck" Kitchen was to be the agent of the penitentiary, the office of superintendent being by the same act abolished and that of agent being created.

The nine additional directors have been very quiet. It was reported once that it was their plan to take hold of affairs three or four days after the legislature adjourned, but the attempt was never made. There are five old directors, and tomorrow is their regular meeting day.

Capt. Kitchen arrived here today. He has written to all the nine new members of the board save one whose post office he does not know to meet here tomorrow, at the same time as the regular meeting. He says that if the old board does not recognize the new members and unite with them the latter will try to elect the agent. But the question of a quorum comes in. Capt. Kitchen this morning did not think over 7 of his "new men" would show up, but this afternoon said he thought all nine would come, as he had advised that senator Herbert and Meyer Hahn, of Newbern, were coming. He was fearful these would not come.

The new men are T. E. McCaskey, J. T. B. Hoover, J. E. Bryan, H. B. Parks, E. F. Wakefield, Meyer Hahn, J. E. Clark, Henry Dockery and R. L. Herbert. The latter is the only man not heard from, Capt. Kitchen says.

Senator McCaskey says it is the purpose of the nine to elect an agent and let him bring suit to test the right to office. Capt. Kitchen is to be the agent. He says able lawyers say a quorum of the legislature was not necessary to elect the new men. The counsel employed by Capt. Kitchen are Messrs. W. H. Day, James C. Mac Rae, Spier Whitaker and W. W. Kitchen.

Capt. Kitchen says he saw today commissions which Gov. Carr has issued for the nine new members of the board. He admits that Gov. Carr is taking the same steps he himself would take were he governor.

Representative Dick Williams, of Craven, came in on the afternoon train as did also senator Marion Butler, the purpose of both being, they say, to be present at tomorrow's proceedings.

Gov. Carr is standing his ground in this matter and it is said the steps he will take are all under the special advice of his able attorney general.
