The Museum and a Clever State Official.

The April number of the Southern States Magazine, published at Baltimore, has this to say about a state official and the museum: "The commissioner's office (department of agriculture) is now in charge of Mr. T. K. Bruner, secretary of the department. Mr. Bruner has always been devoted to his work and enthusiastic in his efforts to develop the efficiency of the department. He is probably better informed as to the resources of North Carolina than any other man in the state, and having a faculty of imparting information, he is a veritable 'hand book' of practical information about the opportunities and possibilities for development. It was owing largely to Mr. Bruner's skill and untiring zeal that the state of North Carolina made such a handsome and interesting exhibit at the world's fair which now comprises the state museum and is the pride of her citizens and the admiration of all visitors."

The Love Case.

The supreme court last evening filed its opinion in the well known Love damage suit here. This is the case in which Mr. Love sued the city for $10,000 damages for the loss of his daughter's eye, which was knocked out in October, 1893, by a sky-rocket which struck her while she was watching the fire works at Moore square during Raleigh's centennial celebration. The superior court decided in favor of the city. The supreme court affirmed the decision of the lower court.

Mr. Richard Pomeroy, of Richmond, Va., whose serious sickness was mentioned last week, died at Asheville yesterday, of galloping consumption. He was only 24 years of age. He was on his way to Colorado.

We have a full supply of quicksilver, furniture polish and bed bug poison which you will need for spring house-cleaning.

Hicks & Rogers, Druggists,
(Successors to Snelling & Hicks.)

Keep Faith.

We propose to have our sale of dress goods tomorrow, the storm preventing us from having it today. The few dozen who have ventured out today in the rain have gotten their dresses. But we think there are hundreds of ladies who intended buying dress goods at this special. So you may come tomorrow, and all dress goods and trimming silks will be sold at just what they cost in New York. D. T. Swindell.

MOURNING GOODS

AND
BLACK WOOL FABRICS

FOR FASHIONABLE DRESS.
Serges, Crapes, Henriettas, Cashmeres and Fancy Black Materials in the various grades, fine, medium or rough.

SPECIAL.

A fine black Serge, 45 in. wide, all wool, stock number 7,400, at 39 cents, worth 50c. We have the exclusive sale of this number and it is of special value.

OUR BLACK GOODS

stock is replete with the "new things" of the season and it is doubtful that a better assortment of the standard grades are shown elsewhere, and without the shadow of a doubt the price on the "special" mentioned above has no equal for quality or the price.

THE PENITENTIARY.

GOV. CARR APPOINTS NINE ADDITIONAL DIRECTORS.

They Met With the Five Old Ones Today and Transacted Business.

East evening Gov. Carr appointed nine additional directors of the penitentiary. These are B. W. Ballard, of Franklinton, W. A. Darden, of Speight's Bridge, W. H. Smith, of Goldsboro, L. C. Rankin, of Fayetteville, W. J. White, of Warrenton, R. H. Ricks, of Rocky Mount, W. J. Adams, of Carthage, T. L. Dale, of Yadkin College, and R. L. Ryburn, of Shelby. Their commissions bear yesterday's date. Eight appointees were here this morning. The old board is composed of J. T. Armstrong, W. E. Young, D. M. Bennett, I. E. Green and Frank Stronach.

This morning eight of the nine new directors appointed by the governor met with the five old ones, and were duly qualified. The only one of them not present was W. J. Adams. He was in the city but did not attend the session. He left this afternoon for his home in Moore county. He said he did not know positively whether he would accept or not, but most probably would not do so. At the same time he said he did not believe the nine men elected by the legislature were legally elected.

The nine directors elected by the legislature, accompanied by Capt. W. H. Kitchen, went out to the penitentiary and demanded admittance, in order that they might organize. They were refused admission and then returned to the city.

This afternoon Meyer Hahn, one of the "Kitchen" directors, arrived. This made the number of these present 7, James A. Cheek and R. L. Herbert failing to arrive. At 4.30 this afternoon, in the office of Spier Whitaker, Esq., of counsel, the 7 met and organized, and elected W. H. Kitchen agent, in order to bring suit against A. Leazar for possession of the office.

