COMMISSIONERS MEET.

North Carolina Negroes to be Represented at Atlanta.

An enthusiastic meeting of North Carolina's colored commissioners for the Atlanta exposition was held here yesterday, all parts of the state being represented. James H. Young, of Raleigh, made an address of welcome to the commission and pledged the support of the Raleigh negroes. Congressman H. P. Cheatham presented the claims of the exposition. W. C. Coleman, of Concord, was elected chief commissioner; S. G. Atkins, of Winston, secretary, and R. B. Fitzgerald, of Durham, treasurer. Special commissioners were appointed in each county to supervise the work of collecting money and exhibits. The meeting pledged itself that North Carolina shall be in the front in the colored exhibit.

A Concert Closed All.

The confederate concert at the academy music last evening had the largest audience ever in the building. The stage was handsomely decorated. Among the singers were Miss Anita Muldoon, of Louisville, Ky., R. S. Pigott, of Atlanta, Mrs. E. B. Barbee and Mrs. Claude Smith. One of the novel features was a toy orchestra, conducted by Prof. Will H. Jones. The chorusing an original ode to the confederate dead, composed and set to music by Prof. George D. Mears, of Raleigh.

After the concert a grand ball was given by the Capital club.

Five Generations in one House.

Yesterday at the home of Archie Nays, colored, in Rowan county, the most remarkable family circle in the county, and probably in the state, was broken by death. The deceased, Delsey Lowery, was said to be 113 years old, and this alone made her a remarkable woman. Living in the house with her was her daughter, Lucy Moss, aged 73; Lucy's daughter, Caroline Maxwell, aged 54; Caroline's daughter, Clara Hayes, aged, 33; who also has a daughter 16 years old; making the five generations. All are females, the Herald says, and the great-granddaughter is almost a woman.

A Gigantic Sign on Mars.

According to yesterday's New York Herald, the Hebrew word "Shadai," meaning God, may be definitely traced on the crust of the planet Mars, the characters being imprinted there by means of canals.

Judge Spear, of the United States circuit court of the northern district of Georgia, sprung a sensation in Macon last Saturday when he issued an order lifting the Southern railway way and steamship association's boycott of the Seaboard. It came in the form of an injunction which is returnable on the 20th inst., when the matter will be further heard.

Near Greenville, Fla., Miss Mila Morrison, aged 18, is dying of hydrophobia. She was bitten by a poodle three months ago.

NEWS NOTES.

The Little Events of a Day in the Capital City.

Four national flags decorated the Washington statue yesterday.

There were over 1200 people at the academy of music last evening.

Over fifty representatives of the state press were here yesterday.

The executive committee of the state Farmers' Alliance met here today.

The street cars hauled thousands of people yesterday and handled the crowds well.

The decorations which for ten days had made the city so gay were nearly all taken down today.

The next big event is the circus on the 27th. Today wagons took the circus bill posters out in the country.

Mr. Charles Newsom, who four years ago left here and who has ever since been a member of a theatrical company, arrived here today.

During the parade yesterday four men who were in line fainted. All were given attention by the litter-bearers of the naval reserve battalion.

Mr. Carroll D. Wright, U. S. commissioner of labor statistics, who was here yesterday, was shown many attentions by labor commissioner Lacy.

Only three generals in the parade yesterday, these being Gen. Smith Helling of Va., and Gens. W. R. Cox and William Gaston Lewis of this state.

The Southern railway broke all its records in this part of the country in the number of people it has hauled in the past three days. All were well handled.

Centennial school assembly hall roll of honor for week ending May 17: Ivey Lewis, Nattie Blalock, Willie Myatt, John Birdson, Hubert Haywood and Willie Briggs.

There were crowds of spectators near the monument until midnight last night. The effect of the twelve electric lights is very fine. The monument looks as white as if of marble.

The number of visitors to the state buildings yesterday far exceeded anything ever before known. There was a regular procession through all the buildings. It is said ten thousand visited the museum.

