MAY TWENTIETH.

The Order of Procession Has Been Fixed.

At a meeting of the general committee yesterday it was arranged that the various military companies, bands, veterans, organizations and citizens will form a line of march at the south end of Fayetteville street under the command of chief marshal Carroll. The procession will be in place and be ready to begin the parade at noon promptly. The route will pass the governor's mansion and terminate by marching down Hillsboro street to the monument, where it is expected to arrive at about 1 p. m., at which time the address of Col. A. M. Waddell and others will be made, followed by the unveiling ceremonies and closing with a grand military salute.

It will no doubt be the largest and finest military display and the largest assemblage of confederate veterans ever seen in North Carolina. Sufficient information has already been received from military companies, bands and other organizations, to justify this statement.

The committee of arrangements has authorized the statement regarding time of march and other ceremonies at thus early a date, as an answer to many enquiries from a distance. The time, noon, was fixed in order to give all the trains ample time to land their passengers before the parade begins.

GEORGE ALLEN, Secretary.

Weather for Tomorrow.

Nor North Carolina: Fair, warmer tonight.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Friday, fair and warm in the morning, thunder storm in the afternoon.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m.: Maximum temperature, 82; minimum temperature, 65; rainfall 0.00.

An Excellent Choice.

Correspondence:

The selection of Mr. T. Henry Briggs as president of the young men's christian association of this city for the year 1895 is a most happy one. As is well known, Mr. Briggs has for a number of years been an active christian worker of this city, and has always enjoyed the esteem and confidence of our people; and with his well executive ability, the success of this noble institution is assured. And it behooves the good people of Raleigh to aid it in every possible way. J.

They Make the Fight for a Principle.

The fight of the druggists against the appointment of Dr. John B. Carr as druggist at the insane asylum is extending and getting livelier. It is not a personal fight but one for a principle. They contend that Dr. Carr, to hold the position, must go before the state board of pharmacy and pass an examination. The leading newspapers devoted to pharmacy will take up this matter. Mr. Augustus Bradley is leading the fight, and the druggists and physicians are backing him.

THE JUDGESHIP MATTER.

The Interesting Question Before the Supreme Court.

There is much interest in the case of Cook against Meares, involving the eastern criminal court judgeship. It is said that there will hardly be any decision by the supreme court before next Tuesday. It is the opinion of lawyers that EARL had a much stronger case than Cook has.

Judge Russell argued in this Cook-Meares case that a joint resolution having been adopted by both houses to go into the election of Cook, this was really an act of both houses. It was contended by Judge Shepherd, of counsel for Meares, that Cook was elected before the office was created. It was in the interim between the passage of the act and its ratification that the joint resolution was adopted and the election of Cook held.

Two colored offenders were sent to jail today by justices Barbee and Roberts, Maggie Norwood for assault, and Jim Jones for carrying concealed weapons.

The Happenings of a Day Told in Little Space.

The banks here will observe tomorrow as a holiday.

Sheriff John L. Currie of Moore was here today.

The Durham band will furnish music for the exercises tomorrow.

Last Sunday the street railway company hauled 2 983 people.

The new electric lighting company will have its lights on by May 20.

The price of strawberries dropped today to 15 cents a box; a fall of 10 cents.

The twelve electric lights at the base of the monument were tested last evening and are all right.

This morning Mr. C. W. Lambeth turned over the office of city clerk to Mr. H. T. Smith.

Paper weights having a photograph of the monument are to be on sale on May 20.

The streets and sidewalks of this city are the vital issues for the consideration of the new city administration.

The two new Ball engines, of 125-horse power, have been placed on their beds at the street car power house.

There are now ten electric lights at Pullen park. The street railway company will at once add 25 lights to this number.

The champion baseball team, the Nationals, dropped its first game yesterday afternoon to the Chapel Hill team.

Daghi has been given all the restaurant and ice cream privileges at the university commencement at Chapel Hill.

By an oversight the name of John Y. MacRae was omitted yesterday from the list of druggists who sell Daghi's ice cream.

Another summer car is nearly ready to be put on the street railway, and will make the number of these cars five.

The Independent band has disbanded. Bands are unlucky and short-lived in this city. What is the cause of this?

Governor Carr today ordered a special term of court for Guilford county, judge Boykin to preside, to begin July 15.

Decorator Mitteldorfer today made the front of Stonebanks' saloon gay with bunting. Stonebanks is the pioneer decorator for May 20.

The exercises May 20 h are to begin at noon and it is expected will end about 3 p. m. This will be particularly convenient for visitors to the city.

The governor appointed W. H. Rand, of Rand's Mills, this county, a director of the institution for the deaf, dumb and blind, vice Charles D. Heartt, resigned.

There should not be a vacant seat in Metropolitan hall tomorrow evening. The programme for the concert is completed and such an array of artists is rarely to be found here. Seats are on sale at King & Co's drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam. Berwanger arrived here from Old Point early this morning, having concluded their wedding tour. They are at the Park hotel. Mrs. Berwanger is particularly pleasing both in manner and person and her esteemed husband is receiving many congratulations on his good fortune in winning so charming a woman.

The macadamization of the Hillsboro road is now in active progress. The street railway has been torn up from a point near the A. & M. college to the fair grounds, and after the road is completed will be relaid.

At the experiment farm 30,000 Canada lilies are nearly ready to bloom. A test of the fitness of the soil here for bulb growing is being made. The finest tuberoses bulbs in the world are grown in Southeastern North Carolina.

Farm lands are now drying out rapidly.

The wild strawberry crop is a very large one this year.

E. V. Deaton's central cafe was decorated today.

The Farina flouring mill is now actively at work turning out flour.

Be sure to hear the charming melody of tomorrow evening's concert. Capt. Cunningham and Mr. Pigott, Mrs. Barbee, Mrs. McKimmon, Mrs. Claude Smith and other accomplished artists and musicians will take part.

Mr. W. C. McMarkin declines the position of street commissioner, to which he was elected yesterday. He prefers the position of township road supervisor, which he fills so admirably.

The state treasurer today refused to honor a warrant for the salary of Thomas A. Jones as judge of the western criminal circuit. He contends that the supreme court had decided day before yesterday that Jones was not judge. Now who gets the salary, Jones or Ewart?

Mrs. N. B. Broughton, Miss Mamie Broughton, Mrs. T. b. Ray, Miss Dewey and Mrs. R. G. Lewis left today for Washington, D. C., to attend the southern Baptist convention. Rev. Dr. A. M. Simms expected to go, but found that the reduced rate tickets, $7.50 for round trip, had been withdrawn for sale last night. The others had bought tickets yesterday.

It is a rumor here, and indeed there are good grounds for it, that the S. A. L. shops are to be moved from Raleigh to Portsmouth. If this be true it means an annual loss of $150,000. Naturally, if the shops were moved, Raleigh would not feel a particularly deep interest in the road. It is stated that engines, formerly repaired here, are now being sent to the Portsmouth shops. Mr. Reed, the superintendent of motive power, will live at Portsmouth.