THE STATE FAIR.

Upon Raleigh People Depends the Issue of Fair or no Fair.

Last evening the committee of the state fair met in the mayor's office, president Julian S. Carr presiding. A statement of the condition of the society showed that $2,900 is due for premiums from last year and about $1,500 for open accounts contracted during the past three years. Mr. Hal W. Ayer declared his desire to resign as secretary and Mr. John Nichols was elected to that position. Mr. Nichols accepted the position, saying that he would not do so but for Mr. Ayer's desire to resign.

It was decided that the present debt should be satisfactorily adjourned in a short time, and that the matter of holding a fair this year be submitted to the citizens of Raleigh. A committee, Messrs. A. A. Thompson, G. W. Blackburn and J. E. Pogue, was appointed to attend to this matter and call on citizens.

President J. S. Carr declared he was unwilling to attempt another fair until the liabilities were adjusted. He is very public-spirited and takes great pride in the fair and will make the next one a success.

It was decided that the next fair, if one is held, shall be conducted upon thorough business methods and that the system of free passes shall be no more in vogue. The number of free passes at the last fair was too large.

The question of fair or no fair rests now entirely with the people of Raleigh. What will their answer be? The Visitor hopes they will sustain all with their ability and zeal those active and experienced workers president Carr and secretary Nichols.

The Weather For Tomorrow.

For North Carolina: Rain today and tonight. Showers in eastern portion Thursday.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Rain today and Thursday, clearing Thursday evening.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 60; minimum temperature 40; rainfall 1.14.

NEWS NOTES.

The Little Events of a Day in the Capital City.

More rain tomorrow is the sad prediction.

Travel on the S. A. L. is extremely heavy.

The condition of sheriff Page does not improve.

The penitentiary contest is this week's sensation.

The farmers are in a bad way owing to the continued rains.

Mr. N. M. Lawrence, superintendent of the Oxford orphan asylum, is here.

The small streams are very high and Crabtree creek and Neuse river are rising rapidly.

B. C. Beckwith, Esq., left today for New York and New England, on legal business, to be absent ten days.

Deputy clerk of court Moyer, who has for some days been sick at his home at Cary, is again at his post.

Mr. L. A. Coulter, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A., left here today. He finds the local association is in good shape.

Mecklenburg county is to build a $50,000 court house. The big stand-pipe of the water works is to be removed to make room for it.

Rev. W. H. Cunneiff was stricken with paralysis yesterday at his home here. The entire left side is affected. He is now in the Rex hospital.

Mr. W. L. Harger, representing the Brown manufacturing company of Greenville, Tenn., is in the city, in the interest of Ramon's remedies.

The street car company will probably build a pavilion for dances, speakings, &c., in the loop of the street railway near Pullen park.

A revival has been in progress in the Messenger opera house at Joldsboro under the preaching of evangelist Schoolfield. It ended last evening.

Charles A. Cook, Esq., arrived here today from Warrenton, on his way to Wilmington, where his suit for the judgeship now held by judge O. P. Meares comes up.

Positive assurances are given of the reduction of cotton in this section. It was feared by some that the late advance in prices might have the effect of inducing farmers to increase the acreage.

At Pullen park a number of improvements are being made. The buildings are being repainted. There is a pretty flower garden. The park will now be more of a resort than ever, as it seems Brookside park is not to be kept up.

Inquiry was made of superintendent Leazar as to whether the flood in the Roanoke last week had damaged the state farms. It is said that it did not. The great fields of oats were overflowed, but the damage is not worth mentioning. The prospect at the farms is very good.

Miss Culbertson, the talented elocutionist and singer, who appeared at Metropolitan hall last evening, under the auspices of the church of the Good Shepherd, did not have a large audience, by reason of the extremely bad weather, but made a very pleasant impression. Miss Maud Merrimon sang a solo in attractive style.

