DOWN WITH TRUSTS

The LEATHER TRUST with its

120 million dollar syndicate

forces HIGHER PRICES on all kinds of leather. Manufacturers are powerless, and you must not imagine that there is any doubt as to the IMMEDIATE. DECIDED and PERMANENT AD-VANCE on all kinds of leather shoes. The prices have already been advanced. FORTY SIX of the largest New England shoe manufacturers have advanced prices 10 to 25 cents a pair. How can we help ourselves? The iron hand of monopoly crushes hard; the wage-workers bear the brunt. They are emphatically DOWN ON TRUSTS and we think we see where they are

WE WILL DO YOU GOOD WHILE WE CAN.

We shall not mark up any of our present large stock of Ladie's, Misses and Children's high or low out shoes. Our customers who act quickly and buy now will save money. They will reap the benefits of our recent purchchases at positively no advance at all. Next fall and winter it may be different. We do our level best to buy right so as to sell right and have been wonderfully successful. If there is any inside track on prices of any kind of goods to be had our friends shall have it.

MAY TWENTIETH.

THE CROWD WILL BE THE GREATEST RALEIGH EVERSAW.

Do the People Here Fully Realize This and Are They Already Prepared?

Yesterday's Richmond Dispatch said editorially: "The unveiling of the confederate monument at Raleigh on the 20th will be marked by one of the grandest demonistrations of its character ever known in North Carelina. An elaborate and interesting programme has been arranged and crowds will be in attendance from all over the state. No honor the people of North Carolina, or for that matter, the people of the entire south, sould pay the memory of North Carolina's heroes of the "Lost Cause" would be an unmerited recognition. None appreciate this more than the Virginians with whom the North State troops stood shoulder to shoulder on so many enttlefields. Virginia would send a large military representation to the unveiling but for the fact that owing to the Pocahontas mining troubles most of her citizen soldiery are either in active service or under orders to be ready for such service. As it is, howover, a large veteran and civic delegation from Virginia will participate in the ceremonies. Raleigh is making extensive preparations to entertain all visiting organizations, and that she willentertain them handsomely and that the demonstration will be fine in all of its details need not be told any one who enjoyed the hospitality of the

Another Handsome Circus Car.

Quite recently a Wallace circus bill car was here and decorated Raleigh with flaming posters. A second car came yesterday. This, like the first, is a work of art and heralds a great show. A small circus could not support two such. This car is in charge of C. A. Potter. M. Fagin, the bill poster, is an expert and is assisted by eighteen other experts.

KILLED IN A WRECK.

How Lewis Hinton Met his Death. Early yesterday morning, while a freight train on the Raleigh and Gaston railway was going northward near Middleburg, the train broke. The engine and the front part went on and stopped at Middleburg to get water. Engineer Walter Harding was in the eab. Fireman Lewis Hinton, colored, was on the rear of the tender putting in the hose. Suddenly there was a crash. The rear cars had dashed down between the tender and the car and the wheels cut off both his legs near the thigh. He lived an hour. A number of cars were wrecked and the accident caused quite a sensation in the little town. The vestibuled train brought the body here. Hinton lived on West Lane street. He was about 38 years old and weighed 250 pounds. He leaves a wife and several children. His funeral was held yesterday after-

Executive Appointments

The announcement was made a few days ago of the appointment of W. H. Rand of Rand's Mills as director of the deaf-mute and blind institution vice C. D. Heartt resigned. It was an error in the executive depart. ment, as the purpose of the governor was to appoint Mr. Rand a director of the penitentiary vice Frank Stronach. The commission will be recalled and one issued as penitentiary director. This afternoon the governor appointed Hugh Morson director of the deafmute and blind institution
