Students at Wake Forest Had to Guard Him to Prevent Lynching.

Monday evening on one of the many trains which left here on the R. & F. railway were Bob Garner, white, and Romulus Neal, colored. At Millbrook a pistol shot was heard and Neal fell from his seat. He had been shot in the back, below the shoulder. A separation followed. At Wake Forest there was a rush for a man, who sprang from a car and fled, leaving his coat and hat behind. A large crowd pursued this man, who had a pistol. It is said his name is George Green and that he lives four miles from Youngsville. In the crowd of pursuers was Robert Garner, a white man of Franklin county. He was caught by a crowd of colored men and declared he was pursuing the other man. No pistol was found on him. Great excitement followed, and a mob of negroes who were on the train and others who live at Wake Forest tried to lynch Garner. The latter was taken to the college building and placed in a room on the fourth floor, while many students guarded him all night. Yesterday he was given a hearing. There was no evidence against him and he was discharged. Not long after warrants for his name, and the persons who brought them proposed to show that he did the shooting, but by this time Garner had left. There is still a great deal of stir about the affair.

Peace Institute Commencement.

Friday evening the physical culture and education and musical exercises will take place at Peace institute. There are six graduates this year. No less than 174 students are enrolled. The annual sermon will be preached next Sunday at the Presbyterian church by Rev. A. J. McKelway of Fayetteville. Monday evening the graduating exercises will be held, and Tuesday evening the annual concert will be given. This will end the commencement.

Senator Butler Pleasied.

Senator Marion Butler, president Mesbora, of Farmers' Alliance, and other members of the state executive committee of that order, were here yesterday. Only routine business was done. Senator Butler was in great glee when he read the democratic committee's resolutions as to the free coinage of silver, which were referred to yesterday. He said: "I was thinking about asking for a meeting of our populist state committee, but really I do not think it is worth while now. Everything is coming our way. We only have to watch and pray." Senator Butler says the quiet life on his farm in Sampson agrees with him, and that he has gained 25 pounds since March 15. He lost a good deal of flesh during the session of the legislature, as was but natural.

There was frost in fifteen states in the northwest yesterday morning. The temperature fell to 28 degrees in the grape belt in Ohio and the crop is ruined. Reports from the western section of Michigan indicate that the freeze was the hardest of the present cold wave. The dispatches say that all fruits and vegetables which survived the previous frosts are now ruined completely.

The bimetallic resolution which recently passed the upper house of the Prussian diet was carried in the lower house yesterday by a large majority. A Centrist amendment proposing to omit the words "With the ultimate object of securing international bimetallicism" was rejected by a vote of 189 to 92.
