

A HOWLING CYCLING BEAUTY

How Pretty Mrs. Sheron Appeared on a Wheel.

LIMA, OHIO, May 5.—The first woman bicycle rider in bloomers seen here went down the streets this afternoon, and left a yellow cloud of woe behind. She was Mrs. Belle McSharon, and all the town turned out to see her go by. She is a resident of Lima is plump and pretty, and she knows it. She came down the principal street dressed in close-fitting blue bloomers, with a gorgeous hat on her head. Ribbons streamed from her shoulders, and her cheeks were rosy. She sat proudly on her wheel, and smiled at the applauding crowds on the sidewalks.

The dust was annoying, and it evidently hurt her throat, for, as the evening came on, it was frequently necessary for her to "wet it," and by 6 o'clock she was a howling beauty on a wheel. She rode the streets with yells of the crowds swelled up in a mighty roar.

Finally her wheel wobbled, and she pitched headlong into the street. After a moment she got up and staggered into a barroom. The barkeeper refused to sell her a drink, and she drove him out. Turning to his wife, she slapped her face, and then assaulted the proprietor of the place. It was getting too lively, and the police took her in, and later she was heavily fined. All the respectable women in Lima held a convention and offered a resolution, that was unanimously adopted, declaring that they would never wear bloomers on a wheel in Lima.

THIS IS SPRING.

Really it has been so cool that the talk and thought about spring have been anticipatory. But now the real thing is here. Adieu to cloudy days and cool weather. Welcome the joyous spring. Talking of real spring weather brings to mind one of the necessities of the season, lighter clothing. We have thought of this and prepared for it. We have clothing which is just the thing in texture as it is just the correct thing in cut and as to prices will give you

A GRATEFUL SURPRISE.

It is one thing to talk about Bargains, it is another thing to really give them. It is in performance of promise that our real strength lies. WE DO WHAT WE SAY and when we tell you we have the latest styles at prices never mentioned in Raleigh we speak words whose truth we can prove in ten minutes after you look at our stock.

BARGAINS, BARGAINS, BARGAINS.

Our $20 Suits no merchant tailor can match. These claim your attention. They are the finest. Our business suits at $13.50, $15, $16.50, and $18 we challenge any one to equal for the money. You can scour the markets, but you can't beat these values. As little money as

$8.50 and $10 will Buy in our House a Suit which in real worth approximates $15. Our boys and children's department is the only complete one in this city. It is a gem in variety, quality and styles. An inspection of it is solicited. Perfect line of gentlemen's furnishing. Nothing missings at

S. & D. BERWANGER.

HAIL THE SPRING!

Our spring goods are arriving and we desire to lay before the public a fact, whereby you receive the benefit. We have bought largely, and in making our selections we had an eye single to low tariff prices. All wool goods—equal to a tailor's $18 garment in finish and material.

$10 PER SUIT We have them in blue and black—cheviot, cassimere, homespun, &c. A large variety.

BOYS' CLOTHING Good navy blue and black cheviot suits, double and single Breasted, thoroughly well made, as good as can be purchased anywhere for $5.00; we sell them at $3.64. Sailor suits in blue stripes with cord and whistle, 79c. Knee pants—the boys need knee pants to help them through until they get their new suit, 17c up; all wool pants 50c.

MEN'S CLAY WORSTED SUITS—All wool clay worsted suits—$9.25 (under new tariff reduction). Any winter garment in our house, including men's, youth's and boys' suits, overcoats, single pants, coats and vests without any reservation whatever, go at fifty cents on the dollar. We mean what we say, so come and take any winter garment at half price.
