RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MAY 15, 1895.

NO. 20

Bunting and Flags for the Unveiling Ceremonies May 20th.

We are ready with bunting and flags for decorating, for the unveiling ceremonies May 20th. We are also prepared to take contracts for those who wish us to do the work.

Matting at Cost.

We will commence our sale of matting tomorrow at about half price. We do this in order to entirely close out our stock of matting a 40 cent matting cannot be bought for 22c., a matting pay 18c all remnants from 10 to 15c.

Thomas & Maxwell has just received a large lot of pine fiber mattresses for people suffering with bronchial and lung troubles.

DOWN WITH TRUSTS.

The LEATHER TRUST with its 120 million dollar syndicate

forces HIGHER PRICES on all kinds of leather. Manufacturers are powerless, and you must not imagine that there is any doubt as to the IMMEDIATE, DECIDED and PERMANENT ADVANCE on all kinds of leather shoes. The prices have already been advanced. FORTY SIX of the largest New England shoe manufacturers have advanced prices 10 to 25 cents a pair. How can we help ourselves? The iron hand of monopoly crushes hard; the wage-workers bear the brunt. They are emphatically DOWN ON TRUSTS and we think we see where they are right.

WE WILL DO YOU GOOD WHILE WE CAN.

We shall not mark up any of our present large stock of Ladies, Misses and Children's high or low cut shoes. Our customers who act quickly and buy now will save money. They will reap the benefits of our recent purchases at positively no advance at all. Next fall and winter it may be different. We do our level best to buy right so as to sell right and have been wonderfully successful. If there is any inside track on prices of any kind of goods to be had our friends shall have it. The benefit will be mutual.

C. A. SHERWOOD & CO.

Housekeepers, PLEASE NOTE!

We invite you to inspect our stock of Fancy and Staple Groceries. You may rely on anything you buy of us as we handle nothing but the BEST goods.

We take pleasure in recommending our improved MELROSE Flour which is guaranteed to please the most fastidious.

Our MEATS are carefully cured and of fine flavor.

We boast of our ELGIN PRIZE CREAMERY BUTTER. It is sweet, pure and fresh.

Selected "SILVER BACK" Mackerel, Roe and New N. C. Herring.

MOMAJA, (contains Mocha, Maccabio and Java), Chose & Sanford's Blended Mocha and Java. Both of these coffees are very fine. Arbuckle, Levering's, etc.

Our prices are as low as first class goods can be sold. Call and see for yourself or telephone No. 125.

Respectfully,
Turner & Wynne,

Fiddle and the Bow.
May 20 will be a great day for Raleigh.

One of the great features of the day will be the Lecture by Ex-Gov. Bob Taylor, of Tennessee, who is so well known as the "Fiddling Governor."

The Boston Journal has this to say of him: "He began by saying a glowing eulogy to the music of the fiddle. The speaker warmly eulogized the common people of America in general, and ended with a genuine prose poem, a burst of rhetoric about the beauties of nature, which itself was worth going far to hear. As a whole it was very enjoyable, and every body present seemed well satisfied."

The Governor's Guards secured the Speaker, so let all go and enjoy a good laugh. Secure your seats at W. H. King & Co.

DOTS AND DASHES.

PICKED UP IN RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

The Happenings of a Day Told in Little Space.

W. H. Branson of Durham is at the Yarboro.

A daughter of ex-sheriff T. F. Lee is here on a visit to relatives.

Four convicts from Lenoir county have arrived at the penitentiary.

There was considerable frost this morning; more than on Monday.

The cold winds are doing the cotton more damage than the frosts.

The firm of Yancey & Martin have dissolved copartnership.

Yesterday afternoon the colored barbers beat the butchers at baseball, 14 to 13.

Washington Duke of Durham and Walter G. Riddick of Wake Forest are registered at the Yarboro.

Dr. Bobbitt left on the 1:10 train today for the state medical meeting at Goldsboro. He will return tomorrow afternoon.

All contributors to the ladies issue of the News and Observer for May 20 are asked to send articles to Mrs. Hinsdale as soon as possible.

A lady member of the state medical society is attending its meeting at Goldsboro. She is Dr. Olivia Nelson of Asheville.

Secure your seats for the lecture by ex-governor Bob Taylor for Monday evening May 20. Box sheet at W. H. King & Co's.

A draft for $3,000 from Raleigh council No. 1118 of the American Legion of Honor was yesterday paid to the heirs of the late S. M. Parish.

This afternoon two baseball teams representing the east and west sides of Fayetteville street, played a match at the park in aid of the monument fund.

Two carloads of immigrants wharfed at New York a day or two ago passed here last night on the S. A. L., bound to the far south.

The speakers' stand May 20 will be 22x36 feet in size, will be handsomely decorated, and will be midway between the west portico of the capitol and the monument.

Sergeant Blackwelder of the "Hornets' Nest" Riflemen of Charlotte is the oldest soldier in the state guard, being 75 years old. He served gallantly in the Mexican war and the civil war.

The history of the late legislature made its appearance here today. It contains 160 pages and in pamphlet form. E. M. Uzzell is the publisher and the price of the book is ten cents.

Mr. T. P. Jerman left for Concord this afternoon, to be present at the marriage there tomorrow of his brother Mr. B. S. Jerman and Miss Isabella Montgomery.

The social event this evening will be the marriage at the First Baptist church at 9 o'clock of Mr. Will. X. Coley and Miss Addie Sue Harris. There are no cards for Raleigh people.

At the fourth annual meeting of the King's Daughters now in session at Newbern, Mrs. H. F. Smith is secretary. Her annual report was made yesterday.

