OVER THE STATE.

Items of Much Interest Briefly Collated.

The cigar and tobacco store of Kasprowiez & Gerkin at Wilmington yesterday was closed by the sheriff who held executions against the firm amounting to about $3,000.

The residence of E. D. McGinnis, at Charlotte was invaded by a burglar, whose presence was discovered at 3 o'clock Sunday morning. He got away with a $75 gold watch and $23 in money.

The Seaboard Air Line is now getting up its exhibit for the Atlanta exposition. It is attempting something unique, its idea being to show the farming, industrial and manufacturing resources and enterprises of the country along its lines and one of the brightest items in its show will be the contribution by Charlotte. The Charlotte News says will have a conspicuous part in the exhibit.

Two sons of Isaac Taylor, colored, near Coahoma, Lenoir county, nearly killed their father. They had run away and were working in Jones county. He went after them, but they evaded him. He heard they were sleeping in an outhouse and went there before day and broke in the door on them, when one of them hit him on the head with an ax. He is badly injured and may die.

The thirteenth annual convention of the North Carolina Women's Christian Temperance Union is to be held at the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. at Charlotte tomorrow Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Mary E. Cartland, of Concord, is president. Mrs. Hayes of Raleigh will respond to the address of welcome on behalf of the union Thursday at 8 p. m. Rev. D. H. Tuttle will deliver an address.

Reception and Lawn Party

At the Edenton street Sunday school room this evening, the Epworth league will give a reception. Besides the music in which some fine local talent will participate, there are other features on the programme. Seasonable refreshments will be served.

The funeral of Mr. William H. Kerr will take place tomorrow morning from the Presbyterian church.

The Deaf Mute School.

The first annual session of the school for deaf-mutes at Morganton has just ended and was extremely successful. Principal E. McK. Goodwin deserves great credit for his good management. Rapid strides are being made in the advantages given pupils. A new building for the wood-working department is completed and the boys will be trained in carpentering and general wood-work; also in broom and mattress-making, shoe-making and printing. The latter will be equipped by the time the next session begins. The school will have a weekly paper. The boys will also do much work on the farm. The girls are taught sewing, dress-making, etc. There are many applications for admission. There are 500 white deaf-mutes of school age in the state. The health of the pupils has been excellent. The next session opens September 4th. Double the number of pupils will be then received and the staff of teachers, etc., largely increased.

DEAD.

MR. CHARLES D. UPCHURCH

Died Yesterday in Rutherford County.

Yesterday afternoon at Edney's hotel, near Bat Cave, Rutherford county, Mr. Charles D. Upchurch died of galloping consumption. His health began to fail last December, immediately after the death of his beloved daughter Mabel. He was in Chicago at that time and went to Rutherfordton N. C., and remained a short while. Then he returned to Chicago but physicians told him his lungs were affected and he must go back to North Carolina. He then went to Bat Cave. The disease had fast hold on him, and yesterday afternoon at 4:30 he died. His devoted wife was by his side, and soothed his last moments.

He leaves no children, but had a little grandchild, J. C. L. Harris, Esq., left early this morning for Bat Cave. The nearest railway point is Rutherfordton. The remains will arrive here Thursday morning.

Mr. Upchurch was born here November 18, 1846, and was therefore nearly 49 years of age. His father, the venerable Mr. W. C. Upchurch, now over 83 years of age, want to see him two weeks ago and from his house the funeral will be held.

Mr. Upchurch was for many years in the revenue service and was clerk of the superior court eight years. He left here early in December, 1890, and went to New York, where he had a position in the barge office in that city. Then he went to Chicago and soon made his way to a good position on the Inter-Ocean newspaper.

He was extremely popular here and the news of his death greatly grieves his friends. His family connection is very large and influential. He married Miss Howland of Beaufort.

REMNANTS.

Fifty convicts will be sent from the penitentiary tomorrow to the Rocky Mount mills to build a water-way, etc.

The News and Observer will in about ten days issue a special 12 page "public school edition" of ten thousand copies.

State treasurer Worth says that all the counties save thirteen have paid state taxes in full. He says this is about up to the average.

Mr. Jonathan Cox, one of the most prominent Quakers in the State, is dead at his home in Guilford county. He was 78 years old.

