RIOT AT BATH.

NEGROES EMPLOYED AT Today is The Evening Visitor's SAW-MILLS ATTACKED THE TOWN.

Six of Them are Arrested and one was Shot.

Private Secretary Tesfair returned this afternoon from Washington, N. C., bringing with him this morning's extras of the papers there, which tell of a race war at Bath, the oldest town in the state. It has 350 inhabitants and was founded in 1706. Saturday near by, to the number of 150, got drunk and swore they would take the town. There were two fights and a riot.

Yesterday attempts were made to arrest ringleaders. One was shot and six were arrested. They were tried and put on a steamer, to be taken to Washington. Two boats loaded with negroes followed, in order to rescue them, but a tug came up, with 25 armed men and prevented this. Gov. Carr gave authority to call out troops, if it became necessary, and the Washington company was under orders. This morning everything was quiet. The ring leader is is thomas Bonner. He is outlawed. 0.00. One negro was shot and will die.

ISCERTAINLY TO BE MADE A GALA OCCASION

There Will be a Mass Meeting Here Thursday Evening to Make Arrangements.

Governor Carr today accepted an invitation to preside over a mass meeting of the citizens of Raleigh at Metropolitan hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. It will be an important meeting for it is to make arrangements for the decoration of Raleigh May 20, and for the collection of information as to the accommodations of the thousands of visitors who will be here to see the confederate monument unveiled.

There is a great deal to be done, Much will, very naturally, be expected of Raleigh on this great occasion, This city has the reputation of being thoroughly up to date in the matter of celebrations and must not take any step backward.

Gov. Carr has invited all the governors of all the southern states to be his guests on this occasion. These governors were invited last week by our the memorial association. It is expected that several will attend.

The rate of fare on the railways is low and it is expected that the largest number of strangers ever seen here will come.

The ladies' monumental association has appointed the following com-
