One of the next extensions of civil service reform is likely to cover the steamboat inspection service.

The great corn crop which is promised in this country this year is just what the country needs.

The next great enterprise is an ocean ship canal to connect the Atlantic and the Mediterranean sea, with terminal points at Bordeaux and Narbonne, both in France. This would convert Spain into an island and put an end to the importance of Gibraltar as a fortress. The canal would be 330 miles long and would cost $115,000,000, but its commercial revenue would be large.

The national league of republican clubs which has been in session at Cleveland has completed its work. Nothing was said about silver. The money question was not even referred to in the report of the committee on resolutions but it was declared that the party convention must settle it. The silver men still hope that the national convention will adopt a plank favorable to the white metal. None of the presidential candidates were present at the meeting of the league.

A Letter in Jest Won a Husband.

CINCINNATI, O., June 21.—A message sent in fun by a friend in a soap wrapper was the direct cause of the marriage of Miss Laura Lauer to Mr. Carl Lauer. The soap was a bar of "Lauer's" soap, and the wrapper was a letter from Miss Lauer to Mr. Lauer. The letter was a joke, but it was taken seriously by Mr. Lauer, and he wrote back to her. The result was a marriage.