Mayor Russ is carrying out an excellent reform movement in east Raleigh, for which he deserves great credit. Today a negro woman for whom the authorities had for sometime been looking was nabbed, and is in jail on her way to the workhouse. Females are no longer sentenced to work on the roads.

A hard hearted negro woman who went on an excursion today and who lives in the southern part of the city, locked her 5 year old child in her room and then took her departure. The child's screams were heard hours after by a woman who was passing, and who took the forsaken child out of a window.

THE WEATHER.

The Conditions and the Forecast.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Fair, slightly warmer Wednesday. Increasing cloudiness Wednesday evening. Rain Thursday.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m.: Maximum temperature, 75; minimum temperature, 52; rainfall 0.00.

The storm in the west is now central north of the lake region. A high area with cooler weather has moved in west of the Mississippi. The change in the temperature moving southward has caused some heavy rains. The weather at present is cloudy and threatening in the Mississippi valley and westward over Texas. The great fall in pressure at Hatteras would seem to indicate the presence of a storm out in the Atlantic off the N. C. coast.

BAUER-BLYTHE.

A Wedding at Washington City this Afternoon.

At Washington, D. C., this afternoon, at the house of Prof. J. P. Matheny, who is a friend of both the contracting parties, Mr. A. G. Bauer and Miss Rachel Blythe were married. Mr. Bauer is well known all over the state as an architect of marked ability and is very popular here. He is a native of Philadelphia. His bride is a Cherokee Indian and her tribal name is "Unaka." She was for years a ward of the late Maj. John B. Neathery and was educated at the Oxford orphan asylum. She is well educated and has for several years been a stenographer and typewriter. Like her husband she has many devoted friends, who will all unite in congratulating the couple upon their union. The marriage ceremony took place at Washington because not legal under the laws of this state, though recognized as binding here if performed in another state. Mr. and Mrs. Bauer will go to New York, Philadelphia and Boston and will soon return here. Mr. Bauer is winning a reputation in his profession and has much work on hand in this state.

AFTER TAXES.

The Last Legislature Enacted a Raking Law.

Sheriff Page is issuing a circular in regard to the new taxes imposed by the last legislature. Some of its sections are quoted as follows:

Every person who shall practice any trade or profession or use any franchise taxed by the laws of North Carolina, without having paid the tax and obtained a license as required in this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by fine, not exceeding fifty dollars, or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days, and shall also forfeit and pay a penalty of fifty dollars, which penalty the sheriff of the county in which it has occurred shall cause to be recovered before any justice of the peace of the county, for the benefit of the school fund of the county.

On all hotels and boarding and lodging houses, kept for the business of furnishing either board or lodging, or both, to regular or transient boarders, for pay or hire, the sum of fifty cents for each bed room kept for said business.

On each and every practicing lawyer, physician, and dentist, the sum of ten dollars: Provided, that no city, town or county shall levy any additional tax on lawyers, practicing physicians, and dentists.

KINSTON INCENDIARIES.

Three Negroes in Jail Charged With the Crime. Strong Evidence Against Them.

Kinston people, seem at last to be getting some developments relative to the fire bugs who have caused such destruction and are keeping the town in dread of further calamity by their evil hands.

The Newbern Journal says three negro men have been arrested and one, Isiah Hill, was examined Friday. Alex Rouse, who has been in jail longer than any of the others, being put upon the stand testified that Hill at one time confessed to him that he and another negro named Hill Dove, who is also in jail, had set one of the big fires. Hill was detected one night last week, in a citizen's yard. He escaped but was tracked to his home by a policeman. This led to his arrest. He had been suspected before.

The general impression is that the right men are caught and it can readily be imagined that the fact is very gratifying to the Kinston people.

The teachers' assembly will begin at Morehead City tomorrow evening, when Miss Minnie Redford of Raleigh will illustrate her methods of primary work one hour with a class of twelve little children in a model school room. The annual address will be delivered by president C. B. Denson. On the afternoon there will be a complimentary sail to the assembly by boatmen of Beaufort and Morehead City. At 8:30 p. m. the opening address will be delivered by W. R. Henry, of Henderson, and will be followed by a reception by officers and committees of the assembly in the ball room of the Atlantic hotel.
