THE MONUMENT.

The Mass Meeting to Arrange for Raleigh's Part in 20th of May Ceremonies.

There ought to have been a full house at Metropolitan hall last evening, but instead there was a pitifully small one. Raleigh has to play an important part in the 20th of May ceremonies. It is now time for action, not for delay. Gov. Carr presided at this citizens' mass meeting. Capt. Ashe was secretary. A number of ladies were in the gallery. Speeches were made by Messrs. Octavius Coker, Thomas S. Kenan, C. B. Denson, J. B. Hatchler, P. E. Hines, S. A. Ashe, C. M. Busbee, N. B. Broughton, Fred. Woolcott and John B. Kenney.

It was stated that there would be thousands of visitors here, a great many of them veterans, and that Raleigh must do the handsome thing. A committee on arrangements was appointed. It is to meet next Monday at 4:30 p. m. and will have plenty of hard work to do. Mr. A. M. McInerney was assigned the special duty, as a member of the committee on transportation, to see the railway officials and obtain accurate information as to the rates which will be given. Dr. P. E. Hines is to be in charge of the confederate veterans, of whom at least 2000 are looked for. The Governor's Guard was present as a body. The work of the meeting was earnest. It was stated that the band of the famous old "Stonewall brigade," from Staunton, Va., would be here. This is a large and fine band and is superbly uniformed. Its war history makes it one of the most prominent bands in the south. Capt. Woolcott of the Governor's Guard stated that his command was drilling nightly and would continue to do so until May 20.

We are dispensing all kinds of sherbets and cold drinks. Our chocolate is "just lovely."

The Happenings of a Day Told in Little Space.

The clover in Nash square is now growing luxuriantly.

Cotton receipts are tolerably heavy this late in the season.

Some fine lambs have come into the market during the past few days.

The number of prisoners in the jail has remained at 9 for over two weeks.

Capt. W. B. Kendrick lectures at Wilmington this evening on "Wife Hunting."

Mr. Ben. M. Moore is building two cottages on South Dawson street near the union depot.

It is whispered that there is a social sensation at Winston. Its nature no one here knows.

Yesterday a carp weighing 11 1/2 pounds was caught in Pigeon House branch below Taylor's pond.

Raleigh will need a fruit and tomato canner this year. There is money in this business and an outfit is cheap.

The "electric light bugs," belostomas, have made their appearance. They come from streams and ponds.

This evening the Odd Fellows will celebrate the 76th anniversary of the establishment of that now powerful order.

Mr. Washington Duke, of Durham, today visited the penitentiary. He said it had been twenty years since his last previous visit.

Rev. Caesar Johnson tells the Visitor that in the woods around Raleigh there are many tramps and thieves, particularly northwest of here.

Dr. Winston will deliver the 4th of July oration at the Guilford battle ground, his subject being "The life and times of Maj. Joseph Winston."

The smoke of the big fire at Charlotte yesterday was seen at Concord, 21 miles away. It is the biggest fire Charlotte has had since April, 1875.

Strawberries are being shipped from the Wilmington section. Usually they ripen here by May 10, but this year will probably be somewhat later.

As yet it is not decided whether the water supply for use in case of fire at the insane asylum is to be taken from Raleigh's water mains or whether a separate pump is to be put up.

The Charlotte Post says that last evening a number of railroad men met and resolved to have next Sunday a union meeting of organized labor in the railway train service for North and South Carolina.

It is said that Mr. Cicero W. Harris, the well known Washington correspondent of the Charlotte Observer, is quite likely to be put on the civil service commission in place of Roosevelt, who has resigned.

Prof. W. A. Withers, grand captain general of the Knights Templar, today for Oxford, where this evening he will inspect De Molay commandery. There are now in this state 13 commanderies, with almost 600 members in all.

A rumor is current that Mr. E. V. Denton has withdrawn as an independent candidate for alderman. He says that there is no truth in it; that he is in to stay and to win, and is promised support by many democrats and republicans.

Many of the patients at the insane asylum were at the circus this afternoon, thanks to the courtesy of Mr. Harris. That they enjoyed themselves greatly goes without saying. Like the general public they vote the "Nickel plate" a great show.

