DOWN WITH TRUSTS.

The LEATHER TRUST with its 120 million dollar syndicate forces HIGHER PRICES on all kinds of leather. Manufacturers are powerless, and you must not imagine that there is any doubt as to the IMMEDIATE, DECIDED and PERMANENT ADVANCE on all kinds of leather shoes. The prices have already been advanced. FORTY SIX of the largest New England shoe manufacturers have advanced prices 10 to 25 cents a pair. How can we help ourselves? The iron hand of monopoly crushes hard; the wage-workers bear the brunt. They are emphatically DOWN ON TRUSTS and we think we see where they are right.

WE WILL DO YOU GOOD WHILE WE CAN.

We shall not mark up any of our present large stock of Ladies', Misses and Children's high or low cut shoes. Our customers who act quickly and buy now will save money. They will reap the benefits of our recent purchases at positively no advance at all. Next fall and winter it may be different. We do our level best to buy right so as to sell right and have been wonderfully successful. If there is any insid-track on prices of any kind of goods to be had our friends shall have it. The benefit will be mutual.

C. A. SHERWOOD & CO.

The Concert Last Evening.

At Metropolitan hall, in aid of the monument celebration fund, was not well attended, though it deserved a full house. The encores were liberal and the singers were generous in their responses. The concert showed that the talent in the musical line here is of a high standard. The absence of Capt. Frank Cunningham was regretted. The singing of Messrs. J. S. Piggott of Atlanta, Mr. Leo D. Hearty of Durham and Prof. Darnall was heartily applauded. Mr. Piggott is a capital baritone singer. Mr. Hearty's notes were very sweet indeed. Prof. Darnall's careful training as a musician was evident. The singing of Mrs. Charles McKimmon, Mrs. Claude Smith, Mrs. E. B. Barbee, Miss Maud Merrimon, Miss Mamie Robbins and Miss Nannie Jones was heard with unqualified pleasure. Mrs. Barbee's song in response to an encore was particularly dainty. Mrs. Smith, whose high soprano is simply delicious, was given a double encore. Miss Merrimon will win a state reputation as a singer. The accompaniments on the piano by Profs. Darnall and Will. Jones were admirably played. here was nearly three hours of music.

Weather for Tomorrow.

Nor North Carolina: Increasing cloudiness, with showers; cooler.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Showers tonight and Sunday morning; clearing by Sunday afternoon; Sunday considerably cooler.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m.: Maximum temperature, 88; minimum temperature, 64; rainfall 0.00.

Mrs. John H. Medlin and daughter have returned from Columbia, S. C.

Again.

Next Tuesday, May 14th, we will again offer Raleigh people another chance. We will sell all Dress goods and all silks at exactly what they cost, on this special day; and furthermore we will say our Dress goods stock is large, much larger than the average Dress goods stock and you surely don't believe the advertisement if you don't get Dress goods from us next Tuesday. We have a good reason for these sales. When we go to Norfolk we had rather go with brand-new stock than move Raleigh goods there, and spring and summer goods must be sold in spring and summer. We will not be here another summer.

Respectfully, D. T. SWINDELL.

All dress goods and all silks in Swindell's store will be offered at wholesale cost next Tuesday. Live people read and profit by advertisements. When we go to Norfolk we had rather buy a new stock than move any of this one; hence these sales. One day only at cost, next Tuesday 14th, at D. T. Swindell's.

A Cake of Hoe-Cake Soap Free.

For every yellow ticket presented to W. B. Mann, provided you buy one cake for 5c, you thus get two full sized cakes for the price of one

THREE GOVERNORS

Express Deep Regret That They Can't be Here May 20.

Gov. Carr had a letter today from Gov. C. A. Culberson, of Texas, as follows: "Your very courteous invitation to be present at the unveiling of the confederate monument is received. I assure you of my sincere appreciation of it, and it is a source of genuine regret that a previous engagement will prevent my acceptance and enjoyment of your hospitality."

Gov. M. J. Atkinson, of Georgia, writes as follows: "I beg to say it would give me very great pleasure to be with you upon that occasion, but engagements already made compel me to be elsewhere May 20. I express my hearty sympathy in the monument and trust the occasion will be very successful in every respect."

Gov. Stone, of Mississippi, writes as follows: "I heartily thank you for the courtesy of the invitation to myself and staff but my engagements in Texas, at the veterans' reunion May 12, will keep me there. In my heart there will always be a warm place for North Carolina confederate soldiers. Associated in the same brigade with 2 regiments, and well acquainted with many others, they feel as near to me as the soldiers from my own state. No truer or better soldiers ever sacrificed themselves to a just and righteous cause than the N. C. troops in the confederate army."

