BANK THIEF HOLLAND Is Given a Seven Years Sentence to Albany. At Charlotte yesterday in the U. S. court James R. Holland, ex-cashier of the Merchants and Farmers' national bank, was arraigned. He submitted to an indictment for embezzlement. In eight years past he had embezzled $95,000. Judge Dick in passing sentence said that the case was the most peculiar that had ever come under his notice and told of what provision the law had made for such crimes - ten years to the fullest limit and five the shortest, and mentioned the fact that the prisoner was the victim of a disease that would result in a physical breakdown, and to sentence him for ten years would mean a death sentence, and he therefore proposed a period of seven years, with not too hard labor, with a fine of $10. Holland listened with downcast eyes to judge Dick's words. At the conclusion of the judge's remarks, he held a brief whispered conversation with his lawyers. Accompanied by marshal Allison and his brother-in-law, Mr. W. E. Shaw, Holland left the court room. Marshal Allison says he will leave with Holland for Albany, N. Y., about the middle of next week. Not a single circumstance throughout the entire examination conducted by bank examiner Miller developed to cause a suspicion that a single soul knew of Holland's wrong doing. He was doubly skillful in carrying on his operations and covering them from the sight of his every associate, both in and out of the bank.

BOARD OF AGRICULTURE TRANSACTS MUCH BUSINESS AND ELECTS A COMMISSIONER. Important Action in Regard to the A. & M. College and Atlanta Exposition. The state board of agriculture last night decided to go into the election of a commissioner of agriculture, and Samuel L. Patterson, of Caldwell county, was elected by acclamation. Thos. K. Bruner was in the same manner re-elected secretary. The board established the chair of mechanical engineering at the agricultural and mechanical college with $1,500 salary. It also decided to build a combined dining hall, dormitory and armory and also an auditorium. The board received a letter from James W. Tufts, of Boston, stating that he had purchased five thousand acres of land in Moore county on which he will build cottages to be rented to northern people. The board makes a change in the boarding system at the agricultural and mechanical college. The charge has been $8 a month, but some of the students have an idea they can board themselves for less. So the experiment will be tried. The mess hall, kitchen, &c., will be turned over to them, and will be managed by them under direction of the matron. They can at any time return to the old plan, upon notice to the faculty. There was doubt as to the real status of the state's special appropriation to the college. The act of the last legislature is ambiguous, to say the least. It was construed by most persons, and indeed by most of the members of the board of agriculture, to mean that the special appropriation for each of the years 1895 and 1896 is $15,000. Mr. Mewborne, a new member of the board, holds that it is only $7,500 a year. It is said that in reply to a question asked during the session of the legislature (in which he was a senator) he stated that it was $15,000 a year and that this was what was wanted. The board today appointed a committee of which Col. W. F. Green, its chairman, is the head, to cooperate with the Southern, S. A. L., and Atlantic Coast Line railways in getting up the exhibits of this state's resources at the Atlanta exposition. The railways will haul the exhibits there and bring them back. A fine display is assured. Nearly all the great exhibit in the museum will be taken. This afternoon this matter was settled. The state treasurer construed the intention of the act to be a $7,500 annual appropriation. The attorney of the board agreed with him.

Weather for Tomorrow. For North Carolina: Fair, warmer to-night in west portion. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Fair, weather. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m.: Maximum temperature, 84; minimum temperature, 68; rainfall 0.09. The conditions, as expected, are now favorable for fair, warm weather. The storm yesterday over the east lake region has disappeared over New England, while another "low" has appeared in the northwest with a pressure of 29.70 inches at Bismarck. If this storm takes the usual course over the lakes, as seems probable, and the pressure continues high over the gulf another warm wave may be expected. The weather is generally fair this morning in the south and east, but becoming cloudy and threatening west of the Mississippi. The temperature is slightly higher in the east.

TO BE ENLARGED. Mr. Eberhard's Ice Factory Will be Doubled in Size. Beyond doubt one of the best equipped ice factories in the state is that of Mr. T. L. Eberhard at the west end of West Hargett street. Its capacity is twelve tons daily. It uses filtered and distilled water. So great is the demand for ice made there that Mr. Eberhard has decided to put up another building beside the present one and thus double the capacity. He says he cannot keep up with orders. The cold storage rooms are now being fitted up with cement floors and will soon be ready for use. Mr. Eberhard is shipping much ice out of the city. A Big Contract for Coal. The Seaboard Air Line yesterday made a contract with the Egypt coal company, of Chatham county, by which the latter is to furnish it with 100 tons of coal daily. About a year ago this railroad began thorough tests of the Egypt coal on its locomotives. These tests show conclusively that the statement that there was too much sulphur in the coal is unfounded. The amount of sulphur is merely nominal. The coal is good for all purposes save for very fast runs. It is extremely soft and on fast runs the exhaust blows it out of the engine too rapidly.

REMNANTS. A 2-ton fly wheel has just been put in at the electric railway power house. Mrs. R. K. Williams left for Franklinton today, to remain during the summer. The switch at St. Mary's on the street railway will be taken up. A new one is nearly finished some distance west of it, which will be more convenient for schedules. Manager Meares has booked Modjeska for next season; also "A Breezy Time," the opera "Princess Bonnie," &c. He will have many attractions at the academy of music. He goes to New York in a few days to make bookings. Raleigh and Hamlet will soon be connected by telephone. Mr. Charles E. Johnson will build the line to connect his two cotton compresses. The distance is 96 miles and the line will be one of the longest private ones in the south. Mr. Charles E. Johnson left for Boston, Mass., today, and goes via the merchants' and miners' line from Norfolk, a delightful sea trip. He will return next Thursday accompanied by his daughter Miss Mamie Johnson, who has been at the Boston conservatory of music. The Hickory Press and Carolinian says Rev. Jas. A. Weston has received a call to go to Flat Rock, and was offered $500 for four months ministerial service at that parish, and bishop Cheshire telegraphed him to accept the call and go at once. He has declined, saying he had made an agreement with the vestry of the parish, and he never made it to accept another call the next day. Davidson college commencement was held yesterday. The degree of D. D. was conferred upon Rev. J. E. Gorgartie, of Greenwood, S. C.; Rev. C. W. Humphries, of Lancaster, S. C., and Rev. J. M. Rose, of Morganton. The degree of L. L. D., was conferred upon C. A. Graves, professor of law in Washington and Lee university. Since the last commencement this college has received real estate in Minneapolis, Minn., estimated at $25,000, the gift of Mr. J. A. Bradley, formerly of Wilmington, but late of Orkland, Cal. Among the graduates with the degree of A. B. is Albert Penick Baumann, of Raleigh.

Ex-senator Jarvis and wife have been in Knoxville, Tenn., attending the commencement of the university of Tennessee, where senator Jarvis delivered an address and attended the alumni dinner. Two real estate transactions were recorded in the register of deeds office today as follows: J. J. Hall to Robert L. Parham lot 124 feet on East Lane street $825; W. A. Nixon to R. L. That period expired on the 11th instant, yet the new public printers have not sent the laws. The penalty is $50 for each day.