Holland, the Charlotte defaulter, is a man of 50, with white hair and a youthful face and a good figure; the face being that of a man of 35. He is prematurely aged, but this very thing is in his favor in the matter of disguise. He has a full beard. If he shaves this off and dyes his hair he will appear fifteen or twenty years younger and will be very hard to identify. So said a prominent man here today, who knows Holland well. Holland's aged mother lives near Gastonia.

CITY REPUBLICANS

Met in Convention Last Evening and Made Nominations.

The court house last evening was crowded with republicans, who had assembled there to make nominations of candidates for three city officers. J. C. L. Harris presided; James H. Young having nominated him for chairman, and J. D. Newsom, T. G. Jenkins, Joseph Perry and W. F. Debnam were secretaries; one from each ward. All the 48 delegates save two were present. The convention went quickly into nominations. P. M. Stewart placed before it the name of W. W. Wynne for mayor and J. H. Alford for tax collector and he also received 34 and Alford 19 votes, and on motion of John Nichols the nomination of Wynne was made unanimously. For the position of clerk, K. M. Merritt was placed in nomination by C. H. Beine, but declined, and then James H. Young put up T. G. Jenkins, who was unanimously chosen. John Nichols put up J. H. Alford for tax collector and he also got the compliments of a vote by acclamation. Quite a number of speeches were made.

What Right Has Moore to Have It?

Not long after the session of the legislature it was discovered that there was not on the journals of the house a protest signed by Ray of Macon and other democrats in regard to the action of the fusion majority as to the resolutions of adjournment in honor of Fred. Douglas. Speaker Walser publicly announced, in reply to a question by Ray, that the protest had been ordered to be spread on the journals. But it is not there, nor has it been found among the papers on file. A special to the Charlotte News from Wilmington says this lost protest has been found and read by citizens of Raleigh and Wilmington, among them Capt. W. B. Kendrick and that J. B. Moore, a clerk of the legislature, has it in his possession at his home at Burgaw, Pender county.

The Banana Trade.

The banana trade here is a big thing. It has grown up in the past ten years or so. Dughi, who has developed the business more than any one else, now sells from 400 to 500 bunches each month. The banana is both food and a delicacy at the same time. The Mexicans have a saying that there are as many ways of cooking bananas as there are days in the year. Frying is a popular way of cooking them. Most persons here eat the fruit just as it is. Two years ago bananas sold then for 25 cents. Now Dughi sells them at 75 cents to $1.00 a bunch. He has 100 bunches which will go at these figures today and tomorrow.

Two thousand people were under the canvass at Harris "Nickel plate" circus last evening, and they thoroughly enjoyed the performance.

There was plenty of fun making. The applause given the boy tumbler showed that they were prime favorites. The triple horizontal bar act and the trapeze and sailor's perch acts were excellent. This evening at 8.30 there will be another performance.

The petition for the commutation of the death sentence of George Mills will be laid before Gov. Carr tomorrow it is said. The persons who have interested themselves in getting signatures had the petition in the county, endeavoring to obtain the signatures of all the members of the jury which convicted Mills. It is stated that some of the jurors positively decline to sign the paper.

Many Confederate veterans from Rowan county want to attend the unveiling of the monument. A special rate of $3.25 for the round trip from Salisbury has been secured for them. This the Salisbury Herald says is not quite as low as was hoped, but it is the best that could be done.

James O. Litchford and Oliver G. Womble have sold to N. H. Moore two lots on East Martin street, in the Womble addition, the price paid being $600 for the two.

Among the arrivals at the Park hotel are Charles W. Tillet of Asheville. J. B. Makepeace of Sanford.

HOLLAND'S CASE.

CHARLOTTE'S DEFAULTER'S LOCATION UNKNOWN

Officers Led Off on a False Scent—The Shortage Now Reaches $75,000.

