Fiddle and the Bow.

May 20 will be a great day for Raleigh. One of the great features of the day will be the Lecture by Ex-Gov. Bob Taylor, of Tennessee, who is so well known as the "Fiddling Governor."

DOTS AND DASHES.

PICKED UP IN RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

The Happenings of a Day Told in Little Space.

Warmer weather would be greeted warmly. Mr. Wink Taylor, who is to manage the Atlantic hotel, is here.

An electric lamp pole quite near the monument is prettily decorated. The Postal telegraph has put in a branch office, in charge of Jack Haynes at the Yarboro.

The case of the state treasurer against the directors of the bank of New Hanover, at Kinston, is continued. George H. Loeey, manager of the coal mines at Egypt, and Gen. W. Le Due of Fayetteville are registered at the Park.

Wilmington will send up about 500 or more people next Monday. The uniform rank K. of P., will bring its drum corps.

Mr. Harry Martindale of Baltimore, is here, and is full of anticipation of an enjoyable day next Monday. He is a veteran.

Today the work of building the speakers' stand, between the capitol and the monument, began. It will seat about 150 people.

In the station house this afternoon justice Roberts married a couple of colored people who had broken one of the commandments.

Postoffice inspector William Conard, of Charlotte, John W. Jenkins, Briscoe B. Bouldin and Thomas H. Vanderford are at the Yarboro.

What is known as the Scott syndicate, of Plainfield, New Jersey, is negotiating for the purchase of Swindell's store. The syndicate has plenty of money and operates department stores.

The postmaster here is informed that one of the seven letter-carriers has been dropped, but that no extra clerk is allowed. Application was made that a carrier be given a clerkship.

The officers of the ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. were elected yesterday. Mrs. Moffitt is president, Mrs. Glass secretary, and Mrs. Herbert Jackson treasurer. All these were re-elections.

Gov. Carr appoints as delegates from North Carolina to the Mexican international exposition beginning April 2, 1896, Frank Cox, F. B. McDowell, George Bellamy, F. A. Olds and W. J. Andrews.

The Governor's Guards have arranged for a lecture by ex-Gov. Bob Taylor for May 20. Subject the 'Fiddle and the Bow.' Gov. Taylor is probably the wittiest lecturer that the south has ever produced.

Rev. Dr. James A. Weston, of Hickory, accepts a call to take charge of the Episcopal church of St. Saviour, in this city. Rev. G. V. Gilreath, deacon in charge of that church, has a call elsewhere. Dr. Weston was assistant rector of Christ church some years ago and is greatly beloved here.

William Ausley, a moonshiner, in February escaped from a posse of revenue deputies, who were chasing him in Buckhorn township, by jumping into White Oak creek, which was half frozen. He swam across the stream and continued his flight. Today he came here and surrendered himself and was given a hearing before U. S. commissioner Royster. Ausley said he was tired of dodging officers and wanted to stand trial.

Fab. H. Busbee, Esq., was memorial day orator at Newbern, and he gave a brief sketch of the formation of the boy confederates and their gallant services. The Charlotte News says: "Mr. Busbee is well qualified to speak on this subject, as he has the distinction of being the youngest officer in Johnson's army at the close of the war. He was, possibly, the youngest officer then in the confederacy. He was lieutenant in the 72nd N. C. Regiment, which was the junior reserves generally known as the 3rd junior reserves, and he was but seventeen years of age."

THE KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

The Annual Session of the Grand Commandery Closed With a Banquet.

The grand commandery of Knights Templar, in session at Durham, adjourned yesterday afternoon, and is to meet at Newbern the second Wednesday in next May. Grand officers were elected as follows: Walter S. Liddell of Charlotte, grand commander; Joseph H. Hackburn of Newbern, grand generalissimo; James D. Glenn of Greensboro, grand captain general; Rev. W. S. Creasy of Charlotte, grand p. late; Munford D. Bailey of Winston, grand junior warden; Walter E. Storm of Wilmington, grand junior warden; Wm. Simpson of Raleigh, grand treasurer; Horace H. Munson of Wilmington, grand recorder; Wm. F. Randolph of Asheville, grand standard bearer; J. D. Bullock of Wilson, grand sword bearer; D. D. Allen of Charlotte, grand warden; R. H. Bradley of Raleigh, grand sentinel.

The grand commandery participated in a parade at 5:30 in the evening the officers were installed and the Durham knights gave a banquet to the grand commandery. Raleigh was represented by H. F. Clark, A. Hamilton, R. B. Devault, B. R. Lacy, J. C. Drewry, E. A. Womble, W. R. Blake, Wm. Simpson, W. A. Withers, R. H. Bradley and W. H. Bain.

