THE CONCERT FRIDAY NIGHT. MAYOR AND ALDERMEN. THE OLD ONES GO OUT AND

Elected-The Mayor Settles

At noon today there was quite a a large crowd of persons in the mayor's office. Most of the old board were present. MayorBadger gave to each new alderman a blank oath. This the new aldermen signed. Then the mayor cailed the old board to order for the last time. The proceedings of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

Mayor Badger said this put an end to the work of the board. He extended the board his thanks for its uniform courtesy. City attorney Holding told mayor Badger that the new aldermen ought to be sworn in. He then administered the oath, reading from the printed form. The aldermen from each ward were sworn in at the same time. The oath was as follows:

"I. _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the constitution of the United States and the constitution and laws of North Carolina not inconsistent therewith. and I will faithfully perform the du-tion of the office of alderman, on which I am about to enter, according to my best skill and ability. So help me

Gud. Alderman Stronach made a motion that the board adjourn sine die. Mayor Badger put the motion and it was unanimously adopted. Mayor Russ at once appeared and standing on the platform was sworn in by Mr. Badger. who when he had administered the oath said "Mayor Russ, gentlemen." Mayor Russ signed the oath and took his seat. He certainly fills the mayor's chair well. He directed Harry Roberts, Log., to call the roll of the new board. All answered as pres ent. Mayor Russ said that the board was duly organized and ready for business.

Aldermen C. E. Johnson said the former ordinances needed some changes. and stated that they had been revised. City attorney Holding then read and explained the changes. These were adopted, section by section.

Alderman Robinson asked if the mayor could vote in case of a tie vote disbursments, Joseph G. Brown nomited by alderman Boushall, was on moion of alderman Hoover elected by acclamation. B. S. Jerman was elected by acclamation, in the same way, commissioner of the sinking fund; to give $25,000 bond. As anditor, with $100 salary, W. W. Willson was nominated by alderman Boushall and C. T. Bailey by alderman Hoover. The vote was a tie. The mayor said that while he regretted to vote against so distinguish d a gentleman as Mr. Bailey he would east his vote for Mr. Willson, so the latter was elected.

For street commissioner alderman Boushall nominated W. C. McMackin and alderman Hoover nominated W. Z. Blake. The vote was again 6 to 6 and the mayor voted for McMackin.

For city attorney alderman Boushall nominated J. N. Holding, at a salary, under the new charter, of $400. Alderman Hoover nominated E. A. Johnson. At this announcement alderman Stewart shook his head and waved his hand and said "withdraw Johnson's name." Another republican alderman then said to him "No matter whether you want to vote for Johnson or not yau ought to." Alderman Stewart so voted and mayor Russ broke the tie by casting the decisive vote for Holding.

As chief of the fire department Louis A. Mahler was elected by acclamation, on motion of aldermap Hoover, the salary being $400, or $200 less than heretofore.

As city weighmaster J. M. Harris was elected by acclamation

Alderman Ferrall made a motion that the mayor be asked to invite other cities and towns in the state to send one or more policemen here May 20th, to aid in keeping order. Aldermen Robinson and Stewart objected. The vote was 6 to 6 aud mayor Russ voted in favor of the resolution.

Alderman Johnson tendored the bond of H. F. Smith, city clerk, for $5.000, signed by Jon C. Drewry, C. B. Root, and W. H. Liushan as sureties. On motion the board was accepted and the mayor ordered it approved.

At 1:25 p. m. on motion the board adjourned until the evening of May 24th. Aldermen Hoover said he wanted to go into the election of policemen.

We are dispensing all kinds of sherbets and cold drinks. Our Chocolate is "just lovely." HICKS & ROGERS Prescription Druggist.s

such cases The mayor said the next business was the election of city officers. Alderman Stewart said that this was insty, and asked that the election be leferred to Friday evening. Aldernan Bonshall placed in nomination 'or chisf of police Charles D. Heartt, and alderman Johnson moved that the derk be instructed to cast the vote of he board for him. Alderman Stewart called for a ballot, as did others on the republican side, and then placed in nomination Capt. W. S. Harris. Mayor Russ appointed aldermen Drewry and White tellers. The result the vote was slow in being known, is there was much conferring among the republican aldermen, this being in effort to get them all to vote for Iarris. This effort succeeded, for the vote was 6 to 6. Mayor Russ said

"cast the vote of the chair for C. D. Leartt." Alderman Boushall placed in nomimtion as keeper of the market J. T.

Iottingham, and aldermen Hoover med O. W. Belvin. The vote was sgain 6 to 6, and mayor Russ voted for Nottingham, saying "It is seven votes for Mr. Nottingham and he is eclared elected."

For janitor of the city building J. I. Marshall was nominated by alderaan Boushall, and William Sawyer hy alderman Hoover. Yet again there was a tie and the mayor voted for Marshall.

T. P. Sale was nominated for saniary officer by alderman Boushall and George H. Williams by aiderman loover, and Sale was elected by the aayor's breaking the tie. s keeper of the city cemetery Seth Jones was elected, defeating Willam O'Neill. Sampson Anderson was cected keeper of Mt. Hope cemetery, ofeating Frank Blacknall. In these ases there was no tie. Alderman laker did not vote.