Mayor Fishplate of Wilmington was a happy man yesterday. He was in a carriage with mayor Russ. The latter treated him royally and mayor Fishplate declares he is at once one of the biggest and best men on earth.

The Newbern division of the naval reserves were the last troops to leave today. They took their departure at 1:30 this afternoon. They are jolly boys and good sailors. A thousand people at the depot listened to their songs and fun-making.

The Visitor's estimate of the number of visitors who came in on trains yesterday as 15,000 and of the crowd from the country at 5,000 was mighty close to the mark. Some people say 40,000 to 50,000, but these are fancy figures.

The Messenger says that only ten members attended the meeting of the Wilmington produce exchange which adopted the "sound money" resolutions and appointed delegates to the Memphis convention and that the free coiners were caught napping.

Romus Neal, a colored man who last year was Hon. Charles M. Cooke's carriage driver, was last evening shot and dangerously wounded near Franklinton. A drunken white man named Young fired a pistol out of a car window and the bullet struck Neal. Young was arrested and is in jail.

The commencement exercises of the state normal and industrial school at Greensboro take place tomorrow and Thursday. Tomorrow morning Hon. Carroll D. Wright, United States commissioner of labor, will speak. Mr. B. R. Lacy will introduce him. In the evening the 28 members of the graduating class will present their essays and Rev. Dr. J. H. Boyd will preach the sermon, Thursday Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, of New York, will speak, and other interesting exercises will take place. It promises, indeed, to be a singularly interesting commencement.

"Betsy Hamilton" Caps the Climax Tonight.

If you want genuine innocent fun go to Metropolitan hall this very evening and listen to Mrs. Moore ("Betsy Hamilton.") A full orchestra will discourse sweet music, under the leadership of Prof. White. Secure tickets at the drugstores and bookstores. Price 50 cents, gallery 25 cents. Go hear the hum of the spinning-wheel and the clatter of the "cracker's" tongue! Polk Miller and "Betsy Hamilton" stand unrivalled in their rend-rings of the darkey dialect. Go to King & Co's and have your reserved seats marked.

Weather for Tomorrow.

For North Carolina: Increasing cloudiness with rain today and tonight. Showers in east portion and fair in west portion Wednesday.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Wednesday, showers, cooler. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m.: Maximum temperature, 84; minimum temperature, 58; rainfall 0.00.

Protracted Services at the Christian Church.

For some time quite a spirited interest has been deepening in the services at the Christian church, so much so that the pastor has decided to reopen the protracted services this evening at 8 o'clock. The public is kindly invited, and requested to bring gospel hymns.

Four convicts from Cumberland county and one from Clay arrived at the penitentiary yesterday.

Gov. Carr left this afternoon to attend the commencement of the normal and industrial school at Greensboro, where he will present the diplomas.

J. R. Harp is appointed executor of B. R. Harp, of Neuse River; C. W. Smith administrator of Lewis Yates, of White Oak; F. R. Gray administrator of Mary R. Gray, of Oak Grove.

The railway commission today heard argument of counsel for the Western Union telegraph company in the contempt cases, asking for an extension of time for 20 days. It was granted.

The "Bethel" flag, which was the flag of the first regiment of N. C. state troops in 1861, was the leading flag in the procession of the veterans yesterday. It was carried by Gray Williams, who was one of the four men who set fire to the house at the battle of "Big Bethel, in June 1861." The old flag was put on a staff for the occasion.

Some of the market men are yet clamoring for a reduction of stall rents. They say that the rents are now 50 to 100 per cent higher than they were a year ago. They also claim that the trade has decreased considerably, on account of numerous butchers' and green grocers' shops being opened in various parts of the city. The board of aldermen will be petitioned to make a reduction of rents.

