NOTES ABOUT THE CROPS.

The Summary of the Reports Favorable as a General Thing.

The U. S. government crop report issued yesterday says cotton planting has been delayed in Texas on account of dry weather; planting has begun in North Carolina and has continued through Arkansas to some extent, but has not yet become general in this state, in South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi planting is being pushed rapidly, and in Louisiana about one-half of the crop has been planted.

Corn planting in the extreme southern states is about completed; the early planted is up, and a good stand is generally reported; planting is more than half completed in Tennessee, has begun in Kentucky and Nebraska, and is being vigorously pushed in Kansas. The general outlook for fruit continues very favorable; the frost of the 15th, however, caused some injury. Tobacco plants are looking well in North Carolina, Maryland, Virginia, and Kentucky, and planting is being pushed rapidly in South Carolina.

An Interesting Case.

In the superior court of New Hanover county, at Wilmington, quite an important case came up. Today Chas. A. Cook, of Warren, a claimant for the position of judge of the new eastern circuit, instituted quo proceedings, to be heard before Judge Hoke. His counsel are Daniel C. Edwards, of Wilmington, L. C. Edrussell, of Oxford, and T. P. Devereux, of Raleigh, while George Rountree, of Wilmington, and Burwell, Walker & Causler, of Charlotte, appear for Judge O. P. Meares, who holds Gov. Carr's commission.

THE PENITENTIARY.

TREASURER WORTH SAYS THE RUNNING EXPENSES WILL BE MET.

He Says he Will Abide by the Decision of the Attorney General.

Today Mr. A. Leaser, general manager of the penitentiary, called on treasurer Worth and wanted to deposit some money, but would not do so unless he was assured that warrants would be promptly and duly honored. He and treasurer Worth called on attorney general Osborne.

Mr. Worth said this afternoon that the attorney general's opinion was not yet received, but that the warrants for the working expenses of the penitentiary would be met. He also stated that whatever the attorney general advised in the matter he would abide by.

At the auditor's office it was stated that the de facto board of directors had not applied for any warrants yesterday or today, but whenever they did apply the warrants would be promptly issued. The law so provides.

Mr. W. H. Kitchen left for Halifax today. Under a rule made by his board of penitentiary directors he has to give a $30,000 bond.

The lawyers on both sides are now trying, it is said, to make up "a case agreed" as to the penitentiary business; and it may come up next week in the superior court here.

The Y. M. C. A. Entertainment at the A. and M. College.

The entertainment at the A. and M. college this evening is given under the auspices of the young men's christian association and is complimentary to the freshman class of the college. It will consist of a theatrical representation of the evil influences of intoxicating drinks, and a reception afterwards. Refreshments will be served free of charge and all friends of the college are cordially invited to attend. There will be no admission fee, the object of the entertainment being to give the freshmen a good social time, and a chance to become acquainted with the friends of the college. Every one who goes may expect a pleasant time. The play to be presented is "Ten Nights in a Bar Room."

Picked up at the Carwheel Shops.

At the carwheel shops 35 men are new at work. A 5-ton steel crane has just been put in. Next week there will be daily casting. So far 1,500 car wheels have been cast. They are excellently made and sales are rapid. Very few are on hand. It is said the force is to be increased. It is quite probable that an additional building will soon be put up. It is needed. In one of the small buildings engine No. 1 of the Carthage railway is being overhauled and repainted and is as clean as a pin. It is a tiny engine, nearly all smokestack and "cow-catcher," but it is said is a clipper as to gait. Mr. William Andrews, who is one of the assistant superintendents at these works, is now at Wilmington, Delaware, picking up additional information at the works there. He returns next week.

The Weather For Tomorrow.

For North Carolina: Fair, slowly rising temperature. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Friday, fair warmer. Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 60; minimum temperature 40; rainfall 0.00.

The Wilmington division of the naval reserves will be here May 20, and will bring two howitzers with it.

Maj. J. W. Wilson and Mr. S. Otho Wilson of the railway commission today made an inspection trip over the Aberdeen and West End railway.

The $10,000 den of performing lions is still one of the features with W. H. Harris' new "Nickel Plate" shows. Gives two performances at Hawkins' lot April 25th and 26th.

The pupils and friends of the Baptist tabernacle Sunday school are manifesting great interest in the annual excursion. It is thought it will be at Virginia Beach, near Norfolk.