The Grand Confederate Concert

To be given May 20 at the academy of music will be one of the leading musical events here. The following are some of those who take part in this concert: Miss Muldoon, of Louisville, Ky., who is said to be a superb singer; Mrs. E. B. Barbee, one of Raleigh's best known soloists; Mrs. Claude Smith, known as a high soprano; Miss Carrie Young, of Warranton, who has a high soprano voice. Misses Merrimon, Jones, Robbins and Higgs will all sing and they never fail to receive encores. Mr. R. S. Piggott, assisted by a young gentleman from Atlanta who has one of the finest tenor voices in the south, will add much to the occasion. Prof. Meares has composed an ode and it will be sung by fifty voices. Prof. Will. Jones will produce a symphony consisting of twenty instruments. The box sheet will be open at W. H. King's drug store next Tuesday.

FORTIFY THE COAST FIRST

Aud Later Establish a Military Post Here.

Gov. Carr not long ago wrote to the secretary of war regarding the desirability of again making Raleigh an army post. Camp Russell was garrisoned from 1865 to 1877. Today the governor received the following reply to his letter:

"Replying to your letter of the 4th instant, setting forth the fact that Raleigh constitutes an exceedingly desirable point for the establishment of a new military post, I beg to invite your attention to the views of the lieutenant general of the army (Gen. Schofield,) who in reporting to me upon this subject under date of the 4th instant remarked as follows: 'I concur fully in the opinion of his excellency the governor that Raleigh is an exceedingly desirable point for the establishment of a military post, possessing all the necessary and desirable qualifications for that purpose. But the process of abandonment of frontier posts and concentration of the infantry and cavalry of the army has already been carried about as far as can be done at present or in the near future. Moreover the most important military question at the present time relating to the state of North Carolina is the construction of suitable fortifications and the establishment of garrisons for the defence of harbors of that state against possible foreign attack. In my judgement this point should be attended to before that of the establishment of an infantry and cavalry garrison at any point in the interior of the state. I trust that at no very distant day both these objects will receive due attention; 1st that of the sea-coast garrisons and 2nd that of a suitably infantry and cavalry garrison in the interior.'"

Mr. F. H. Busbee delivered the memorial address at Newbern yesterday.

The road between Crabtree creek and Milburnie is one of the worst in this part of the world. People who travel over it speak of it as a succession of mud holes connected with each other by little strips of dry land. Maybe in years to come that part of the road will be macadamized. It will be done when the people of that township get some public spirit.

HAL EBBITT'S VIEWS

As to the Much Talked of Matter of a Lylum Druggist.

Mr. J. Hal Bobbitt is the president of the North Carolina state pharmacists' association, and today he was asked what was his opinion as to the much discussed matter as to whether Dr. John B. Carr is legally entitled to be druggist at the insane asylum. Mr. Bobbitt said: "I give it as my opinion that the secretary of the board of pharmacy, Mr. William Simpson, could not under the pharmacy laws of the state decline to grant a certificate of registration to Dr. J. B. Carr to act as pharmacist at the insane asylum, as the number of inmates there is less than 500. It would seem that the whole discussion has arisen upon a technicality; that Dr. Carr made application for registration while he was a resident of Raleigh, which has a population of 16,000, he having voted in the recent municipal election. I am frank to say that I think the law ought to be amended so that all persons who become pharmacists, no matter whether they are physicians or graduates in pharmacy, must first pass the rigid prescribed examination before the state board of pharmacy."

Mr. Zoeller of Wilson has requested a full statement by Mr. Bobbitt of all the facts in this case before he signs Dr. Carr's certificate.

A correspondent, who thinks Dr. Carr ought to promptly resign as druggist, says: "Medical colleges do not teach the mode of preparing medicines, the uses of them only being considered, therefore I claim physicians who have not paid any attention to pharmacy should not be regarded by the people as such. In olden times pharmacy and medicine were one, but now they are two separate and distinct professions."

Mr. B. R. Lacy will speak to men in the parlor of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Good singing, led by the orchestra. All men invited.

Today Mitteldorfer decorated the Briggs building, Julius Lewis & Co's store, Heller Bros., Thomas Pecoud's and Cross & Linehan's. He will next decorate the Yarboro, R. B. Raney's office and Col. Thomas S. Kenan's residence. There is a happy blending of the national, confederate and state flags and Raleigh's colors Mitteldorfer has fine taste, and by May 20th Fayetteville street will be as gay as a rainbow.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Monday evening, May 13th, at 4 o'clock at Mrs. J. W. Carter's.
