MEMORIAL DAY.

SUITABLY COMMEMORATED BY EXERCISES, A PARADE AND DECORATION OF GRAVES.

The Annual Oration of Capt. Denison—Services at Metropolitan Hall and Oakwood.

Raleigh today again observed a day in honor of the confederate soldiers who lie in the picturesque cemetery within sight of the capitol. The observance of the day was hearty, and the attendance at the exercises both at the cemetery and Metropolitan hall was good.

The exercises began about 4, at Metropolitan hall, with prayer by Rev. J. N. Cole, the chaplain. Mrs. A. B. Barbee and Mrs. Charles McKimmon sang very sweetly "Hark, Hark, my soul."

The ushers at the hall were Sherwood Haywood, W. W. Vass, Jr., Alex. Stronach and Watkins Roberts. The hall was comfortably filled. The veterans and the memorial association occupied seats in front.

The grand hymn "Nearer My God to Thee" was sung effectively by a chorus composed of Mrs. J. J. Thomas, Mrs. McKimmon, Misses Reggie Cowper, Nannie Jones, Mamie Robbins, Mattie Higgs and Maude Merrimon.

The stage was simply but effectively decorated. On the right was an oil portrait of Gen. W. H. C. Whiting, the hero of the day, this being framed with confederate battle flags. On the left was an engraving of a group of confederate generals.

At the close of the exercises at the hall the procession formed for march in the following order to the cemetery, Marshall Hill and assistant marshals; band, Governor's Guard, battalion of agricultural and mechanical college cadets, members Junius Daniel camp and other ex-confederate soldiers, inmates of soldiers' home, and sons of ex-confederate soldiers.

At the city cemetery a salute was fired over the graves of thirty soldiers buried there. At the Confederate cemetery a male quartette sang "On Fame's Eternal Camping Ground."

IN THE MARKET.

Vegetables are Now Coming in Rapidly, of Better Quality.

Vegetables are in better supply, and prices were today as follows: Squashes 75 cents dozen, snap beans 30 cents gallon, green peas 65 cents peck, onions 5 cents bunch, radishes 5 cents, asparagus, 10 cents; lettuce 5 to 10 cents head; cucumbers $1 a dozen, new sweet potatoes $1 peck, old $1 bushel. Spring chickens are very scarce, at 20 to 30 cents, while for grown fowls 25 to 35 is asked.

Memorial Day at Wilmington.

At Wilmington this afternoon at the beautiful Oakdale cemetery a salute was fired by a battery of the naval reserves. The procession was in the following order:

Field and staff officers of the state guard, the Wilmington light infantry, the naval reserves, Hon. George Davis, Col. E. D. Hall, the ladies' memorial association, the junior memorial association, the daughters of the confederacy, the third regiment N. C. infantry association; Cape Fear camp, C. V. George Davis association sons of the confederacy, officers and men of the confederate army, navy and marine. Prayer was offered by Rev. Will. B. Oliver and the memorial address was delivered by W. G. Burkhead.

For Street Commissioner.

It was stated in THE VISITOR yesterday that Mr. MacMackin would decline to accept the position of street commissioner. Allow me to suggest to the board of aldermen that I know of no better man for the position than Mr. Blake. It is true there is some complaint, but the present commissioner has done the best he could with the limited force under him, which had to be divided up and sent to different parts of the city to work the streets.

A Wonderful Occurrence.

There was a remarkable occurrence at Charlotte yesterday. After having been for thirteen years a deaf-mute, N. C. Odell recovered both speech and hearing. The Observer says that about 2 o'clock in the afternoon he complained of headache, and lay down to take a nap. He dreamed he was no longer deaf and dumb but could hear and speak, and that he was at home talking to his mother. He awoke suddenly, and the word "mother" was on his lips. His dream came true. In the sleep his hearing and speech had suddenly come back to him, and he talked and could hear just the same as other people.

Invitations for the 20th of May ceremonies have been sent out in great numbers. They are as follows: "The unveiling of North Carolina's monument to the confederate dead will take place in the capitol grounds Monday, May 20. You are especially invited to be present and participate in the commemoration of their heroic lives and deeds."

Charged with Arson.

This morning a telegram was received from Apex by the S. A. L. telegraph operator at the block signal office near the union station, saying that a white man named Driver who was on the incoming train was suspected to be the man who burned the store of a man named Rollins, near Chalk Level, after robbing it, and who later made his escape from jail at Lillington. Another telegram to police headquarters gave the same information. Driver, whose name is William Henry, was followed from the depot by officer Beasley and arrested. He is in the station house, awaiting identification. He says he is not the guilty man, but that the letter is his brother John. Driver has four or five brothers, it is said. He is about 50 years of age and some people here know him. He says he was at Apex an hour this morning, before the train left there. J. D. Dennis of Apex, who is here this afternoon, says the man in the station house is really J. W. H. Driver, but that Joseph Driver and Jim Johnson are the men wanted, and that they burned not only Rollins' store but also a tobacco barn and both of them escaped from Lillington jail.

Memorial Day at Charlotte

Was observed this afternoon. There was a procession under command of Louis Leon, with D. G. Maxwell as adjutant. Rev. E. A. Osborne offered prayer at the confederate monument at the cemetery, the military forming in a hollow square, and Dr. J. B. Alexander read the roll of honor. No oration was delivered.