A negro man who was at the market today had a hog which he offered for sale. He said it was of the finest breed. When asked what was its breed he replied it was "the red blood crossed on the swine."

Probably tomorrow photographs will be taken of the confederate monument and cabinet size photographs are to be sold as a means of increasing the fund to meet the expenses of the unveiling ceremonies.

Barners Bros., printers, find their business extending so rapidly that they are now occupying another room, 40x20, in the academy of music building. Doorways have been cut so as to connect it with their other room.

It said that a negro here has during the past few days been collecting money with which to meet the funeral expenses of a supposititious relative. He is always "a quarter short." His relative must be embalmed or else is not dead but in a trance.

There are now 6193 spindles in the Raleigh hosiery yarn mills, and 600 more will be in the new building. Owing to the rains the brick work of the extension has not yet begun brick are being delivered in large quantities and excellent quality, from the penitentiary.

The new revenue and machinery act requires the assessors and list-takers of the various townships to meet on or before the second Monday in May and elect a chairman. This is re-assessment year for the state at large. The chairman of the assessing, list-taking board is also to act as chairman of the equalization board, which meets with the board of commissioners in July.

A call is issued urging each church in the southern Baptist association which embraces to send delegates to a meeting to be held at Washington May 9. The object is to consider the advisability of forming a southern Baptist young people's union, and it is thought the meeting will divide the association. Those who favor separation state that the union is getting too large to be handled with ease.

DOTS AND DASHES.

PICKED UP IN RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

The Happenings of a Day Told in Little Space.

Farm work is about three weeks behind hand.

The people are watching and waiting for real spring time to come.

The boiler shop at the Seaboard Air Line shops here is nearly in shape for work.

John Womble has qualified as executor of the late J. E. Council of White Oak township.

Dr. G. L. Kirby, superintendent of the insane asylum here, has returned from a trip north.

As yet the petition for commutation of the death sentence of George Mills has not been laid before Gov. Carr.

A farmer who came in this afternoon from north of the city declares that the frost today has done much damage to the peach crop.

Mr. D. L. Adams, for many years in charge of the dispensary at the insane asylum, was married yesterday at Wilmington to Miss Mary Cooper.

Col. Duryen, who has been here and at Southern Pines some months left for New York today. He will build a pretty cottage at Southern Pines, which place he greatly likes.

Senator Fred B. Rice, who was elected to a position by Wilmington's new police board, offered a bond in a guarantee company. It was declined. The Wilmington Review says that bonds of city officials ought to be given in the city, county bonds in the county and state bonds in the state.

This evening the city republican meet at Metropolitan hall and the session will no doubt be interesting. Mr. Thomas Bailey, who considers himself a fine guesser at probabilities, says W. W. Wynne will be the nominee for mayor, K. P. Merritt for clerk and J. H. Alford for tax collector.

Day before yesterday the mountains in the western part of the state were covered with snow. In fact snow fell that day within two miles of Raleigh. Mr. R. S. Pullen, who was walking in the country west of here, saw the snowfall. Thirteen years ago there was a big snowfall in mid April over a foot of snow fell.

Mention was made the other day of some strange occurrence at Goldsboro, and of the reported detection of the fact that the family of George T. Wasson, a well known colored republican, were throwing bricks at his house, while an attempt was made to place the blame on other persons. Today's Goldsboro papers say the grand jury has found a true bill against Wasson as a nuisance.

There was a sharp frost this morning. Some persons expressed fear that considerable damage had been done to fruit and vegetables. Mr. Stevenson, who left his farm after 10 o'clock, said that he examined peaches and found none hurt. Some vegetables examined were also unhurt. But no doubt damage has been done west of here. The frost was the heaviest in some time, it is said. It is rather late for it, April 10 being the average date of the last killing frost.

Dr. John M. Faison, of Faison's, has in yesterday's Wilmington Messenger a long letter on the subject of evangelist E. W. Oakes, in which he says (and this ends the Oakes matter):

"During his stay in North Carolina for the last two winters and springs he made Faison his home. He has constantly been under medical treatment for physical and nervous derangements. He comes of a family of high-nervous people for generations, many of them insane, some committing suicide and others desperate drunkards. In his early boyhood he showed a tendency to insanity, and strong predisposition to liquor, and early in his youth he became a lover of strong drink."

Ice Cream.

Remember that the way to get choice ice cream delivered at your house Sunday is to leave orders before midnight Saturday night at Dughli's. While cream is delivered on Sundays none is made that day.