The democratic state executive committee met in the senate chamber last night. The attendance was extremely large. Chairman J. H. Poy presided. There was an interesting discussion of resolutions on the silver question. These were adopted. All parts of the state were represented. The committee did not adjourn until 1:30 this morning. There were some lively speeches.

The amount of money spent here yesterday was really enormous. The thirst of the throng was intense. All sorts of drinks were in demand. At the drug stores four or five men were at a fountain, and soda, milk shakes, limeade, etc., were served to thousands. Nothing like it was ever seen in this state. As to beer, one saloonist sold sixty-five kegs. There are 120 glasses in a keg. The hackmen coined money. Anything on wheels was in demand all the time.

The advance guard of delegates to the Memphis monetary convention is assembling in Memphis.

Dan Crendon knocked Joe Dunphy out last night in the second round at Coney Island.

Mobile sends 25 delegates to the Memphis "sound money" convention.

REMNANTS.

At the Yarboro house 1,000 people took dinner yesterday.

Paschall Reddish is appointed a magistrate in Neuse River, vice B. F. Harp, deceased.

A negro named Wiley was sent to jail today by justice Barbee on four charges of assault and battery.

The News and Observer printed a special illustrated edition of 5000 yesterday and now wishes the number had been doubled.

The grass in the west half of the capital square is badly trampled. A little suture of rain and sunshine will make it all right.

At least 5000 persons visited the penitentiary yesterday. The officials did not have time to eat dinner, so great was the crowd.

General passenger agent Anderson of the S. A. L. says his road brought in 72 cars and 20 regular cars yesterday, and 32 regular and extra cars Sunday, and that most of these were jammed with people. That was 123 car loads.

General passenger agent Anderson of the S. A. L. says his road brought in 72 cars and 20 regular cars yesterday, and 32 regular and extra cars Sunday, and that most of these were jammed with people. That was 123 car loads.

Judges Avery and Clark file vigorous dissents to the opinion of the majority of the supreme court in the case of Elias Carr vs. secretary of state Coke, on the ground that the legislature itself and not the lobby against the will of the legislature could make laws for North Carolina.

At the top of the bell of the First Baptist church yesterday the veil fell from the monument. There was a delay of a couple of minutes before the naval reserves began firing the salute. This was due to the fact that the person designated to notify them failed to do that duty promptly.

Norfolk, Washington and Baltimore cannot be surpassed as excursion points. The Tabernacle Sunday school always give their friends a good time, and this year the trip to Norfolk will be unusually attractive. The fare, round trip is $2 which is the lowest rate ever before given. Wednesday, May 29th.

Collector Simmons last evening received the following telegram from Joseph S. Miller, commissioner of internal revenue: "Supreme court declares income tax unconstitutional. Stop all all work in connection therewith and send to this office at once under seal all assessment blanks, returns and records in your office and in hands of deputies."

The Tabernacle Sunday school is the largest in the state and it is no wonder that it has chartered two elegant trains for its annual outing to Norfolk this year. Many of their friends are going with them they will have a great time. Some are going to Baltimore and others to Washington City where they will spend the day, return to Norfolk on the elegant boats of the bay line, or the Norfolk and Washington line, and then to Washington via regular mail train, for the low price of $5.00 round trip from Raleigh. Round trip Raleigh to Norfolk and return $2.00. May 29th is the date.

"Hill and Heiarieson."

CHICAGO, Ills, May 20.—The democratic managers of Cook county have decided to invite senator Hill, of New York, to address the democracy of Chicago at the annual picnic to be held under the auspices of the party, June 20th, in Ogden's grove. If the senator accepts the silverite members of the party expect to formally launch the Hill and Heinrichson boom for the presidency.

St. Albans Fire Swept.

ST. ALBANS, Vt., May 20.—Over 500 persons are homeless here tonight as a result of the three-fourths of a million dollar fire that broke out at 3 o'clock this afternoon and burned fiercely till after 6, razing in that time 40 business houses, the new government building, which was nearly finished, and 200 tenement houses.