Franklin; Louisburg, Capt. Thomas; Lumber Bridge, Capt. Cobb; Tarboro, Capt. Bryan; Durham, Capt. Sneed; Winston, Capt. Bessent; Goldsboro, Capt. Bain; Washington, Capt. Thomas; Wilson, Capt. Winstead; Granville, Capt. Smith; Reidsville, Capt. Ellington; Fayetteville, Maj. Vann; Henderson, Capt. Jones; naval reserve divisions from Newbern and Wilmington; also companies from Burlington and Oxford. The Horner school cadets, two companies, and the A. and M. college, cadets, three companies, will be in the parade.

A Prominent Texan Here.

Rev. J. M. Carroll, wife and child, of Texas, arrived here this morning on a visit to the family of Mr. O. J. Carroll, and also to see his old friend and collaborer, Rev. Dr. Simms, pastor of the Baptist tabernacle. Dr. Carroll and Dr. Simms labored together in Texas for nearly ten years. Dr. Carroll is one of the most distinguished men of Texas and is a brother of the celebrated Dr. B. H. Carroll, who is one of the greatest preachers in the south. He will preach at the first Baptist church Sunday morning and for pastor Simms that evening.

Bishop Watson's Jubilee.

The annual council of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of East Carolina will convene at St. John's church at Fayetteville Thursday. The following Sunday bishop Alfred A. Watson's jubilee will be celebrated, that day being 50th anniversary of his elevation to the priesthood, which took place in the same church in 1845. Several bishops and many priests will participate in the services. Rev. Dr. Patterson of Memphis, Tenn., will preach the anniversary sermon.

Hams Must be Cooked.

Capt. J. J. Thomas, chairman of the commissary committee, requests the Visitor to say that all provisions contributed for the veterans must be sent to Jones' tobacco warehouse, corner East Davie and South Blount streets, by Friday afternoon or positively not later than Saturday morning and that hams must be cooked. Persons will be at the warehouse to receive and take charge of all contributions.

MEARES WINS.

THE SUPREME COURT DECIDES IN HIS FAVOR.

It Holds that the Election of Cook Was No Election.

The supreme court this afternoon filed an opinion in the case of Charles A. Cook of Warrenton against Oliver P. Meares of Wilmington, involving the title to the judgeship of the new eastern criminal circuit court. The court below found in favor of Meares. Cook appealed and now the supreme court sustains the court below and finds in favor of Meares. The latter it will be remembered was appointed by Gov. Carr. The court finds that Cook was elected before the act creating the court was ratified; in other words before it was a law. The decision has been awaited with great interest. Cook took the oath as judge here before associate justice Montgomery. He called on Gov. Carr and upon inquiry found that the latter had appointed and commissioned Meares, and that the latter had accepted and qualified. Cook then instituted suit.

COLEY-HARRIS.

A Wedding which was a Great Attraction Last Evening.

At the First Baptist church last evening there was a wedding which attracted all the people the building could possibly contain. The contracting parties were mayor Will. X. Coley of Mocksville and Miss Addie Sue Harris, of this city. The altar was prettily decorated with ferns and flowers, and Mrs. J. L. Foster was at the organ. The ushers at 9:15 o'clock led the bridal procession to the altar. They were Messrs. Frank Williamson, Garland Upchurch, Joseph Watson and Henry M. Cowan. The bridesmaids and groomsmen were Misses Kate Belvin and Helen Uzzell; Messrs. Delmar Upchurch and Logan Harris; Misses Nellie Skinner and Caroline Besson; Messrs. Robert Cook and Frank Royter; Misses Claribel Johnston and Susie Lee, of States Island N. Y., Messrs. C. B. Williams and Charles Johnston.

The bride, accompanied by her maid of honor, Miss Maud Harris, followed, and was met by the groom and Mr. C. E. Robertson of Mocksville, his best man. She wore a dainty costume of white satin and chiffon, with long veil, pearl ornaments and sprays of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of brides' roses and lilies of the valley. Rev. Dr. Carter performed the marriage ceremony. A reception at the home of J. C. L. Harris, Esq., on East Hargett street, followed the wedding. There the presents were on view and where both numerous and handsome. The bride is very popular and attractive and the groom is a young man of fine qualities, well known all over the state. They left for Mocksville this morning.

REMNANTS.

A revenue officer who came in today from the eastern part of the state said the apples and even the leaves of apple trees are falling off. It is said the apple crop in that section will be practically a failure. The cause of the trouble is believed to be the cold weather.

Business at the register of deed's office is dull these days. Today only one chattel mortgage was registered. Register Rogers says that there are now fewer liens and chattel mortgages than ever before though there are perhaps more real estate mortgages than usual.

Col. Julian S. Carr will have a beautifully decorated float in the parade Monday. It is said it will represent a war scene. Some of the materials are being prepared here.

Mr. John H. Mills, superintendent of the Baptist orphanage at Thomasville, was here today. He says there are now 137 children at the orphanage.