Business goes along as it is wont to at the Merchants' and Farmers' national bank at Charlotte, the Observer says, and examiner Miller is still diligently at work. But there are no tidings of James R. Holland, the defaulting and missing cashier. Speculation is rife. Some figure him in New York, others in Texas, others still in Mexico and many believe he is in Charlotte or its vicinity still. The officers are working every clue. Yesterday morning a negro reported that Holland had tried to engage him to drive him Tuesday night to the home of his brother-in-law, Alfred Kirkpatrick, but that he was afraid and declined to do so; and that he saw Holland get in a buggy at his home, Tuesday night, and drive away. Upon investigation it was found that the story was false. Yesterday chief of police Orr was sworn in as a special deputy United marshal and a duplicate warrant for Holland was placed in his hands. The shortage in Holland's accounts is found to be in the neighborhood of $75,000. U. S. marshal Allison left yesterday for his home at Statesville and U. S. district attorney Glenn left this morning for Winston.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

Two Cases Were Argued at Length Today.

The case of the state treasurer against Bates and other directors of the defunct bank of New Hanover at Wilmington came up in the superior court today. The argument on demurrer. The state, for which attorney general Osborne, William R. Allen and F. H. Busbee appeared, contended that the state treasurer had a right to bring suit. John W. Hinsdale and Daniel L. Russell, counsel for the directors, contend that the treasurer had no such right.

This afternoon there was argument in the case of W. W. Cox against the North Carolina railway for $5,000 damages, for a broken arm. Cox set forth that in 1892 he was thrown from a train at Auburn. Armistead Jones and T. P. Devereux are his counsel, F. H. Busbee appearing for the railway.

The reduction in the acreage to be planted in cotton in Wake is gratifying.

The tobacco crop prospect is good. The acreage will be increased considerably.

One convict from Greenville and two from New Hanover arrived at the penitentiary this afternoon.

Rev. C. A. Jenkins will next Sunday preach his last sermon as pastor of the Baptist church at Fayetteville. He goes to Brunswick, N. J., to take charge of a church.

Next week occurs the fiftieth anniversary of the opening of the institution for the blind here. It was then for deaf-mutes and blind, and the late Mr. W. D. Cooke of Virginia was the first superintendent.

As yet the Confederate monument has not been photographed and it is said it is going to be very troublesome to replace the cloth after the latter has been removed, but next week the pictures will be taken. If there is much trouble only the statues need be covered.

Order ice cream from Dughi today or tomorrow for use Sunday. Remember he makes no cream on Sundays.

Order ice cream from Dughi today or tomorrow for use Sunday. Remember he makes no cream on Sundays.

It is now warm weather but oysters are still in season. Dughi gets them, fresh and fine, every day, all the same.

Here is a prize. The girl or boy under 18 years of age who guesses correctly the name of the person to whom Dughi sold the first ice cream he made here will be given a half gallon of ice cream.

Housekeeping Furniture.

We took advantage of the rainy weather last Wednesday to go through the various lines of housekeeping furniture and take out a number of pieces which we will close out. We have placed this furniture upon our large carpet room floor and marked every piece in plain figures. We make the price now JUST ONE HALF—50c IN THE DOLLAR.

We do not believe we could get together a collection of articles that could be of more interest to housekeepers than these we are showing for this particular sale.

We haven't the space here to name the articles included in this sale, but each piece is a creditable one and at half price. Every housekeeper should be interested.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO

Our Sale of Housekeeping Furniture.

At 50 cents on the dollar we are closing out certain pieces of housekeeping furniture. Here are some of the articles. We haven't the space here to name all. Four bedsteads, banquet and piano camp, Japanese tables, reed rockers, gentlemen's easy chairs, ladies' writing desks, odd pieces of parlor furniture, oak buffets, children's cribs, beds, etc. Everything marked in plain figures and your choice from this lot at 50 cents on the dollar.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

A Fourth Less than Cost.

All men's clothing will be sold in suits for one fourth less than the actual cost of same. And we have a beautiful assortment of men's summer suits and a very large stock to select from. We will not have a clothing department when we move to Norfolk and shall not carry any clothing from here if our low prices will sell it here. For instance, a suit that sold for $15 cost $10, and we now sell at $7.50. So you see this is just half the retail price and a fourth less than cost.
