RALEIGH, N. C., APRIL 25 1893

The Charlotte bank matter becomes worse and worse.

It is reported that the Standard oil trust made $50,000,000 out of the recent oil flurry.

Bland is looming up at a rapid rate as the logical democratic candidate for president in 1896.

One hundred women and girls are to be employed in one of the Pittsburg, Pa., steel rolling mills. It is the first case of the kind in this country. In England thousands of women are employed in mines and mills.

Announcement was made yesterday by chief justice Fuller that the United States supreme court will on May 6 hear arguments for and against the petition for rehearing the income tax suits recently decided.

George Vanderbilt, one of the richest of rich Americans, is now traveling in Russia and hundreds of noblemen there are urging him during his stay to take an interest—financial, of course—in their affairs. He gets four and five hundred begging letters a day, and has been a source of great interest to the people.

A great apartment house is to be built in New York city, to be occupied exclusively by women. The building is to cost $1,000,000. Women will own and manage the house. One feature of the building will appeal to the "new women." No man will be allowed in the house or restaurants or club rooms unless introduced or chaperoned by a woman tenant.

Revised calculations indicate that about twenty per cent of the persons subject to the income tax have failed to make the return prescribed by the law. The first estimate placed the number of delinquents at about 10 per cent. Each day adds to the difficulties and perplexities in the enforcement of the emasculated statute.

There is a growing belief among many of the political gossips at the national capital that the next few months will find the republican party aligned for bitmetalism and the democratic organization divided into distinct and avowed gold and silver monometallic factions. This belief, it is explained, is based upon some recent events and upon a review of past occurrences.

The action of France, Russia and Germany has not yet exceeded a friendly but energetic protest against the Japanese annexing any part of the Chinese mainland, but the Russian minister at Peking has already been instructed to negotiate with the Chinese foreign office regarding the cession of Chinese territory which Russia demands in compensation for the Japanese acquirings.

A considerable number of Americans, mainly southern men, have voyaged to Cuba for the purpose of allying themselves with the revolutionary cause. Just how many of these active sympathizers are already in Cuba is not known, but it is understood that up to this time there are about five hundred of them. The horrible condition of affairs in Cuba is not yet realized by the outer world. With the close of the sugar season next month there will be miserable and famine. The sugar crop has been far below the average this year, and all of it will now be subject to the new United States tariff on sugar. It means much less to the planters, and with the beginning of the "dead season," lasting from the close of the sugar season until next September, there will be no employment for labor. It means idle hands—white and negro. Such conditions cannot but add to the smoldering fire of the rebellion.

British troops are to be landed at Corinto, Nicaragua. The custom houses are to be occupied by the British forces and British officers are to exercise the functions of collectors of customs. At the same time Nicaraguan local commerce is to be crippled by a blockade. The London Chronicle says the Nicaraguan affair is approaching a climax. Nicaragua, it adds, obviously relies upon American sympathy, but surely if America takes these small communities under her wing she must see that they maintain international observances. The Monroe doctrine is proper enough in its way, but it will hardly prevent a European power, which is not desirous of territorial aggrandizement, from exacting reparation for insult and outrage. The London "St. James Gazette" says the Monroe doctrine has been a theory sixty-two years, but has never been acted on. It is mistaken, for at the close of the civil war an army of the United States assembled in Texas and would have moved upon the French in Mexico if the Maximilian empire there had not been ended by other means. The most prominent fact about the Monroe doctrine is that it has never been successfully disputed.

HOLLAND HAS FLED.

The Ex-Bank Cashier Who Stole and Forged Can't Face the Music.

The Visitor has given, from the Charlotte papers, full accounts of the sensation there growing out of the theft of $60,000 by cashier J. R. Holland of the Farmers' and Merchants' national bank. For some strange reason Holland was not arrested Sunday, Monday or Tuesday. The district attorney was on Monday and Tuesday, begged not to order the arrest, and it was said that Holland would not run away and that if he did flee he could not escape capture.

But, all the same, he did run away. Yesterday he was wanted during the day for some purpose, and Mr. George E. Wilson, the bank's attorney, went to his house to see him. He was surprised that Holland was not to be found. Mrs. Holland stated that he had left the house Tuesday night, and she had not seen or heard of him since. Bank examiner Miller at once appeared before a United States commissioner, and swore out a warrant for Holland's arrest on the charge of embezzling large sums of money from the Merchants' and Farmers' bank. The warrant was placed in the hands of marshal Allison, of the western district.

U. S. currency comptroller Eckels said yesterday that the discovered shortage in the Merchants' and Farmers' bank would not affect the solvency of the bank so far as he had been advised. The arrest of the cashier was in accordance with his instructions.

Yesterday the bank offered a reward of $1,000 for Holland. There are no further developments as to his shortage, which is yet understood to about $60,000.

It was a Boston girl who interrupted a rather grown-up conversation with: "Say, mamma, is everybody wicked?" "Why, no, my child," answered mamma. "Why do you ask?" "Because you haven't said a nice thing about anything today."

Governor Altgeld has made the most of his chance at the interviewer's attention during the incarceration of Mr. Debs.

The president insists on the exclusive management of the editorial department of this administration.