Last evening state auditor Furman received a telegram announcing the death of his father, Mr. William H. Furman, at Asheville. He left early this morning, to attend the funeral. His father was 76 years of age, and was a native of Petersburg. For many years he lived at Louisburg. During two or three sessions of the legislature he was a clerk in the senate.

Late yesterday afternoon deputy sheriff Charles M. Walters told a reporter that George Mills had sent for him and deputy R. H. Brooks and asked them to promise that they would see his body laid in the grave and would not let it go to the medical students. Both deputies promised George they would see his body put in the ground. George appears to know quite well that he will be hanged and that for him there is no chance of commutation.

HAWKINS-HIGGS.

A BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING THIS MORNING.

A Fashionable Event Which Marks the Post-Lenten Season.

At 10:30 o'clock this morning there was a very large and fashionable assemblage at the handsome residence of Mrs. W. J. Hawkins, on North Blount street, to witness the marriage of her youngest daughter, Miss Lucy Clark Hawkins, to Mr. Sherwood Higgs. Both of the contracting parties are well known and extremely popular here and in the state, and there was much interest in the wedding.

The spacious house was made fragrant by the perfume of Easter lilies, while palms and other plants lent their beauty to the scene. The beautiful young bride was quietly yet elegantly costumed. Her maid of honor was her niece, Miss Lula Hawkins, of Ridge-way. Her bridesmaids were Misses Jeanette Lineaweaver of Columbia, Pa., Rebecca Coulter, of Greenville, Pa., Katharine Jones of Wilson, Janet Badger, Nella Grimes, Jane Andrews, Mattie Higgs and Elizabeth Taylor of this city. Maj. Alfred Williams, Jr., was best man, and Messrs. Henry E. Litchford of Raleigh, George A. Holderness of Tarboro, William Bailey of Louisburg, and Milan Howard, of Newberne, were ushers.

The marriage ceremony was the beautiful one of the Episcopal church and was performed by Rev. J. McK. Pittinger, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd. Bishop Cheshire blessed the happy couple thus made one.

The ceremony is pronounced one of the beautiful home weddings ever seen here. The groom presented each of the ushers with handsome scarf pins, the design being a calla lily. Mr. and Mrs. Higgs left on the noon train for the north and their bridal tour will be an extensive one, including California.

Mr. Higgs is greatly esteemed here, and has made his mark in the business world. His friends congratulate him most heartily in winning so charming a bride.

Death of Mr. George Burgin.

At 10 o'clock this morning, at Hickory, Mr. George W. Burgin died, after a lingering illness, of consumption. He was almost 24 years old, and was born in Buncombe. His father, who was for a term state comptroller, married Miss Whiting of this city, and both of them died of consumption. Mr. George Burgin was for a number of years a clerk here and had many devoted friends. His character was lovable, and there is general regret at his untimely death. He will be buried at Hickory. He was a nephew of Messrs. Seymour and Chester Whiting and the latter will leave for Hickory tomorrow morning.

Two Inhuman Women.

The penitentiary had many recruits last night and today, these being four convicts from Northampton, two from Caswell, one from Gates and two from Surry. The two last are negro women, one of them being 63 years of age, and they get 10 and 15 years respectively for the most inhuman murder of a child, whom they put in a fire-place and covered with the lid of an oven in order to keep the infant from moving.

Revenue Seizure.

Deputy collector Foard seized five barrels of whiskey at the Southern railway depot at Greensboro yesterday, it having been shipped by W. H. Renegar. Deputy collectors Gibson and Shelburne seized two 50 gallon whiskey distilleries in Montgomery and Chatham counties.

Mrs. Ehlers, so well known in this city as a Bible student and teacher, has kindly consented to take charge of a Bible class during part of the short remainder of her stay here. The class will hold its first session Thursday afternoon beginning at 5 in the second story's room of the Y. M. C. A. building. Further particulars may be obtained of Mr. William Cooper, at the Y. M. C. A. rooms.