The supreme court decides a case involving the interest rate charged by R. & L. associations against the associations and finds the contract to be usurious. Under a special act of the legislature, however, the associations have considerable latitude.

All the members and friends of the Baptist tabernacle are invited to be present at the prayer meeting this evening at 8 o'clock and hear Mr. N. B. Broughton report on the southern Baptist convention.

Mr. Frank Brannan, a well known and esteemed citizen of Raleigh, died at his home on South Bloodworth street last night, aged 67. He was by trade a tailor and was one of Raleigh's oldest firemen. He was a charter member of the Rescue fire engine company and was for some time its foreman. Mr. Brannan was an honorable man and had many sincere friends who deplore his death.

NO DELEGATES

Will Go From Raleigh to Memphis.

At the mayor's office last evening Mr. George E. Boggs addressed the chamber of commerce and citizens generally in the interest of the "sound money" convention at Memphis, May 23. The sentiment of the meeting was evidently much divided, yet the free silver men were largely in the majority. Remarks were made by Messrs. S. A. Ashe, Josephus Daniels, R. T. Gray, Alfred A. Thompson, E. C. Smith and F. B. Arendell, and also by Mr. Frank S. Spruill, of Louisburg. Some of these opposed sending any delegates and declared they did not wish to commit the people of Raleigh or of the state to any line of policy now. A motion to send delegates to both conventions at Memphis May 23 and May 25 was voted down and so Raleigh will not be represented at either. One speaker declared that 99 out of 100 voters in North Carolina favor free silver. One of the conventions, that of the 23d, is spoken of as the "gold convention," and that of the 25th as the "silver convention."

Ex-Confederate Veterans Coming.

The following is a list of corps of ex-confederate veterans in this state, all of which are invited here May 20: Andrew Coleman Bryson City; B. H. Cathey, commander; Mecklenburg, Charlotte; J. Smith; Zeb Vance, Asheville, J. M. Ray.

Development of the Presbyterian Church.

At the usual Wednesday evening service at the First Presbyterian church this evening, the pastor, by request of the Westminster league, will speak of the origin and development of the Presbyterian church in the south. Business meeting of the league and practice in singing immediately after the regular service. Exercises commence promptly at 8 o'clock.

The edition of the News and Observer May 20 will appear about noon and be of ten thousand copies. There will be 12 pages. The first page will have a special design. A large number of ladies are furnishing copy for the special issue. The latter will contain illustrations of the monument, of all the speakers, etc. and will be an interesting souvenir of the occasion.

A telegram from Petersburg says that A. P. Hill camp of confederate veterans has received and accepted an invitation from the North Carolina monument association to attend the unveiling of the monument and will take some fifty or more of its members.

MAY TWENTIETH.

THE PROGRAMME OF ORDER AND ROUTE OF MARCH.

Wilmington Will Send a Great Delegation Here.

Chief marshal Carroll today completed the route of march and the programme for the May 20 ceremonies. Many changes have been made. The procession starts at noon and at 12:30 will pass the executive mansion, where it will salute Gov. Carr and his official guests and they will also salute the procession. The latter will be in the following order: Marshals as police, chief marshal O. J. Carroll, 190 assistant marshals; the military under the command of Brig. Gen. John W. Cotten; veterans; civic organizations, the firemen; ladies in carriages.

The procession will reach the capitol at 12:45. Gov. Carr and his guests will not parade but will go from the executive mansion directly to the capitol. The exercises there will not be held from the west portico, but at a stand between it and the monument. The chief marshal will present the chaplain, Rev. Dr. Bennett Smedes, Capt. Ashe, who makes the address of welcome, and Col. Waddell, who delivers the oration. Capt. C. B. Denson will act as master of ceremonies present the other speakers.

The procession will form at the south end of Fayetteville street as follows: On West South street the military; on East South street the veterans; on West Lenoir street the civic organizations; on East Lenoir street the firemen. The route of march will be up Fayetteville to Morgan, east to Blount, north to North, west to Halifax, south to Edenton, west to Harrington, south to Hillsboro, east to the monument.

The procession will be headed by 8 marshals as police, and the other assistant marshals will follow the chief marshal, all riding eight abreast. When the procession halts the marshals will form on South Salisbury street, the veterans on North Salisbury street the military, civic organizations on Hillsboro street, the military being nearest the monument. Then all can see the unveiling. Seats will be placed in the square for ladies and children.

The preparations are now quite complete. The contributions of supplies for the veterans are liberal. The headquarters of the veterans will be in the large tobacco prize house in which the 5th Maryland regiment was quartered so pleasantly during its visit to Raleigh.

At meetings held Monday evening decided that the Wilmington Light Infantry and the naval reserves will go to Raleigh to the unveiling of the monument. The reserves will carry two howitzers to help make music on the occasion. Zeb Vance division of the Juniform rank, K. of P. will go on the same train. It is likely also that the second band will go also as a meeting is to be held tonight to discuss the matter. Mayor Fishplate, by invitation, will accompany the party. They will leave here on Sunday afternoon at 3:30, on the Carolina Carolina, the train to be made up of three home sleepers for the military, two day coaches and one Pullman sleeper. They will arrive in Raleigh at 10 p. m. Sunday night and will occupy the sleeper there that night and are expected to return here Tuesday next.

The Post says that Charlotte will be well represented at Raleigh when the confederate monument is unveiled. The veterans, Queen City Guards, naval reserves and many private citizens expect to go.

We are dispensing all kinds of sherbets and cold drinks. Our Chocolate is "just lovely."
