Here is What Raleigh Needs.

Weeks ago the stone for curbing lower Fayetteville street was delivered,

but nothing was ever done. The street ommissioner says as soon as the eather permits he will lay the curb-

ng. There is no prospect of any permanent street improvement unless the new administration revolutionizes mat-

ers, for there is no stone crusher, no

stone ready, and it appears there is to money on hand. It is said that he stone from the city quarry is not

it for top dressing. May be the new ad ministration will take hold vigorously

of two much-needed improvements-

better streets and sidewalks. If it does 15,000 people will say "well done." Stick a pin here. Most of the

Besides these lists there are 98 as sistant marshals appointed by the lady vice presidents of the monumental association. There are also 96 appointed by chief marshal Carroll.

W. C. Stronach, president, and C. B. Denson, secretary, of the North Carolina confederate veterans association issue the following notice: "All veteran soldiers, of whatever rank or command, who served in the the confederate army, are invited hereby to attend the unveiling of the monument to the confederate dead May 20h in the capitol grounds Raleigh.

"This solemn occasion will perhaps be the last opportunity that many comrades will enjoy of meeting friends endeared by the recollections of the past, and by honoring the noble men who have shed eternal lustre upon the name and fame of North Caro-

"If practicable, come in organizahundred and forty-seven persons to take stock in the "Old Dominion Building and Loan Association" of tions from regiments or companies, or from counties; but if not convenient to join the same, come as individuals, and register on arrival at the office of the bureau of information on Fay-WANTED-A few shares of Ralattaville street.

"All bodies of veterans are requested to notify George Allen, secretary of the committee on arrangements, of their intention, stating probable number and time of arrival, and send forward said notice as early as possible."

Ra-Gev. Holt was invited by Mrs. Armistead Jones, the president of the ladies' monumental association, to be one of the gentlemen who will make short speeches May 20. He replies as

"After thanking you and the ladies of your committee for the high compliment paid me, I have to say that it always affords me great pleasure to do anything in my power for my native state, and especially for the cause under consideration. This monument should have been erected many years ago, as none deserve monuments erected to their memory more than the noble, brave, patriotic North Carolina confederates who sacrificed their lives for what they thought to be right. I will, therefore, cheerfully comply with your request, and deliver a short address on the occasion of the unveiling, May 20. It was my purpose, as I believe it is the duty of every North Carolinian, who, can, to be present, as a mark of respect for those who showed to the world that no truer or braver soldiers ever went into battle than our North Carolina troops. My only regret is that I feel I am not NEWS NOTES.

THE PHYSICIANS WHO EX-AMINED MILLS SAID HE WAS SANE.

So He Will be Hanged Tomorrow What He Said Today.

The Vigiton yesterday published the fact that Gov. Carr at 6 o'clock had acted on the reports made by the three physicians, Drs. Kirby, Hines and Carr, as to the sanity of George Mills, and declined to commute the death sentence. Mills will be privately hanged in the jail yard tomorrow on the same gallows on which Orange Page was executed last August. Great efforts were made to save Mills' life. the claim being that he was feebleminded. The physicians, one of them superintendent of the insane asylum here, say Mills understands the enormity of his crime, and talks about it and other subjects calmly. His appearance indicates a much lower order of intelligence than is really the case. He is neither insane nor imbecile but is legally and morally responsible agent of this well known and excellent for the crime of murderiag his neice. His moral sense is not blunted and he is entirely competent to distinguish right from wrong.

> Last evening deputy sheriff brooks went to the jail and told Mills that the governor had not seen fit to do anything for him. Mills drew a long breath and said, "Well." Then, in a lower tone, he said, "The Lord's will be done." He spoke about himself and asked if his execution was to be public or private. He said he wished it to be private, and seemed to be relieved when deputy Brooks, who has always been very kind to Mills, assured him the execution would be private. Some time ago deputies Walters and Brooks promised Mills they would see that his body was properly buried and not turned over to a hospital or medical school for dissection. Undertaker John Brown will take charge of the body, on the part of the family, and will convey it to Apex for

This morning Rev. D. H. Tuttle, Rev. A. D. Hunter and Mr. John T. Pullen went to see Mills. They found his brother, John Mills, with him, and the condemned man was sending a message to his mother. He told his brother John to tell his mother that he had told the truth; that he believed the Lord had forgiven him for the great wrong he had done; that he knew it was wrong.

Rev. Mr. Hunter said just after he came out of jail that he had signed the petition for commutation simply because he thought Jack Wimberly equally as guilty. He renewed his belief as to that fact.

Sheriff Page will be the executioner, and the execution will take place between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., in the enclosure in rear of the iail. This is a shed of pine planks, with no chinks or openings through which persons on the outside can see. There will be about thirty spectators inside the shed. The latter has a roof.

Rev. Dr. Branson visited George Mills today.

Deputy sheriff Brooks spent some time this afternoon oiling the gallows. also in putting soapstone on the rope. The latter is the one used in hanging Orange Page and three other persons.

Why not save a dollar or two by buying your millinery at Woollcott's. We have the very latest things out. We have just received today the prettiest lot of nice sailors ever seen in the city, and we don't ask the earth for them. Anything in the way of a nice trimmed hat, flowers, (for we have a splended line) feathers, jets or ribbons you will always find at our place. All we ask is that you come and look over the stock.
